Evalina Shippee

November 4, 1937 – November 26, 2021

Evalina "Willie" Shippee, passed away peacefully in Dillon, MT on November 26, 2021. Evalina was born in Aurora, Missouri on November 4, 1937 to Herbert and Jewell Glen Williams. After completing high school, she moved to St. Louis to attend nurse's training at Missouri Baptist Hospital.

She met a handsome x-ray technician named Gene Shippee and they were married on April 4, 1959 in Aurora, MO. She continued to work as an RN in St. Louis, Jacksonville, IL, and Columbia, MO. She continued her education to earn a BS in nursing, then a Master's Degree so that she could be a nursing instructor which is the job she most enjoyed and for which she won several awards throughout her career while at Central Methodist University, The University of Nebraska-Lincoln, and Missouri Southern State College.

Willie was an active church member throughout her life. She enjoyed traveling, reading, quilting, spending time with her family, friends, and her ladies' groups (at First Baptist Church, the quilting groups, and the Y water aerobics group). She was an excellent caregiver for several extended family members, as well as for her husband.

Willie and Gene were married for 62 years at the time of his passing in July 2021.

She was also preceded in death by her parents, and 5 older siblings (Harold, Gene, Roy, Tom, and Elsa).

She is survived by daughter Kenda (John) Madany, and son Douglas (Kim) Shippee, her 8 grandchildren: Jonathan (Courtney) Madany, Kaylyn Madany, Taylor Shippee, Joshua Madany, Rafe Diaz, Michael Shippee, Sarah Madany, and Gabrielle Diaz, and her two great-grandchildren: Kinsey Shippee and Colby Madany. She is also survived by 5 siblings: Willodean, Charles (Delores), Rebekah (Rex), Martin (Garlene), and Glenna and numerous nieces and nephews.

Services are being planned for Willie in mid-January where she will be interred with her family in Aurora, Missouri. Memorial contributions may be made to Barrett Hospital Home Health & Hospice via the Barrett Hospital Foundation. Guestbook available online at brundagefuneralhome.com

Horse Manure

Bryce Angell

My grandson pinched his nose as he was gagging every breath.
I swear he acted like he might just suffocate to death.
I'd have to say most people turn their nose from horse manure.
The pungent smell is too much for their sniffer to endure.
For me the smell of horse manure brings back old memories.
I can't forget those evening smells brought in by summer's breeze.
While on the farm we did our chores before we went to school.
We tried to keep our boots clean. 'Twas my mother's family rule.
One morning feeding horses, they would not cooperate.
There was no time to clean my boots 'cuz I was running late.
So, my English teacher told me, "Throw those filthy boots away."
I told him, "I don't think so, but I'll walk on out today."
My Agriculture teacher didn't mind the horse manure.
But said, "When taking English, clean the horse manure for sure."
So, I didn't push my luck. From then I cleaned 'em till they shone.
'Cuz horse manure in English class was scorned. Carved in stone.
One day my father told me "Load the truck with horse manure.
Haul it to your grandma. If she runs out get her more."
I mulched in all the garden till grandma told me, "Time to stop."
And to this day I've never seen a finer tomato crop.
I gulped down ripe tomatoes. Didn't care what made them grow.
Did they have a hint of horse manure? Not one bit, so you know.
I've shoveled horse manure from trucks and trailers half my life.
I love it when I see the shoveling coming from my wife.
As long as there are horses, there'll be plenty horse manure.
And if your nose is sensitive, start shoveling. That's the cure.

Bulldogs Drop Game to Colorado Mesa, 63-75

The Montana Western Bulldogs (6-1) dropped an exhibition game to the Colorado Mesa University Mavericks (5-0)—63 to 75—to finish out their weekend in Colorado.

The Mavericks started off quick with a 12 to zero run in the first quarter. The Bulldogs struggled to put points on the board for the remainder of the first, only scoring seven points compared to Colorado Mesa's 20. Montana Western outscored the Mavericks in the second half, including their own 12-point run in the fourth, but it wasn't enough to hold off the Colorado team.

Brynley Fitzgerald tallied 17 points and Lilly Gopher added 15 for Montana Western.

Joelnell Momberg grabbed five rebounds for the Bulldogs. Mariah Martin put up 23 points and two other Mavericks scored 15 each.

The Bulldogs play in Butte next Thursday against Montana Tech at 5 p.m.

pandemic, many Montanans wonder what they can do to help their communities thrive, keep their downtowns vibrant, and strengthen their local economies.

The answer is simple: Invest in Montana, not Wall Street.

But how?

Nationally acclaimed local investing expert, Michael Shuman, will answer that question and others in a free one-hour educational webinar on "The ABCs of Local Investing in Montana". Shuman will share a range of strategies for how all Montanans - regardless of their wealth or income levels - can be local investors in business, real estate, energy projects, their community, their neighbors and themselves.

Shuman will review why local investment matters, what kinds of local investments to look for, how to find and evaluate them, and where to find the financial resources to support them.

"Having worked with a half dozen communities in Montana," Shuman says, "I'm impressed with residents' love of their community businesses and their capacity to innovate."

"The ABCs of Local Investing in Montana" will take place online from Noon-1:30 PM MT on Tuesday, December 14th. This webinar is provided free of charge by Missoula's Center for Community Ownership. More information can be found at the Center for Community Ownership website

About the presenter:

Michael H. Shuman is an economist, attorney, author, and entrepreneur, and a leading visionary on community economics. He is an Adjunct Professor at Bard Business School in New York City. He is also a Senior Researcher for Council Fire, where he performs economic-development analyses for states, local governments, and businesses around North America. He is credited with being one of the architects of the 2012 JOBS Act and dozens of state laws overhauling securities regulation of crowdfunding. He has authored, coauthored, or edited ten books. His two most recent books are Put Your Money Where Your Life Is: How to Invest Locally Using Solo 401ks and Self-Directed IRAs and The Local Economy Solution: How Innovative, Self-Financing Pollinator Enterprises Can Grow Jobs and Prosperity and Local Dollars, Local Sense: How to Shift Your Money from Wall Street to Main Street. One of his previous books, The Small Mart Revolution: How Local Businesses Are Beating the Global Competition (Berrett-Koehler, 2006), received a bronze prize from the Independent Publishers Association for best business book of 2006.
