JANUARY 25TH IS NATIONAL POLL WORKER DAY

Poll workers are a vital part of our electoral system, and there is an ongoing need for these essential volunteers.

It is one of the most meaningful and rewarding ways that everyday citizens can help America vote by guiding voters through the voting process and relaying the necessary information to make our elections accessible and secure.

To ensure free and fair elections, we need more Americans to help strengthen our democracy.

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN BECOMING A POLL WORKER OR WOULD LIKE MORE INFORMATION PLEASE CONTACT THE ELECTION OFFICE AT 683-3720

THANK YOU!

I would like to extend a huge THANK YOU! to all the people that helped make the 2021 Children's Giving Tree a success. This year we gave out gifts to 190 children in 70 families! It is a huge task to gather, organize and deliver over 400 gifts- but the help we get from the community makes it all possible.

Thank you to Tracey & Dave at Rattlesnake Alpacas for hosting the Tree. I'm sure there were times they felt long on presents & short on room,but they did a wonderful job of keeping straight what tag went out the door and what gift came back in the door! Thank you to Great Harvest Bread for your monetary donation. Thank you to Debbie at the Bookstore and her anonymous donor who provided gift certificates to the Bookstore. Thank you to the donors who gave money to the cause. This year all the tags did not go off the Tree, so the monetary donations were used to fill the requests so every child got their gifts. Thank you to the USFS employees who adopted a family and provided their gifts. Thank you to everyone who took a tag and bought a gift. Thank you to Todd Reiser for the use of his building to lay out and sort the gifts. Thank you to my elves: Claris Yuhas,Judy Tash, Linda Lower, Cindy Barnes, Melanie Stocks, Judy Siring & Morgan Kuntz- you all spent many hours tagging, sorting,sacking and delivering gifts. The Giving Tree would not happen without all of you. It is wonderful to live in a community that pulls together to make a project of this size happen! May 2022 bring you all many blessings.

Gail Kuntz

Shopping Frenzy

Bryce Angell

I drove on down to Sportsman's Shop to buy a brand-new cap.
But, when I stepped in through the doors they had me in their trap.
I'm not talking 'bout the trap that snares your foot and won't let go.
I'm alluding to the shopping trance. Why couldn't I say no?
I made my way down through the isle where caps and hats were priced. But, soon I found the sleeping bags. My eyes were so enticed.
The floor attendant tempted. "It's the best sale of the year!"
I had to have the sleeping bag to go with all my gear.
I grabbed a cart and filled it with my brand-new sleeping bag.
I wasn't checking prices. That would surely raise a flag.
I pushed on past the hats and caps and found a coat to wear.
I didn't need another but it's good to have a spare.
I bought a pair of mittens that I'll prob'ly never use.
To justify my purchase-I remembered, "Snooze you lose."
I purchased ammunition and that's when I took the cue.
I had too many bullets for a single .22.
So, I bought another rifle. What the heck, it's just one more.
Then I moved on with my frenzy, hadn't covered all the floor.
Aha! My eyes beheld a sight designed for all to see.
A brand-new shiny wall tent that would soon belong to me.
We totaled up my purchase. I was surely caught off guard.
Two thousand fifty dollars, I said, "Put it on my card."
I'd spent a ton of money on some toys I didn't need.
So, I'll give you my opinion and as listeners you should heed.
Although I've never learned to save, for sure a shopping sap.
But, this time I saved ten dollars 'cuz I didn't buy a cap.

Montana Western Alumni Profile: Lacey Morrison

University of Montana Western alumna, Lacey Morrison, excels in Montana's mining industry.

Montana Western alumna, Lacey Morrison, graduated in May 2015 with a degree in Environmental Science with an option in Geology. Originally from White Sulphur Springs, Montana, Morrison attended UMW because of the unique block scheduling program that allows students to learn one course at a time.

After graduation, Morrison returned to her hometown of White Sulphur Springs to work for Sandfire Resources on the Black Butte Copper Project. Located north of White Sulphur Springs, the project's property includes the Johnny Lee Deposit, which contains a copper concentration 10 times higher than many existing mines.

In 2016, Morrison was offered a position in Juneau, Alaska as an underground geologist for Coeur Mining Inc., a precious metals mining company that operates five mines located throughout North America. Here, Morrison was able to gain valuable experience before returning to Black Butte Copper in 2017.

Today, she holds the title of Senior Geologist and manages the diamond drill operation. She works closely with the Montana Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) on permitting so the drilling is compliant with the state's regulations. Morrison also organizes the earthworks, drill contractors, scheduling, and budgeting that goes along with the drill programs and then uses the data gathered from the operation to create 3-D geological models.

Morrison says that she "enjoys the wide spectrum of tasks that comes along with the job," as well as the opportunities that it has provided. This included an opportunity to travel to Western Australia in 2019 to work at another Sandfire Resources mine until 2020.

Morrison has also taken the time to create other opportunities for women in the field of mining. In June 2021, she teamed up with an engineer from Stillwater, Montana to create the Women in Mining (WIM) Montana Chapter. While spending time in Western Australia, she learned about the Women in Mining organization. It was her goal to be able to take that same idea and implement it in Montana.

WIM Montana educates Montanans on the importance of diversity and inclusion within the mining industry and educates the community on the importance of modern mining.

Morrison credits the hands-on experience she received while attending Montana Western for being the foundation for starting her career and path to success. She also credits the incredible instructors at UMW that mentored and guided her throughout her time in college.

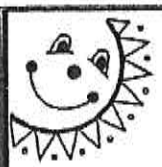

"Several instructors were very influential during my time at Montana Western; Rob Thomas and Sheila Roberts had a huge part in my college career and I can't thank them enough," said Morrison.

Friends of the Beaverhead County Museum dba Museum Association

As many of you know, we have been honored by a very generous benefactor who wishes to remain in the background. He has gifted the Friends of the Museum, dab the Museum Association with $25,000 this year with the offer of $25,000 each year for the next five years if we can match that amount. It would give the Friends the opportunity to build a fund for the future that we can use to benefit the Museum.

We have also been very fortunate to have as benefactors the ladies at the Museum Thrift Store who donate the sales from their store to the Friends. They have done a remarkable job and have donated a substantial amount of money to our organization. They can use any of your gently used or new donations.

This fiscal year we have been asked by the Trustees of the Museum to donate $11,000 to keep the Museum up and running. The director, Candi Whitworth, is doing all she can to raise the image of the Museum to generate more money. Even though the Museum is closed for the wintertime, she is offering the Theatre to different groups and has several bookings which bring in money. She was successful in opening the Museum over the Christmas break which raised awareness in the community and brought in some donations and sales as well. Candi is also authoring some grant applications to make improvements and repairs to the Museum. We think we are on the upside and want to do whatever is necessary to assist. Our Executive Board member, Richard Miller visited with county commissioner, Mike McGinley who told him that support from the Friends will be necessary to maintain the Museum in the foreseeable future.

Candi has plans to update the appearance of the Museum by creating new displays and ideas to bring the Museum into the 21st Century. By doing so the Museum should attract more visitors and create interest in our own community.

It is time to renew memberships and get off to a great for the year for 2022. We appreciate any money that you can donate that will be used in the match of $25,000. Every little bit helps! Thank you for your support of the Friends of the Museum.
