Jean Marie Roedel

Jean Marie Roedel of Dillon, Montana passed away from natural causes at her home of January 24, 2022.

Jean was born in 1937 in Kalispell, Montana to Lillian and William Mikesell and spent her childhood years in Somers, MT. Jean attended Kalispell High school and graduated from there in 1955. In July of that year she would marry Don Roedel in Coeur d'Alene, ID. She attended Great Falls Business college Jean and Don migrated around SW Montana where she would work as a book keeper at Buttreys -Great Falls, Buchanan's Mill- WSS, William's Feed - Dillon, Independent grain- Belgrade, Bozeman Ford and Garrity Homes - Bozeman and finally owning and operating the Pack -N -Ship in Dillon (where she kept a jar labeled "Ashes of Problem Customers" on the counter). Jean and Don also spent 2 1/2 years in the Indonesian islands where Don worked as an expatriate for Georgia Pacific Lumber.

Jean loved to cook, watch cooking shows, quilt, work on puzzles, gardening and landscaping (one time she had Don haul a pickup load of volcanic rock home from the Montpelier area of Idaho for her rock garden), all types of arts, crafts and needlework, and tracking family on social media. She enjoyed reading her Bible, doing Bible studies, and listening to sermons from her favorite preachers.

Jean made a profession of faith and began her spiritual journey and walk with her LORD in her early 20's and grew closer to Him throughout her lifetime. She served in many capacities in the church and Sunday school, witnessing of her Savior to her family and friends. Jean was a member of the Prairie Bible Church family for many years, enjoying the ministry of Pastor Paul and Cyndi Peck.

She was preceded in death by her husband Don, her parents, brother Ken Mikesell, and granddaughter Kelsey Dimick, and survived by sister Marilyn Schultz of Florence, her children Lori Crawford and Gayle Syck both of Dillon, and Mark Roedel (Heidi) of Kalispell, along with numerous nieces, nephews, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren.

Our mom will be greatly missed, and her memory will remain with and encourage us while her spirit has joined Don with their Savior in Heaven.

Cremation has already taken place, and a Memorial Service will take place in the summer.

Those wishing to make memorial donations can do so to Prairie Bible Church, Dillon MT, or their favorite charity.

Veteran's Corner Update #138

By Mike Lawson

Greeting to those of you who read my SW MT veteran update articles.

On the Veteran front, most of our Veteran Organizations are laying low until this latest Covid Omicron Virus peaks and becomes less of a threat to all of us. It sounds like the peak is happening right now and will really drop off in February. Let's hope and pray that is the case.

In talking with Cory Markovich, concerning the SW MT Veteran's Home, the CT Inspectors will be there this week, to do the final inspections of Cottages #4 & #5. He said the punch lists have been completed. I did visit with Teresa Madrazo, the Activities Director. They really work hard getting the resident veterans active in doing fun and game type of activities.

Our VA (CBOC) Medical Center continues to move forward, construction wise. I talked with Wayne Paffhausen, owner/contractor, and he's optimistic at the construction progress of this building. I also did a walkthrough last Wednesday and was impressed. The painting is done except for some of the walls which will be accent walls (a wall in a room of a different color than the rest). The plumbing is done until the plumbing fixtures, sinks/toilets/etc., are ready to be installed.

Another bit of interesting news is the VA is sponsoring a Town Hall to discuss the Anaconda VA Clinic's relocation to a New Butte VA Clinic. It will be on Wednesday, February 16th from 5:15 pm to 6:15 pm. To join the conservation, you can call 866-478-3358 or livestream the TownHall at www.access.live/MontanaVATownHall or from Montana VA's Facebook page. To attend in-person, register with your Anaconda VA team. To maintain Covid-19 safety protocol, attendance is limited to 50 people.

Some of you who are Veterans or have sons and daughters who are Veterans and are interested in refinancing or purchasing a home, this could be a good time to do so. The VA interest rates are good and if you purchase a new home you don't have to have a down payment. Refinancing could be a real money saver in the long run and well worth considering. Check with a VA Service provider and see if it is in your best interests to pursue.

On a personal note, with our mother's death, one of my brothers and his wife went through her and my Dad's pictures/letters/papers/etc.. They divided these up according to what was pertinent to each of us. The pictures were memory enhancers, for sure, but what were really jewels in the haystack for me, were all the letters I had written to them during my two tours in Viet Nam, my time in the Bremerton Naval Hospital (recovering from being wounded) and my time at Camp Pendleton. I was beyond surprised. Already Valentine's Day is being promoted at the stores and news media. This is a great day of showing our love to our loved ones. We can all start planning and looking forward to this uplifting day.

REGISTER NOW FOR HUNTER EDUCATION CLASSES

Several in-person hunter education classes have been scheduled around the state over the next several months.

While online classes are also available, there are several advantages to in-person classes, including: hands-on experience, mentoring and the opportunity for students to ask questions and hear advice from experienced hunters.

"We value our hands-on classroom courses and field days, all done with the dedication of our excellent volunteer instructors," said Wayne Cooperider, outdoor skills and safety supervisor for FWP. "We feel that becoming a safe and ethical hunter requires not only knowledge, but also safe and ethical handling of firearms and archery equipment."

Hunter education courses are free and cover basic information and skills related to the safe handling of firearms as well as basic instruction in wildlife management, game identification, landowner/hunter relations, hunter ethics and Montana hunting laws and regulations.

In-person courses are led by volunteer instructors who are passionate about preserving Montana's hunting tradition, teaching firearm safety, ethics and other outdoor skills.

"These in-person classes are a great way for new hunters to build connections within the hunting community," Cooperider said.

For more information and to register for hunter education courses, visit the hunter education page on the FWP website. The webpage will be updated as more classes are scheduled. Questions can also be directed to your local FWP office or 406-444-9947.

Applications sought for upland game bird council

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is seeking to fill two vacancies on an advisory council that provides ongoing monitoring of upland game bird enhancement program activities.

Council members represent all FWP administrative regions and include upland game bird hunters, chamber of commerce memberships, upland game bird biologists and others who have conservation interests. For this appointment, at least one council member must be a landowner enrolled in Block Management.
