Charles Hahnkamp

Charles Hahnkamp, our beloved Father, Grandfather and Great Grandfather made his final ride and entered the gates of heaven with a grand entry on Thursday, January 13, 2022. He lived life larger than anyone we know. It doesn't seem like there was a soul who didn't know Charlie Hahnkamp and have a story or two to tell of him. He would do anything for anybody! All he ever wanted to be was a cowboy, and a cowboy he was, but so much more.

Charles was born on February 2nd, 1931 to Charles Preston Hahnkamp and Elva Minerva Coston (Jackie) in Chinook, Montana in a sheep camp. His family moved to Ashland when he was 3 and was only 5 when he saddled up and started riding his horse to school. By the age of 11, he was living and working for Tom and Girly Gilmore on Tongue River. In 1957, he married Joyce Corning and continued to ranch until they moved to Joyce's family's ranch in Melrose with their infant son Lee in 1959. In 1963, another son, Jay Hahnkamp joined the family on the ranch on the Big Hole River. While running an Angus cattle operation, he became the President of the Vipond Grazing Association, and was honored as a Montana Stockgrowers Stockman of the Year, while beginning his tireless effort towards his war on weeds. He was instrumental in leading the Headwaters Resource Conservation Range Weed Committee and lobbied for stronger weed legislation in Montana and in Washington D.C., while controlling weeds on his own property and that of his neighbors. He also served as Chair of the SW Montana Coordinated Weed Control Project and the East Pioneer Experimental Stewardship Program and was awarded the Jefferson Award for his outstanding public service in his war against knapweed. He became affectionately known as Charlie Knapkamp.

In addition to ranching, he spent almost 30 years working for stock contractors, as a pick up man, rescuing cowboys from the back of bucking horses, hauling bulls and furnishing roping and bulldogging stock. He also donated hours of time and cattle and his pick up expertise to high school and college rodeo programs. He became an honorary member of WMC Rodeo Club in 1994 and was inducted as a Rodeo Legend in the Montana Pro Rodeo Hall and Wall of Fame in 2013 and the Montana Cowboy Hall of Fame in 2014. Charlie was quoted as saying "they say your destiny chooses you at times…so when you're 10 years old and trailing cows from Broadus to Bel Fourche, it's safe to say you're going to be a cowboy". And he was, the real deal!

He loved spending time with family and friends where there was no shortage of stories and laughter and he was sure to send you on your way with a joke or a trick played on you. He drove miles and miles taking his sons and anyone else that needed a ride to 4-H events and rodeos, and he never missed a birthday party, school event, sporting event or rodeo as he followed his 6 grandkids. It started all over again with his great grandkids and you would see him sitting on his walker at the soccer field, baseball field, flag football field, or dance recital. We can thank Deanna and CrossFit for allowing him to continue to be active and to do what he loved these past few years. In true cowboy fashion, he exhibited his iron will and his mischievous sense of humor to the very end! This world was a better place with this one-of-a-kind cowboy in it, but he is riding high and whooping it up now!

Charles was preceded in death by his parents Charles and Jackie, his sisters Lorraine Clawiter and Karen Hahnkamp, his beloved wife of 61 years, Joyce Corning Hahnkamp, and great grandbaby, Rooster Schuetz.

He leaves his legacy behind in the lives of his sons Lee (Dalene) Hahnkamp, Jay (Denise) Hahnkamp, and Grandchildren: Mandy Hahnkamp, Darcy (Matt) Schuetz, Samantha (JR) Davis, Charlee (Matt) Reed, Dillon Hahnkamp and Cord Hahnkamp, and 9 Great Grandchildren: Kolton and Carsyn Davis, Jacob, Anna Jo, Abraham, and Sampson Schuetz, Deliah, Rylee, and Kinlee Reed. He also leaves numerous nieces and nephews and his special friend Beverly Figgins. Our family is grateful for her devotion and care for him.

Please join us in celebrating his life on Saturday, January 22, 2022 at 1:00 pm in the Frontier Event Center, Dillon, MT. There is a guestbook available at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

Memorials can be made to the Hahnkamp Family Rodeo Scholarship Fund at Pioneer Federal Savings & Loan in Dillon or to your favorite charity.

Frederick C. Brown Jr.

Longtime Dillon resident, Fred C. Brown, passed peacefully on January 12, 2022, surrounded by family.

