Rural Schools Science Fair

The 2022 Rural Schools Science Fair was held in the Keltz Arena on the campus of the University of Montana Western on March 11. Students from the six rural schools in Beaverhead County plus Divide (Silver Bow County) and Aider (Madison County) participated in six areas of science related studies. Participants were separated into grade level groups among projects in Chemical Science, Physical Science, Earth Science, Biology, Life Science, and a Young Inventor category. The youngest students were in kindergarten, while the oldest were eighth graders.

The young scientists contributed nearly 75 projects for the review of a team of judges recruited by Felicia Luebeck and Stephenie McKamey, the teachers at Wise River who directed this year's fair. The judging was finished by lunchtime and after lunch and an open house, awards for excellence were handed out to the winners.

Four Montana National Guard ChalleNGe cadets provided support during the fair, while other cadets put up and took down the tables and cleaned up the arena. The maintenance staff at Montana Western was on hand for all things concerned with the physical environment, and teachers from the schools complied records and recorded the awards. Beaverhead County would like to offer our sincere thanks to those people and to the parents who supported their children throughout the process.

Our thanks also to Deb "From the Bookstore" Sporich who brought books of age and grade appropriate readings. Destination Imagination was our secondary presenter with Heather Gieger, the president of the organization providing activities for the participants. Our thanks to her as well.

Common Sense?

By: MJ

As I have grown older, I have found that it is easy to upset others, however impossible to please all. I am responsible for what I say, and not what you heard. Question: Where did Common Sense go? It appears to be like a deodorant. Those that need it the most never use it.

Examples of common sense disappearing with the new age. We go out on internet and look things up, ask Alexa or Google and take what they tell us as the gospel. People let Covid brain washing, take away (freedoms), watched the economy deteriorate, participated in dividing the people, families and jobs destroyed without even questioning the facts… Let's not forget the billions of new government dollars printed and passed out. Those dollars were not free. The government will take the money from you in some form such as taxes or another form to cover their debt. Many turned the fear of the epidemic into an income increasing machine by investing in the stocks of vaccine companies. Note: The vaccine companies made $60± billion a year selling mandatory vaccines.

The Green New Deal is another issue where we have let our common sense go by the wayside. Let's look at what people did in the yester-years to be GREEN. 1) In years gone by, paper bags were used, and those bags were repurposed as garbage bags, schoolbook covers that insured the public-school property would not be defaced by scribbling and artwork. Paper bags did not end up in the oceans destroying and killing. At the end of a paper bags life, it may have lite garbage barrels, the campfires, fireplaces, cook stoves… 2) Folks washed and hung diapers, sheets and other clothing items on lines and did not dry them in an energy-gobbling machine burning electricity. 3) People walked up stairs to offices & stores (no elevators), walked to grocery store in their neighborhood and did not use a gas guzzling machine to drive 2± blocks. 4) Families did not always have brand new cloths, they often had hand-me-downs. 5) TVs were in one room of the house and enjoyed by family gatherings sharing programs. 6) In the past newspapers were used as package stuffing when mailing items (not destructive Styrofoam or plastic wrap). 7) Folks drank from a fountain and did not open a plastic throw away bottle each time they needed a drink. The "going green" in past years has gone away and the new age "going green" has been ushered in with business's creating products that support capitalism, support the wants & desires of humans without using common sense.

We are at the beginning of a new year with a newly elected mayor. Several ± old employees have been dismissed or quit and today there is new faces greeting you at the city front office. When the old employees leave so does knowledge and experience. When the new employees come on board, so does the learning curves that take time and money.

One of the learning curves is the potholes that are deepening every day. It is one of the problems the local citizens have a complaint about and want them fixed now not later. Change is a blessing and a curse.
