AG Knudsen joins attorneys general in calling for resignation of DHS Secretary for border security failures

Citing the continued failure to enforce federal law and secure the southern border, Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen joined a coalition of 14 state attorneys general in calling for President Biden's Department of Homeland Security Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas to leave office.

In a letter to Secretary Mayorkas, the 14 attorneys general outline the leadership failures that have exposed communities in Montana and around the country to increased dangerous drugs and crime. In the midst of the national opioid crisis, Mexican drug cartels wasted no time exploiting the open border policies to traffic fentanyl and methamphetamine into the United States.

"President Biden's failed border policies have flung the door wide open for illegal immigration and drugs to pour into our country – and Montanans are paying the price of increased crime and drug deaths," Attorney General Knudsen said. "Secretary Mayorkas's decisions not to enforce basic immigration law have resulted in an effective 'stand down' order for Border Patrol and caused, in his own words, conditions at the border that are perhaps the worst they have ever been. He must resign."

The attorneys general also explained that under Secretary Mayorkas's watch, not only are unknown amounts of deadly drugs flooding into the country, but with no attempt to vet or certify the thousands of illegal immigrants crossing the southern border, there is no way of knowing who is coming into the country.

"The number of sex offenders arrested entering our country increased by an astounding 213 percent over the last fiscal year. Given your unlawful catch and release policies, we are left with many other unanswerable questions, like how many children are now being trafficked in our communities and how many sex offenders now prowl our streets," Knudsen and the attorneys general wrote. "Deportations have fallen a staggering 70 percent since 2020…Perhaps most egregiously, you have refused to deport some of the most dangerous criminals, even though you are required by law to do so."

Mayorkas has faced increasing criticism from his own Border Patrol agents, while the Western States Sheriffs' Association recently called on President Biden "to take appropriate steps to remove Secretary Mayorkas from his leadership position."

Attorney General Knudsen joined the attorneys general of the following states in calling for Mayorkas to resign: Florida, Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Georgia, Indiana, Louisiana, Missouri, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Texas, Utah, West Virginia.

Bulldog Women Fall to Orediggers in Frontier Conference Quarterfinal

The Montana Western Bulldogs (15-13, 5-11) fell to the Orediggers of Montana Tech (13-18, 4-12) in the quarterfinal of the Frontier Conference postseason basketball tournament, 67-76.

It was a close matchup for the first quarter—both teams added 15 points to the board, with six of the Bulldogs' 15 coming from the foul line. Montana Tech grabbed the halftime lead, 33-28, with an 18-point second quarter on 58 percent shooting from the field.

The Bulldogs grabbed the lead twice in the third quarter, but only by two. Montana Western outscored the Orediggers 18-14 in the third, but the Orediggers still led 47-46. Montana Tech went on a 9-3 run for the first four minutes of the fourth. Montana Western struggled to penetrate the Orediggers' defense and couldn't stop their offense on the other end.

Montana Secretary of State's Office hosts Election Administrator Certification training

State and local election officials held their biannual Election Administrator Certification training event this week. The Elections & Voter Services Division of the Montana Secretary of State's Office hosted the training, which consisted of a variety of topics in preparation for the 2022 midterm elections.

The Secretary of State's Election & Voter Services staff consisted of Dana Corson, Stuart Fuller, Gabi Ames, Kyler Baker, Mark Carpenter, Ray Dagnall, Conner Gagnon, and Missy McLarnon.

The training was open to all county election administrators in Montana.

Attendees from across the state discussed voter registration, candidate filing, resources and recruitment ideas for election judge training, as well as preparation for Election Day.

The three-day training event also highlighted the importance of cybersecurity awareness. Austin Lindsay, the Information Security Officer at the Montana Secretary of State's Office, led the presentation with representatives from the Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency (CISA), the National Guard, and the Montana Analysis & Technical Information Center (MATIC).

"I'm thankful for the hard work of state and local election officials," said Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen. "Exercising our right to vote is an important civic duty, one that could not be performed without election officials, election judges, and poll workers.

"I'm proud of the staff at the Secretary of State's Office for conducting this important training event for all of Montana's election administrators."

Montana's 2022 candidate filing season began on Thursday, January 13 and runs through 5 p.m. on Monday, March 14. As of Friday afternoon, more than 230 candidates had submitted their filing to the Montana Secretary of State's Office.

The primary election will be held on Tuesday, June 7, while the general election is slated for Tuesday, November 8.

Montana Western Celebrates National TRIO Day

Students from Montana Western's TRIO program will participate in the 2022 National TRIO Day of Service on February 28 to express appreciation to the community for its support of TRIO programs. National TRIO Day is a day of celebration, reflection, and action around increased access to higher education for disadvantaged students.

For more than 50 years, federal TRIO programs across the country have been providing valuable support services to help first-generation students and students from low-income families, veterans, and students with disabilities, enter and graduate from college. Today more than 1,000 colleges, universities, and community agencies host more than 2,800 TRIO projects that serve more than 800,000 young people and adults. TRIO serves students of all racial and ethnic backgrounds. For millions of students from low-income families who strive to be the first in their families to attend and graduate from college, the seven federally funded programs that form TRIO Student Support Services (SSS) are making a world of difference.

While student financial aid programs help students overcome financial hurdles to higher education, TRIO programs recognize the importance of overcoming all barriers to success. Maggie Lund, a junior Psychology major in the Montana Western TRIO program, says "I like the extra support I get, not just in academics, but in life in general as well."

Now in its 17th year, Montana Western's TRIO SSS program currently helps 160 students work toward collegiate success.

TRIO services at the University of Montana Western include:

- Tutoring
- Peer-to-Peer mentoring for first-year students
- Pre-semester Accelerator Program
- First-Year Program
- Personal and financial counseling
- Career counseling
- Assistance in applying to graduate school
- Specialized workshops
- Assistance in applying for financial aid
