Marilynn Dwyer Mason, 78

June 17, 1943 - January 26, 2022

In the early hours of January 26, 2022 Marilyn breathed her last breath here on earth. After battling cancer, she passed away peacefully in her sleep at home in Butte in the comfort and care of her family.

Marilynn was born in Butte on June 17, 1943, she was the third of four children to Richard "Dick" Dwyer and Anna Georgina "Dollie" MacPherson Dwyer.

She attended Saint Ann's Grade School and Girl's Central Catholic High School, graduating in 1961. Marilyn studied at Montana State University and University of Montana Western. She married Doug Mason in 1963 and had two sons Douglas Lee Mason and Timothy Michael Mason.

Marilynn knew at two-years old that she was an artist. It was her God-given gift and she had immense talent. As a young girl, with her parents' encouragement, her ability became evident. She spent all her time drawing and sketching. In high school she emerged as a portrait artist.

Marilynn's natural skill grew to include wonderful works in watercolor, pen and ink, pastel, acrylic and oil. She painted what was close to her heart - Butte scenes, Montana wildlife and people. Marilyn loved and had deep respect for Native Americans and their culture, she created countless beautiful fine art portraits of Indians, young and old.

She spent a portion of her career illustrating furniture, painting murals, teaching art and mastering western landscapes. Later on she began painting realistic bears in nostalgic and whimsical settings. Marilyn's vision of bears enjoying all aspects of the outdoors became wildly popular. Through a business partnership she formed Mason Maloof Designs. Her company is now Dwyer Mason Art.

For nearly six decades Marilyn shared her energy and passion for painting with the world. She will always be known as a successful professional artist. Her legacy included a vast body of work which is enjoyed in homes and displayed in galleries across the country.

Marilynn's talent extended beyond her painting, she loved antiques and had a keen eye for interior design. She was always on the hunt for something to paint or something to decorate her home or studio. She had an incredible singing voice. One of her favorite memories was being asked to sing a solo of Stille Nacht in German at midnight mass. She loved being a member of The Coquettes at Girl's Central. She was an voracious reader and kept a library of books. Marilyn loved the innocence of children and cherished all the little

LEARN HOW TO RELAX WHEN FACED WITH STRESS.

You can't always walk away from a stressful situation. Instead, get in the habit of taking 5-10 seconds to scan your body for tension from the top of your head to your toes. Relax all your muscles along the way. Do that throughout the day so it becomes second nature. Be kind to yourself.

Rancher's Plea

Bryce Angell

Good morning, Lord, I know you're there and always in my life.

The reason that I'm calling is you're about to greet my wife.
She was ninety-three and failing. Her time was short, no doubt.

She didn't really give up Lord, I think she just wore out.
I remember when the two of us were young on this old ranch.

We formed a bond that lasted long, just like a tree and branch.
A ranch was nothing new to her, the oldest of four girls.

She helped her father feed the cows. At night she wore her curls.
We started this together and I wondered how she'd do.

Her time was spent beside me right up till the day was through.
But then the stork delivered. First three boys and then a gal.

Then work was spent inside the home to raise and teach 'em well.
She didn't seem to care when railroad bums came from the tracks.

She'd feed 'em breakfast, pack a lunch of buttered up flapjacks.
At haying time, she fed the men. She earned that by default.

And if you didn't eat enough, for sure it was your fault.
She kept the books on this old place each night right by the fire.

She'd shake her head and kid with me, "Why don't we find a buyer?"
She taught our boys and daughter at the table every night.

"Stay close to one another and always do what's right."

She made this place a home for us and never caused me strife.

She stuck by me through thick and thin.

She's the love of my whole life.

Now if it all were up to me, I'd keep her by my side.

But you've called her back to heaven. So, your way I will abide.
I knew the day would come when we would be apart a while.

I'll make it through my final days just thinking of her smile.
I worry, Lord, now that she's gone, is someone there to care?

Could you be waiting for her when she gets to that top stair?
So, Lord I guess I'm asking now that we are far apart.

Is there a list of those you take who have a broken heart?
And if it takes a little while for me to get back there.

Please let her know I'm coming. Then again, our lives we'll share.
In loving memory of our mother and wife.

Born February 9, 1928. Died January 31, 2022.
