YATES RECEIVES REGIONAL AWARD

Dr. Shawna Yates, executive director for the Southwest Montana Community Health Center, was recently lauded as the Outstanding Advocate of the Underserved at an awards ceremony in November. The award, which covers six states, was given in recognition of Yates' advocacy and commitment to vulnerable and underserved populations in Butte and Southwest Montana.

"Dr. Yates' dedication to the health and welfare of our region's population – and in particular the elderly – is amazing. She advocates not only for her patients, but also for our communities, driven by the belief that all people should receive quality healthcare," said Dr. Serena Brewer, who has worked with Yates for more than a decade.

Yates has been the executive director since 2021 at the health center and has broadened her work to include building community partnerships which enabled the sharing of responsibilities during the Covid-19 pandemic. During that time, the health center took on the new role of becoming the community's testing center, which allowed the local hospital to focus on treating the sickest patients. In addition to her duties as both a provider and administrator at the CHC, Yates serves as a clinical faculty instructor for the University of Washington School of Medicine and has mentored healthcare professionals throughout her 15-year career.

Mental Health Support Services at Montana Western

During the fall semester, the University of Montana Western added new online counseling and mental health resources for students, faculty, and staff, and welcomed Morgan Bialis to the university counseling team. Counseling services are available year-round for students, including during the winter break.

Bialis received a bachelor's degree in psychology from the University of South Dakota and a master's degree in family studies and human services with a specialization in marriage and family therapy from Kansas State University in 2017.

Before coming to Montana Western, Bialis provided in-home and school based services to children, and their families, within the Lead and Deadwood communities of South Dakota. She continues to work remotely with clients from South Dakota, part time, via telehealth giving her vast experience in eCounseling services.

"I have felt incredibly at home, supported, and happy from the moment I began introducing myself to our community at UMW! We know that remote students are just as much a part of our community as those who are on-campus, and we want to provide the same opportunities for them despite the distance. I look forward to continuing to build the already established connectedness, authenticity, and support within our Montana Western community," said Bialis.

In addition to in-person and online counseling options year-round, UMW Counseling Services is now offering three free new ways for students, faculty, and staff to receive mental health support.

ThrivingCampus

ThrivingCampus is a web-based application that gives students, faculty, staff, and the community access to a nationwide network of off-campus mental health providers.

Montana Western's goal is to make it easier to access off-campus mental health care in the community, across the state of Montana, and across state lines, including telehealth options.

UMW's on-campus and online counseling services for students are always available, year-round, but access to this comprehensive mental-health care providers listing is an easy-to-use tool to explore what other counseling options may be available and the specialties of hundreds of providers currently accepting new patients. Community providers can also list their practices on the ThrivingCampus website.

Visit the ThrivingCampus website to learn more and view the providers directory: <https://tinyurl.com/ThrivingCampusUMW>

Kognito

Kognito is an online training tool centered around mental health and suicide prevention. Kognito's Mental Health At-Risk Training was developed to bring awareness to mental health issues that college students may face, and to give students, faculty, and staff practical strategies for responding when they recognize students in distress and to respond with appropriate support.

To access the Kognito site for Montana Western, go to: <https://mus.kognito.com/>

The "enrollment" keys that faculty/staff and students will use are: Faculty and Staff: westernfaculty, Students: westernstudent.

Once your account is created, you can explore the site and try out the simulation scenarios. After completing the training, participants receive a printable certificate.

Students who complete this training earn 600 paw print points!

You@UMWestern

All students, staff, and faculty are invited to login to the new online platform, YOU@UMWestern, a 24/7, anonymous online well-being platform. This is a space for users to check in with themselves, set goals, and explore personalized resources created specifically for the University of Montana Western.

Users can create a completely confidential account with their campus credentials and begin exploring the portal.

New content is being added to YOU on a weekly basis to help support all members of the Bulldog Community. Visit (<https://you.umwestern.edu>) to create an account.

ADVANCE CHILD TAX PAYMENTS

The IRS has been handing out ADVANCE CHILD TAX PAYMENTS on the 15th of each month starting back in July.

The IRS made these payments to some 36 million people with children. There is news that they sent out stating that right after the first of the year (a week or two from now????) there would go out in the mail to each of these 36 million people a form called LETTER 6419. This letter will contain the amount that was paid out in 2021 in advance CTC payments. The majority of the people who get this letter will probably just toss it in the trash can.