Fred was born in White Sulphur Springs, MT on March 16, 1934 to Fred C. Brown Sr. and Lulella G. (Finn) Brown. He worked on the railroad at a young age and then joined the Army and served during the Korean War in the 7th Armored Division, 94th Medium Tank Battalion. Upon his return from the Army, Fred worked as a rough and tumble cowboy, riding trails and breaking outlaw horses. He also lived in Seattle and worked for Boeing for a short time with his brother Larry. He was a big brother his siblings loved and looked up to. He met his wife Jody Woodhull in Livingston, MT. They were married on September 3, 1955. They were blessed with two children, Johnnie and Ronny, and traveled around Montana until settling in the Dillon area where they worked together to build a successful fencing business. Aside from building fence, Fred was also a logger for many years. Fred enjoyed saddle making, leather work, and he and Jody liked to pan for gold in their younger years. He enjoyed the company of animals, especially horses and dogs, and liked to be out in the quiet countryside. He was a strong man who could fix anything with some elbow grease and duct tape. He was truly one of the last real cowboys.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 63 years and the love of his life, Jodine (Jody) P. Brown, and his son Johnnie R. Brown, brothers Ronald Brown and Lawrence Brown and sister Juanita Weeks.

He is survived by his brothers Richard (Judy) Brown , Dale Brown, his daughter, Ronny J. Wilson, his grandchildren Nikki (Paul) Rust , Freddi (John) Christensen , Joni (John) Neal , Jamie (Jessica) Wilson , and Ray (Fabi) Wilson, as well as many great-grandchildren he knew and loved and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and other family and friends.

John August (Jack) Laden, 78

John August (Jack) Laden, 78, passed away peacefully on December 8, 2021 in Dillon, MT with his wife Phyllis by his side. He was born July 3, 1943 in Dillon, MT to John A. Laden and Ella Mueller Laden and grew up on the family farm southwest of Dillon. He began his schooling at Riverside Country School, then went on to attend public school in Dillon, graduating from Beaverhead County High School in 1961. Jack attended Western Montana College and graduated in 1968 with degrees in Art and Social Sciences. He taught school in Chehalis, WA for one year after graduation before returning to Montana to join the National Guard where he worked on helicopters for many years. Jack later went on to work as a helicopter mechanic for Air Logistics in Alaska and then working on helicopters on forest fires in the northwest US until his retirement.

Jack met Phyllis (Jones) in 1976 and they were married in Virginia City, MT in August 1982. They made their home in Dillon where they raised their two children, Kali (1983) and Kade (1985). Jack had a love of airplanes, owning multiple planes over the years. When Kali and Kade were young, he often took the family out flying and would fly the kids to Dell for breakfast on occasion, which is a fond memory for the kids.

Jack and Phyllis built a home and moved to Polaris, MT in 2008. Jack spent his retirement enjoying coffee with his many friends, mowing their 10 acres, tinkering on his three antique Ford tractors that he was fixing up for his grandson Wyatt, visiting with friends and neighbors, and spending time "walking" his beloved dog Muff. He was well-known in the community for his visits to friends around the Grasshopper Valley, always willing to lend a helping hand or just sit and chat for a while. He will be greatly missed.

Jack is survived by his wife Phyllis, daughter Kali (Ryan Nosek), son Kade, two adorable grandchildren Wyatt and Lyla Nosek, his brother Tim (Susan) Layden, his sister Donnette Burns and many extended family and dear friends.

Memorial services will be held at a later date.

Human papillomavirus...HPV is the most common sexually transmitted infection in the United States

About 80% of women will get at least one type of HPV at some point in their lifetime. It is usually spread through vaginal, oral, or anal sex. Many women do not know they have HPV, because it usually has no symptoms and usually goes away on its own. Some types of HPV can cause illnesses such as genital warts or cervical cancer. There is a vaccine to help prevent HPV.

More then 40 types of HPV can be passed through sexual contact. About 79 million Americans have HPV and its so common that 80% of women will get at least one type of HPV at some point in their lifetime. HPV can also be passed from a woman to her baby during childbirth. Because most people don't have symptoms, pap tests are very important. It is recommended the first pap test be done age 21.

When HPV does not go away on its own, it can cause serious health problems including cervical cancer, other genital cancers (men and women), cancers of the back of the throat, genital warts, and a recurrent respiratory papillomatosis which is a rare condition that caused warts to grow in the respiratory tract.

There are 2 ways to prevent HPV. One way is to get an HPB vaccine. The other way is to not have sexual contact with another person. HPV vaccine helps prevent cancer, genital warts, and some other rare cancers. It is approved for females and males between the ages of 9-26 years of age. For those 9-15 years of age, a 2-shot series is recommended. If starting the vaccine series after age 15, 3 shots are recommended. Vaccines are provided through your healthcare provider or public health. Call Madison Co. Public Health (843-4295) or Beaverhead Co. Public Health (683-4771) for more information.
