Virginia Kendall Marsh Nelson

Virginia Kendall Marsh Nelson was born December 2nd, 1927 to Oliver and Frances (Trow) Kendall in Winner, South Dakota. She passed away on December 2nd, her 94th birthday, surrounded by her family at the Tobacco Root Mountains Care Center in Sheridan, MT. Mom's childhood was spent in Custer, South Dakota. As a young girl she was able to watch the building of Mount Rushmore.

Her family moved to Sheridan, Montana in 1943. She graduated

Valedictorian from Sheridan High School in 1945. She married J. Vernon Marsh in 1946 after his return from World War II. Together they had four sons. The family moved to Dillon in 1955.

In 1975 she married Dr. Norman Wayne Nelson.

Mom worked for Ron Wagner, CPA for 15 years. In 1979 she began work at the Dillon Veterinarian Clinic alongside her husband Dr. Nelson and his partner Dr. Gordon Knorr. Mom worked at the clinic until Dr. Nelson's death in 1998.

She was a very active member of the Dillon Community. She was a member of the St. James Episcopal Church, the Barrett Hospital Auxiliary, the Parkview Acres Nursing Home Auxiliary, the High Peaks Federal Credit Union Credit Committee and the Festival of Trees.

Mom was selected as the Outstanding Women of the Year in 1995 and was the Grand Marshall of Dillon's Labor Day Parade in 2012. She was extremely proud of both honors.

After Dr. Nelson's death, she joined a travel group of widowed women and traveled the world. She went on many wonderful trips and made lots of lifelong friends. As a member of the Global Grannies, she traveled from New Zealand to Russia, Africa to Alaska and everywhere in between. She rode in a hot air balloon over the savannas of Kenya and on the back of an elephant through the jungles of Thailand.

She was preceded in death by both her parents, both husbands, grandson Jason Stevenson, sister Lola Cote, brother Oliver Kendall, and special friend Ellen Laknar.

She is survived by her sister Peggy Elser; sons, Douglas (Lianne) of Omak, WA, David (Kassie) of Sheridan, MT,

FWP seeking volunteer trapper education instructors

Every year, a new generation of trappers takes to the mountains and plains of Montana. Those new trappers need training and instruction, not only for safety and ethics, but also on how to truly enjoy the outdoor experience. Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks needs volunteer instructors for the new Trapper Education Program across the state.

Beginning in the 2022 trapping season, Montana will require aspiring trappers to complete a mandatory trapper education program.

"We are excited to offer this brand-new education program," said Wayne Cooperider, outdoor skills and safety supervisor for FWP. "Our goal for trapper education is to impart the knowledge and skills to be an ethical, safe, legal, responsible and humane trapper."

Just like Montana's Hunter and Bowhunter Education Programs, the heart of the Trapper Education Program will be a corps of dedicated volunteer trapper instructors.

"These instructors will stand as examples of how each trapper should demonstrate ethics, behavior, and responsibility to themselves, landowners, other outdoor users and the resource," Cooperider said.

Many instructors say there is no greater reward than hearing a former student tell the story of their first successful trapping or hunting experience.

Those interested in applying to become a trapper education instructor can visit <https://fwp.mt.gov/hunt/education/volunteer-instructors>, or can call Cooperider at 406-444-9947 for more details and an application.

Commission to hold public hearing on the repeal of two ARM rules pertaining to the Madison River

The Fish and Wildlife Commission will hold a public hearing on the proposed repeal of two ARM rules pertaining to the rest rotation and walk/wade sections of the Madison River. The hearing will be held Dec. 15 at 10 a.m. via Zoom. There will be no in-person hearing.

The Madison River Work Group, which is charged with making recommendations on the Madison River recreation management rules to the commission, unanimously decided to recommend the commission repeal ARM 12.11.6702 and 12.11.6706. The group's rationale for the recommended repeal was based on lack of support for either rule. The commission voted to propose the repeal of the rules during its October meeting.

The deadline for public comment on the repeals is Dec. 17. Comments can be sent mailed to: Madison River Comments, FWP, P.O. Box 200701, Helena, MT, 59620-0701. Comments can also be emailed to madisonrivercom@mt.gov.

To join the hearing, call 1-206-337-9723 and enter the meeting ID - 871 6059 9966, and password - 194749.

For more information, visit the public notice page on the FWP website.

Hunting for female mountain lions to close in hunting district 215

The hunting of female mountain lions in hunting district 215 in western Montana will close at one-half hour after sunset on Friday, Dec. 10. The order halting the hunt came shortly after Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks officials received word that the pre-established harvest quota for the combined districts had been met. For more information, visit FWP's website at fwp.mt.gov/hunt/by-species, to check the current quota status, or call the toll-free number at 1-800-385-7826.

AG Knudsen Calls on ALI to Reject Policies That Would Undermine Public Safety

Attorney General Austin Knudsen today called on the American Law Institute (ALI) to reject proposed changes to its model penal code that would undermine Montana's sex offender registry law and efforts to combat human trafficking.

Attorney General Knudsen and 36 other attorneys general sent a letter to ALI in opposition of their proposed changes to Article 213 of the Model Penal Code: Sexual Assault and Related Offenses which would favor criminals at the expense of victims of serious crimes. The Model Penal Code is a model act designed to push states toward adopting its provisions. While Montana law does not follow the Model Penal Code, weakening the law in other states could make it more difficult for Montana to hold sexual predators accountable.

"There have been concerted efforts around the country to undermine law enforcement and enact pro-criminal policies. We reject those efforts in Montana, but what happens in other states affects ours," Attorney General Knudsen said. "Criminals are not bound by state lines. If ALI's proposed changes are eventually adopted by other states, it will directly undermine our mission to shut down human trafficking in Montana and hold sexual predators accountable. They must be rejected."

The changes currently being proposed would weaken the ability to prosecute sexual assault, abuse, exploitation, and trafficking crimes; jeopardize the safety of victims of these crimes; and restrict the ability of law enforcement to protect the public from recidivist behavior in states that follow the Model Penal Code.

Weakening laws in other states would significantly impact Montana's ability to stop human trafficking rings, since many are multi-state operations. The changes could also leave Montanans more vulnerable to sexual predators if other states' registry laws are watered down since anyone required to register as a sex offender in another state is also required to register if they move to our state.

The letter was also signed by the attorneys general of Mississippi, Hawaii, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Guam, Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Michigan, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Local, fresh cut Christmas tree Fundraiser – One more weekend!

A huge thanks for all the support we have received so far! We are proud to provide local and affordable trees this Christmas season to this great community. We made another trip out this week to replenish our selection with NEW freshly cut trees for our final sale this weekend. We will open back up at the St Rose parking lot this Thursday 4:00 – about 7:00 pm, Friday 4-7 pm, and if we have enough trees left, Saturday 10:00 am – 3:00 pm. This will be our final three days. The cost is $5 per foot and all proceeds support the Catholic Campus Ministry at UM Western. If $5/foot causes a hardship for you, a friend, or a family you know in town, please come down and we will figure out how to share.

Thank you!!
UM Western Catholic Campus Ministry