SAVE IT, you will need that letter to do your tax return correctly.

Veteran's Corner Update #132

By Mike Lawson

Greetings to all of you who read my SW MT veteran update articles. Busy, busy, busy is what every December in Butte and SW MT is all about. I delivered Toy bags to about 25 happy moms in the Safeway Parking Lot in Dillon on Friday. The traffic there was amazingly congested. I've never seen it like that in Dillon. It's been the same story in Butte with everyone shopping for Christmas. The weather is colder and there's a dusting of snow in the high country but it's not where it should be.

Southwest Montana Veterans Home update: The long awaited toilet tanks have finally arrived and were installed. On Thursday the Silver Bow County Inspectors did a walk-through Occupancy Inspection of Cottages #4 & #5. The results of this were not available at the time of this writing. On Friday the State Architect and Engineer (C.T) walk-through pre-punch inspection took place. Those updates will be mentioned next week. Whatever punch-list items need to be addressed, will quickly be taken care of. The cleaners will then do their final shine-up cleaning. The final inspections by Medicare and the VA will then happen. These are tough inspections but have to be passed for these Cottages to be open for receiving our waiting Resident Veterans. It also has to happen before the state can release Markovich Construction, by buying off on the project. This will be the final completion step of our Vet Home, after two plus years. On the operation side, a celebration was held on Dec 7th for Pearl Harbor survivor Charlie Dowd, who is living in Cottage #1. Monday of this week saw a show in Charlie's honor at the Mother Lode Theater. The 30th Resident Veteran is scheduled to be admitted to Cottage #3 this week. It's hopeful that Cottages #4 & #5 will be turned over to the state in January, who in turn will place them in the hands of the operating contractor Eduro. Admissions will then quickly start, as there's a waiting list for Secure Care Units.

VA (CBOC) Medical Center update: On the outside area, the water well was completed. How deep they had to go and how many gallons per min is information not available at this time. The Parking-Lot light post lighting, really lights up the parking lot at night. It looks good, check it out if you'r out that way. On the inside it's mainly the plumbers running the overhead copper tubing to all the bathrooms/exam rooms/etc.. They have a good sized crew there and a lot is getting done. The sheet metal workers are running the overhead ductwork also. The unfinished end of the building has the ceiling completely sheet rocked. It's now on hold until the VA gets money appropriated for that end of the building. Wayne Paffhausen said the VA wants to start moving furniture into the building in February. Things are moving in the right direction.

I mentioned Charlie Dowd being the oldest Montana surviving Pearl Harbor veteran. The folks down in the Deer Lodge/Avon area contacted me, saying a Deer Lodge Veteran was a year older. I was sent a copy of the Deer Lodge Silver Post Weekly newspaper that had an interview given by him to Shelley Steyh. I owe a correction to Dave Thomas, who turned 99 on July 11, 2021. He enlisted in the Navy in 1939, went to Bootcamp in 1940, then to "A" school, followed by going to Hawaii where he was stationed at Pearl Harbor on the USS Helena, CL-50. On Dec 7, 1942, his ship was hit by a torpedo. He was in eight sea battles before his ship was sank in the Kula Gulf of the Solomon Islands. Dave was in the water for about 5 to 6 hours before being picked up by a Navy Destroyer. Dave grew up in Butte and lives in Deer Lodge. Hand Salute to you Dave.

The Butte Toys For Tots Campaign is going strong. So far we have served 89 families, distributed 1,588 toys, 230 books, 1,085 stocking stuffers to 458 kids. This week and next week, will see those numbers increase dramatically. I also want to thank all of you who have made contributions in both the Toy Boxes and the money collection boxes. Thanks also to the sponsors who allow these boxes to be placed in their establishments. You are the ones who help make these Toy For Tot's Campaigns be such a success, in taking care of the many children who benefit from your generosity.

The DAV Vans have been busy taking Veterans to their appointments both locally and out of town. The roads are getting snow-packed/icy as the winter weather moves into our part of the state. The DAV Vans log a lot of miles, durning all kinds of weather and have an excellent safety record. Call for a ride and enjoy the scenery without the worry of driving yourself.

Call DAV Coordinator Darlene for a ride. 406-490-3692.
