EATHAL ZINA HILDRETH

On January 23rd, 2022 at the age of 84 years, our loving wife, mother, grand & great grandmother and dear friend EATHAL ZINA HILDRETH departed this earthly life for her eternal home while holding her eternal sweetheart's hand. Her memory will be honored and treasured by all of those who were lucky enough to have known her!

Eathal's grand & great grandchildren loved to hear her stories about her humble upbringing, beginning with her birth on October 27th, 1937 to Ira and Grace (Burton) Waters in Idaho Falls, Idaho to meeting and marrying her sweetheart Barton Edward Hildreth on December 28, 1957 and all of her many adventures of being a mother to four lively, active boys Blaine, Brian, Brad & Ben and her precious daughter Brenda.

Eathal loved her family with an extreme passion and was very dedicated to her faith and membership in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. She is survived by her eternal sweetheart, Barton (Ed) Hildreth, her four sons and daughters in law, Blaine & Larene (Nelson) Hildreth, Brian & Lisa (Troglia) Hildreth, Brad & Kimberly (Lambert) Hildreth and Ben Hildreth, 17 grandchildren and 30 great grandchildren, "brother cousin" HJ Pieper, half brothers and sisters Mary Josephine Waters, Ira Duane Waters, Esther Dolores (Waters) Brewer, Erven Morris Waters and Dennis Lynn Waters, and many extended family members who she remained in contact with as best as possible.

Loved ones who have preceded her death include her parents, her brother Reuben Waters, her precious daughter Brenda Sue, her very special uncle Clarence Burton, her "sister cousins" Zina Lou & Irene (Pieper) McArthur and so many cherished extended family members and close friends.

Services will be at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints 93 State Hwy 91 S, Dillon, MT with Viewing at 10-10:45AM & Memorial Service at 11:00 AM on Saturday, January 29.

Ralph David Merry, 65 December 24, 1956 - January 23, 2022

Ralph David Merry died on January 23rd, 2022 with his mother, sisters and friends around him. Ralphie (RD) was born in Butte on December 24th, 1956.

His Dad and Mom brought him home to the house in Centerville on Center Street where he joined his 2 older sisters. Ralphie was joined by more sisters and a brother, so they soon outgrew the house in Centerville and moved to the flats on Ottawa street in 1965. In a house full of 8 kids, there was always trouble brewing and being outnumbered with 6 sisters, Ralphie was usually the instigator. He was never allowed to hit his sisters so he would spit chewing tobacco on them instead.

Ralphie loved to hunt, rodeoed in high school and was up to many shenanigans with his friends in his early years. These friendships endured through his whole life as do the secrets they all carry about each other. Ralphie graduated Bute High School in 1974. His folks owned the ElMar bar in Butte and as the story goes, Ralphie rode his horse, Creed, in the bar, till his dad threatened to shoot them both.

Ralph followed his family to Dillon, Mt. in 1977 where he worked at Roberts Food Grocery store with his father. Bummer, dad's nickname for Ralph, worked throughout the store. He loved going out on the delivery truck so he could talk to folks, his sister always remembers he refused, flat refused, to stock the women's maxi pads and his dad would have to go stock them instead.

Ralph was lucky enough to also work many years with his mother going antiquing all over the country. Ralph was a quick learner and loved to collect and trade tokens, bottles, and anything having to do with politics. His Mom tells the story of them driving all the way to the Dakotas for an antique show and it had been held the weekend before. So, they just looked for antiques on their way back. They loved to go to Klapans for a red beer after a hard day of junkin.

He lived in Butte and Dillon over the years. Bartended at many bars in both cities. He tended bar at Mahoney's where he loved to talk politics and history with the patrons.

For a person who could care less about reading at graduation, he took on the world through books. He never tired of books, and they were one true deep love of his life. "He loved surrounding himself with artifacts from bygone days and took himself back to those days through books that he collected, read and retained the knowledge they contained." He also loved Butte and worked to uncover all the secrets she held. His friend, Dustin, said "many deals were made over soda pop and a wop chop. Sometimes a trading session would take hours and eventually when the deal was done, he knew he got the better end of it. Ralph would cruise all over Butte scoping out estate sales, garage clean outs, and of course his favorite shops. Ralph's group of friends was so large that most of the time he was the first to know about anything going on. If any of us ever had a question, one call to Ralph likely lead to an answer. Ralph had been struggling with his health for some time. Even when he was feeling terrible, he still picked up the phone to check on his friends and see what was going on. Ralph never got jealous about someone else's good fortune. When friends would bring over their latest finds to show him, his eyes would light up and he enjoyed being part of the excitement. But behind that excitement his brain was racing as he was figuring out how he would trade me out of that treasure someday."

Ralphie was preceded in death by his father, Ralph Donald Merry, his brother, Francis Merry, brother-in-law Scott Shea and his nephews Michael Shea and Logan Crampton. He also loved his dogs over the years, Dobie, Sam and Jake. And his horse's Creed and Charlie.

