Fred Stewart

July 4, 1950 - February 7, 2022

Fred Stewart passed February 7, 2022 with his loving wife present at their home. He was born the second son of Dave & Ronnie Stewart in Ogden, Utah on July 4, 1950. Fred was raised on the family dairy farm in Kaysville, Utah.

He graduated from Davis High in the spring of 1968. Fred met his lifelong friend and soul mate Wilma Robbins in the summer of 1968. He attended one year of Weber State College in Ogden, Utah. He then joined the air force reserve in July 1969, where he became an aircraft mechanic and served until honorably discharged in 1977.

Fred and Wilma married in October 1971. They had their daughter Shasta in March of 1976. In May of 1977 Fred moved his family to Glen, Montana where he began his life's dream on the family cattle ranch, Bar Seven S. In August of 1978, they added their son Shane to make his family complete. Fred always felt like moving to Montana was like "moving home".

In May 1996 Fred made the difficult decision to work for other ranches to help better the financial prosperity of the family ranch. He worked for Snowline Grazing Association, Rafferty Cattle Co., and Vipond Grazing Association. While working outside the family ranch Fred continued his sheep herd that he started with his children in 1984. In 2011 when he returned home full time, his sheep became a family affair with his son, grandson, daughter, and wife with their helping hands.

During the years Fred had his "15 minutes of fame" on 3 separate occasions. The first time he was featured in an article in the Butte newspaper. Fred was known as the "Range Rider" which talked about the modern-day cowboy. The second time he was photographed by David Stocklein where he was selected for the front cover of "The Montana Cowboy" book. The third time Fred and Wilma appeared in a commercial for Black Angus Restaurants.

In his younger years Fred enjoyed trapping and hunting birds in Utah. Once moving "home" his passion for hunting turned to big game with his son and grandson. Fred felt closest to God with his loyal 4-legged companions, on his horse moving cows in the mountains.

Fred was preceded in death by his father Dave, mother

LEARN HOW TO RELAX WHEN FACED WITH STRESS.

You can't always walk away from a stressful situation. Instead, get in the habit of taking 5-10 seconds to scan your body for tension from the top of your head to your toes. Relax all your muscles along the way. Do that throughout the day so it becomes second nature. Be kind to yourself.

30 E. Bannack 683-3548*Montana Secretary of State praises law enforcement for voting crime citations

According to the Phillips County Sheriff's Office, two non-citizens were arrested and received citations related to election crimes during the November 2021 municipal election. According to county election officials, the Dodson mayoral race in Phillips County was decided by only two votes.

The Secretary of State's Office referred the matter to the Montana Attorney General's Office to oversee prosecution. According to the Attorney General's Office, the subjects pled not guilty at their initial appearance in Justice Court.

Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen, who ran her campaign for Montana Secretary of State with an emphasis on the integrity of elections, applauded law enforcement.

"Thank you to the Attorney General and all law enforcement involved for a job well done. This office is repeatedly reminded that voting violations do not exist because voting crimes are not prosecuted," said Secretary Jacobsen. "As such, I will work to ensure that election law violations such as this are finally taken seriously and will continue to work to prevent them from happening in the first place.

"Our office is going to make sure they are prosecuted for these election crimes."

Bulldog Volleyball Lands Ten on Academic All-Conference Team

Frontier Conference Commissioner Kent Paulson released the 2021-22 Academic All-Conference Volleyball team today. To be eligible for the team, the student-athlete must be at least a sophomore in standing and maintain a 3.25 GPA. The University of Providence led the Frontier with 13 student-athletes selected.

Ten Montana Western volleyball players landed spots on the academic all-conference team--Katie Casagrande, KayLee Kopp, Rylee Nickodemus, Emmah Peterson, Abbey Schwager, Cady Siemion, Morgan Stenger, Peyton Vogl, Ramya Wendt, and Kaitlyn White.

"I am extremely proud of how this team did in the classroom and what they were able to accomplish," head coach Katie Lovett said.

