ORLEY RAY WHITE

Born April 6, 1930 in Magna, UT to Orley and Edna. Died December 22, 2021 after living the life of a good man who always tried to lift others up.

Ray grew up in Weston, ID and lost his dad when he was six years old. He worked the summers riding a horse up Weston canyon to take care of the neighbors' livestock.

Always an athlete, he was awarded a scholarship to Utah State University for football.

He played there with future NFL players. Ray chose to join the U.S. Navy and serve his country during the Korean Conflict aboard the USS Valley Forge. He served four years as a radarman. He also played basketball on his ship's team and got to go up against the Harlem Globetrotters (Navy lost that game). His favorite duty was aboard a minesweeper at the end of his service.

He came home in '54 and worked in road construction, among other things, and met JoRene in '56. They married in Elko, NV. He adopted his daughter Trisa. Ray worked at the sugar factory until he landed a job with the Union Pacific Railroad. The railroad transferred him to Dillon, MT in '59. Ray and Jo adopted a son, Steven, in '63. He worked as a lineman for ten years for the UPRR and then got a job with Vigilante Electric so that he could be home more with his family. He retired from there nearly thirty years later.

Ray loved to hunt and fish and he loved the outdoors.

He served as bishop in the L.D.S. Church for five years and lived his religion without judging others.

He was a volunteer firefighter for the DVFD and retired as captain after twenty-one years.

A friend to all

He would do anything for anyone

He wouldn't say anything behind your back that he wouldn't say to your face, but he'd say it with a mind to fix it.

He kept his priorities straight... God, family, country, and community.

Dad didn't want a bunch of commotion about his passing. There will be a memorial reception January 3 at the L.D.S. church from 10 -11. Memorial contributions may be made to local law enforcement or a charity of your choice.

Thank you!

Grasshopper Valley Volunteer Fire Department would like to thank the Festival of Trees, all who donated and everyone who attended and purchased items. This generous donation will help the department purchase essential fire equipment that will benefit the community. The Festival of Trees is truly an amazing event aiding the people of Beaverhead County. Your support is greatly appreciated.

Frozen Water Pipes

With more cold weather predicted, the City of Dillon would like to remind homeowners to take measures to prevent their pipes from freezing. Here are several tips: (1) allow a small trickle of water from your cold water faucet in your kitchen to run to keep pipes from freezing. The cost of the extra water is low compared to the cost to repair a broken pipe; (2) keep garage doors closed if there are water supply lines in the garage; (3) open kitchen and bathroom cabinets to allow warmer air circulation around the plumbing and also remember to move any harmful cleaners and household chemicals out of reach of children; (4) If you will be going away during the cold weather, leave the heat on in your home, set to a temperature no lower than 55 degrees Fahrenheit.

Last winter was an unusual winter with so many service lines freezing throughout the community. The City of Dillon recommends to citizens to keep a small trickle running as a preventative measure to keep their service lines from freezing. If you have had problems in the past we encourage you to run a small trickle of water from your cold water faucet in your kitchen. This of course is at the customers discretion, as the cost of running water is at their expense.

No Immunization Clinic On Wednesday

Beaverhead County Public Health will not have an immunization clinic on Wednesday, December 29th. The next clinic will be January 5th from 1 to 4:45. Appointments are strongly encouraged.

Feed Your Soul: a Yoga and Nutrition Workshop

With educator and yoga teacher Estee Baldwin
Wednesdays, Jan 5, 12, 19 & 26 6-7:30 p.m.

Support your mind-body health in the new year!! During this 4-week series, we will focus on movement and nourishment that help to support a healthy body and mind. Each class will begin with 45-60 minutes of yoga followed by 30-45 minutes of food and discussion (all food will be prepared in advance of the class by the instructor). We will explore topics like "elevating your mood" and "calming the mind and body." Dress for a typical yoga practice. Participants may want to bring a notebook and writing utensil for journaling/note taking and their own yoga mat if they have one. Recipes will be provided to recreate shared food at home.

DOES BABY NEW YEAR GIVE YOU THE CREEPS?

Tyrades! by Danny Tyree

Perhaps one reason I never get invited to New Year's Eve parties is that I tend to overanalyze things. Take Baby New Year (a.k.a. "Bundle of White Male Joy"), for instance.

Society's reliance on this iconic tyke in editorial cartoons, greeting cards and advertising campaigns causes me to lose more sleep than the ball drop in Times Square.

Most people blithely accept a half-naked, curfew-deprived newborn gallivanting about the countryside unchaperoned, but I see it as one more troubling repercussion of the "Defund Child Protective Services" movement. For the kid's sake, it's a good thing no one has revoked the self-defense "crawl your ground" laws yet.

From mid-December through mid-January, images of Baby New Year are ubiquitous; but we still possess only a maddeningly sketchy picture of his agenda. Every autumn as the jack-o'-lanterns make way for turkeys, folks inevitably ask, "Where did the year go?"

That's an excellent question.

We almost never see Baby New Year again until late December when he has deteriorated into osteoporosis-plagued Old Year. What is he doing in other seasons, at other life stages? Is he using his sash to hide his zits? Does his noisemaker drown out his mother-in-law? Is he using his trusty hourglass to keep track of his Viagra?

There's something creepy about the way the kid invariably becomes decrepit in a mere 12 months. I don't care if he can say "Mama" or "Dada." My question to him is "Can you say, 'more research funds for extreme glandular conditions, please'?"

We're supposed to feel comforted by the annual ritual of Old Year "passing the torch" to Baby New Year, but there's always the risk of Old Year setting his stereotypical beard on fire in the process! Why can't years aspire to being The Year World Peace Was Achieved instead of The Year I Became ZZ Top?

Time after time, Old Year lets the naïve, effervescent Baby New Year take the reins, without any warning of the "nothing new under the sun" mixture of earthquakes, pestilences, economic hiccups and celebrity scandals that will inevitably ensue. Occasionally, an Old Year will try to blink out a warning in Morse Code, but the cataracts cause miscommunication. ("Put the kibosh on term limits? Thanks, sir!")

I am deeply frustrated by the inconsistency of the mythology. Sometimes Baby New Year starts as an infant, sometimes as a toddler. He bears a suspicious resemblance to Valentine's Day mascot Cupid. Old Year sometimes is and sometimes isn't conflated with Father Time. (Father Time is reportedly not keen on the title, musing, "I'm going to beat the snot out of the Old Year in which paternity tests were introduced.")

As my son Gideon reminded me, the animated holiday special "Rudolph's Shiny New Year" contains helpful backstory on one particular New Year ("Happy") and the Archipelago of Last Years, where the Old Years go to retire. But I'm not sure I accept that cartoon as canonical. It has the distinct aroma of a Chinese disinformation campaign, especially the uncut version with the Island of Non-existent Lab Leaks.

On a brighter note, you could make a billion dollars if you could write a book on "What to Expect When You're Expecting Baby New Year."

Of course, your fortune might still meet a curve ball. ("Alec Baldwin just accidentally nuked the computer servers holding your money! Oh, the cryptocurrency...!")