He leaves behind his mother, Eleanor Merry, sisters, Kathleen Lee (John), Colleen Duffy (Dan), Eileen Shea, Gayleen Reynolds (TJ), Pauleen Christensen (Clark) and Rayleen Crampton (Ted). And many nieces and nephews.

Also so many faithful friends: Duston, John L, Mark R., John F., Sassy, David, Jason, Wayne, Lacey

Private family services will be held Friday so we can keep everyone healthy.

MaryJo Scott, 87

MaryJo was born in Washington, D.C., as Florence Eunice Bratcher July 23, 1934, to Eunice and Benjamin Bratcher. Her mother passed away seven days later from complications of childbirth, and her father agreed to let her cousin Josephine and husband Nelson Maxwell adopt her, so September 17, 1935, she became MaryJo Maxwell.

MaryJo grew up in Great Falls, MT, and graduated from Great Falls High in 1952. She attended Western Montana College in Dillon and graduated with her teaching certificate in 1954. That fall, MaryJo began her teaching in Laurel, MT.

During the summer of 1955, she worked at Yellowstone National Park, where she met her cowboy, Robert Leroy Scott. They were married September 17, 1955, in Laurel, and in 1956, their first daughter, Linda Jolee, was born in Billings. In 1957, they moved to Cody, WY, and welcomed two more children, Pegi Jane in 1957 and Robert Maxwell in 1958. After her children were all in school, MaryJo went back to work as a substitute teacher, and, in the mid-1970s, she served as the Northwest District representative helping to get the HeadStart program up and going in Wyoming.

In 1988, when her husband Bob retired, the couple moved to Dillon, where they purchased the Western Apartments that her grandparents had owned, bringing them under family ownership again.

While in Dillon, MaryJo served as a board member for the Dillon Community Health Center. She was very active in her churches, the United Methodist Church in Cody and the Presbyterian Churches in Dillon and Havre, serving in many positions. She was part of the Cody Little Theater, Eagles Auxiliary, and was very active in the Eastern Star. MaryJo also worked with many youth organizations, including 4-H, Boy Scouts, Little League Baseball, and Job's Daughters.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Bob; son, Bobby; great-grandson Isaac Gluyas; parents, Josephine and Nelson Maxwell; and sister and brother-in-law, Jackie and George Melvin.

Cremation has taken place, and memorial services will be held at 11:00 a.m. Thursday, January 27, 2022, at First Presbyterian Church in Havre. Committal of her remains will be with her husband Bob in Cody, Wyoming, at a later date.

Holland & Bonine Funeral Home has been entrusted with services and arrangements. Please visit MaryJo's online memorial page and leave a message of condolence for her family at <http://www.hollandbonine.com>.

County Coroner's Letter to the County Commissioners

Beaverhead County Coroner Julie A. Briggs steps down from her position in a month. The following is the letter she sent to the County Commissioners.

January 18, 2022

To Beaverhead County Commissioners,

The trust that has been placed in me as your County Coroner has been humbling. This has been a very enlightening experience and my growth has been tremendous. It has been of utmost importance for me to perform my duties carefully and with serious consideration.

Due to circumstances beyond my control, it has come to a point where it is not possible to perform the duties of County Coroner in a manner that is currently required of this position. For this reason, I am stepping down as of February 18, 2022. This date will give Beaverhead County some time to transition.

Among other necessary duties a few of the more significant issues will be:

- * Selecting an interim County Coroner in advance of the November election
- * Preparing a safe, proper place for a coroner to do the investigations of the deceased
- * Plan for a location to perform record keeping duties
- * Provide transportation for the deceased in a dignified manner
- * Prepare a place for record storage

I want to thank you and the people of Beaverhead County for the opportunity to serve our community as the coroner.

Sincerely,
Julie A. Briggs
Beaverhead County Coroner

Julie Briggs wanted the community to know she will continue here business and her statement follows on the next page.

JULIE BRIGGS CONTINUES SERVICES AT THE FUNERAL HOME

People equate the coroner position with the funeral home, they are two distinctly different positions.

The funeral home is a private business and the County Coroner is an elected position.

The County Coroner is to determine the cause and manner of death in unattended death among other numerous duties listed in the Tribune. For years the Coroner position has been entrusted to the local mortician for some very good reasons and I thank you for your trust.

The funeral home has donated its time and resources to Beaverhead County and it is not possible for me to continue to do that.

The funeral home provides services to families that are suffering loss or are wanting to preplan their services, these are two separate things. More people have died last year than ever in the history of the funeral home and I need to focus on my business and the families needing help at the funeral home. I apologize for any concern this decision may have caused the community.

The funeral home is definitely open and I am here to help you in the role that I have been for 20+ years.