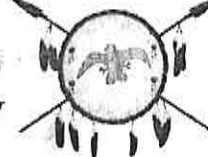

"Being a collegiate athlete is tough with learning how to balance school and volleyball, but having so many girls step up to that challenge is a great thing to see.

Commitment and dedication are things we talk about a lot in our program and these athletes continue to raise the bar on everything we do."

Dillon BLM seeks public input on its Resource Management Plan evaluation

The Bureau of Land Management's Dillon Field Office is conducting a 15-year evaluation of its 2006 Resource Management Plan and welcomes public input as part of the process.

Plan evaluation, required by BLM planning regulations, is the Bureau's process of reviewing the RMP to determine whether its decisions and NEPA analysis are still effective and being implemented. The Dillon Field Office previously conducted five-year and 10-year plan evaluations in 2011 and 2016 respectively.

"While Land Use Plans are written to last, we also need to keep our management approaches current to reflect changes in conditions and to identify new and emerging issues," said Dillon Field Manager Amanda James. "We have to ask ourselves the question: 'What's changed since the last plan evaluation in 2016 that would create a need for the revision of current decisions, dropping decisions from consideration, or requiring new decisions?' The answer to that question is at the heart of this evaluation process, which includes input from the public."

For the 15-year evaluation, the field office is providing a 30-day public information sharing period running through March 7. The type of information that would be relevant for consideration includes:

1) Any information from the past five years revealing substantial changes that would influence the effectiveness of Dillon RMP management decisions.

2) Any information from the past five years revealing substantial changes that would indicate whether the Dillon RMP decisions are effective in achieving or making progress toward achieving desired outcomes identified in the RMP goals and objectives.

To learn more about the RMP plan evaluation, visit the ePlanning page at <https://go.usa.gov/xtmfA>

To provide input, email comments to MT\_Dillon\_FO@blm.gov or mail to: 1005 Selway Drive, Dillon, MT 59725.

Data gathered from the public during the information period will be considered by the Dillon Field Office program specialists, the Interdisciplinary Team assigned to complete the RMP Evaluation, and the Dillon Field Manager when developing the evaluation report. The Evaluation Report will then be reviewed and approved the Montana State Director.

Fish and Wildlife Commission seeks comment on mountain lion regulations and peregrine falcon take
The Montana Fish and Wildlife Commission is seeking public comment on a proposal for mountain lion regulations and peregrine falcon take.

2022-2023 mountain lion hunting regulations, season structures and boundaries

At its Feb. 4 meeting, the Fish and Wildlife Commission identified a new season structure for mountain lion and asked the department to solicit public comment on it.

This new season structure would allocate harvest between unlimited licenses that will end when a quota is reached and a special limited license that would allow hunts during the same period. The special limited license would allow the hunter to hunt throughout the season without limitation by quota. Both the unlimited and special limited licenses would restrict the hunter to a specific hunting area.

In addition to the overall structure, the commission is seeking public input regarding the percentage of harvest that should be allocated to the special license hunters ranging from 10 to 30 percent. The commission is also seeking public input on whether the licenses should be valid for an entire region or only for a subset of Lion Management Units.

Peregrine falcon falconry take

FWP is proposing no changes to last year's regulations for peregrine falcon take, which is a 10-bird quota for resident falconers with one additional permit for non-resident falconers.

Between 2012 and 2021, resident falconers captured 17 peregrine falcons total. Three additional birds were taken during the same timeframe by non-residents.

FWP has been urged by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service not to alter the current quota system until the agency completes an environmental assessment that will address take across the falcon's entire range.

For further clarification or additional materials, please call the Wildlife Division office at 406-444-2612 or send an email to fwpwld@mt.gov. Comments will be accepted online at https://fwp.mt.gov/aboutfwp/public-comment-opportunities, in writing sent to the address above, and by email to fwpwld@mt.gov.

Comments on the proposed items will be accepted until Friday, March 18, at 5 p.m., with final adoption at the April 19 commission meeting.
