Barrus to be sentenced to prison, not state hospital

Lloyd Barrus will be sentenced to Montana State Prison, not the Montana State Hospital, following successful arguments from Montana Department of Justice attorneys. Barrus was found guilty in September of three counts of deliberate homicide by accountability and two counts of attempted deliberate homicide for his role in the 2017 murder of Broadwater County Sheriff Deputy Mason Moore.

Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen issued the following statement in response: "I'm proud that our DOJ prosecutors helped hold this dangerous criminal accountable for his actions and put him in prison where he belongs. Throughout this trial our team has been committed to finding justice for Broadwater County Deputy Mason Moore, his family, and all victims involved. I'm glad the court agreed with us and made the right decision today."

The case was prosecuted by Montana Department of Justice attorneys Dan Guzynski and Stephanie Robles. A sentencing date has not been set.

Dillon Police Department Ref: Suspicious Person

Dillon Residents,

The Police Department would like to remind residents once again to always lock their vehicles and homes. When taking theft complaints we ask if doors on vehicles and homes were locked and responses are often "but it's Dillon". We have recent concerns as prowling around vehicles has been reported.

Thieves are discouraged when doors are locked as it makes too much noise and causes unwanted attention when they break windows or doors. When leaving cars running in the morning please do not leave them unsupervised as the risk for theft increases.

This request seems very simple, but it is amazing how many people do not lock their doors. When an intruder gets in to a vehicle they may not even take anything, they just may be searching for information for identity theft or ways to even enter your home. You may not know anything has even happened only to find out later your identity has been stolen.

Please simply lock your doors and make it harder on thieves and easier on the police department as we investigate these crimes. Please contact the police department with information. Facebook is a great tool but can hinder investigations if information is disseminated before law enforcement receives it.

By Mike Lawson

Greetings to all of you who read my SW MT veteran update articles. The weather is getting warmer and the ground is slushy and muddy. I took my small poodle for a 3 mile walk on the East Ridge and had to give her and my boots a good rinsing off when we got home. I worry about the lack of snow and how that's going to affect us this summer. We've been lucky that the East Ridge hasn't had any serious fires, but if it is dry again, it could happen and be devastating. The other folks I worry about is our rancher and farmer friends. Water is so valuable to their existence as they need irrigation water for their crops and livestock. Many prayers, for sure.

This is a big week in Butte, with St Patrick's Day celebrations happening throughout the city. The M&M will be open as they bought the building next door and will use it to serve the crowds. Corn beef & cabbage will be in abundance in many of the eating establishments, as well as green beer. Sounds like a great parade will take place in uptown Butte with the Bag Pipers from Canada performing as they always do. The following day the Marine Corps League Detachment #724 will be doing their first Coffee Stop fundraiser at the Anaconda (I-90 turn-off,) rest stop. Stop by if you're in that area. They'll have a lot of home-made bake goods to go with the coffee/water/tea. It's fun and a lot of visiting goes on.

The latest on the SW MT Veteran's Home is that the state signed off on Cottage #4 and turned it over to Eduro, the operations management contractor. Resident Veterans will soon be admitted, which is great news. Cottage #5 is still in discussions with the state and the General Contractor, concerning the flooring. Hopefully that will be resolved shortly. With it being a memory unit, the need is great for those veterans needing that kind of care. In talking with the Activities Director, Teresa Madrazo, it sounds like our resident veterans have been treated to some exciting activities, lately. On March 6th, nine of these veterans were brought to the Mother Lode Theater to see a show there, called "All Hands On Deck". It was depicting a 1940 Radio Show with singing and tap dancing. This group of entertainers welcomed our resident veterans, mentioned them by name and gave them ducky awards. These Vets were seated on each side of the theater, above the main seating, which gave them a good view. After the show this troupe of entertainers met and had pictures taken with these our resident veterans. Teresa said these vets were very touched by this attention. The SW MT Vet Home Foundation were privileged to purchase the tickets for this event. The next thing coming up is the St Patrick's Parade in uptown Butte, which will see at least one van-load of our resident veterans being participants. The Therapy Department Staff plan to walk the parade route ahead of this Veteran's Van. Look for them and wave, if you'r at the Parade.

Just down the road at the new Veteran (CBOC) Medical Center being built, things continue to progress rapidly. The many cabinets, throughout this building, have all been installed. The door installation, for the many rooms, has been a work in progress and will probably be completed this week. Dennehy Flooring will finish tiling the big lobby area this week, also. The corium for the cabinets/counters/window-sills is supposed to be started this week. The plumbers will be able to start setting the toilets/sinks/faucets/etc., once the corium is installed. Lots of the medical equipment, etc., will follow that process. Furniture is scheduled to start arriving next week. Things are progressing well with the April 29th Grand Opening looking to be a certain reality. This is a beautiful building, both inside and out.

Navy Veteran Tom Straugh, from Dillion, said the veterans there are getting together to start planning for "The Vietnam Veterans, Veteran's Day." The planning meeting for this will be April, 30th at the Dillon American Legion Hall. Being a Vietnam Veteran, these type of meetings/recognizations are very heartfelt. If you're from Dillion or the surrounding area, please think about attending.

March is halfway over and our schools are in the last quarter of their school year. Planning for Veteran Conventions is taking place with travel plans getting figured out. Most of these events take place in the summer and are very uplifting moments for those of us who are veterans. If any of you vets have an opportunity to go to one or more of these Veteran gatherings, take your spouse and share this special time, together. The health benefits of relaxing and being away from the everyday life you live, make it well worthwhile.

Everyone, stay safe, be positive and treat those around you like you want to be treated. Until Next time, take care.

FLOP HOUSE

By "Swede" Troedsson

In 1954, after returning from Korea, I was stationed at the Marine Corps base in Camp Pendleton, CA

Towards the end of my active duty, I decided to spend a weekend of liberty in Los Angeles. I purchased a round trip bus ticket in Oceanside, and arrived in Los Angeles in time to attend a dance and party at a local dance pavilion. Towards the end of a wild evening, I was hit on by a gorgeous woman. By then I was broke, and could not afford to entertain her. All I had was the return trip bus ticket, and no way to pay for lodging.

I had heard of a local church run hostel that would take in down and outers. Upon presenting myself for a nights stay, I was issued a little cloth sack into which to place my valuables, and instructed to pin it to my "skivvies" (under pants) so as to prevent theft during the night. In the sleeping room I was assigned to an upper bunk, and slept the night.

The next morning I participated in singing a religious song in order to qualify for the free breakfast. Following breakfast, I boarded a bus and returned to Oceanside and Camp Pendleton.

RMEF Conserves Riparian and Meadow Habitat, Opens More Access in Nevada

As part of a collaborative effort to protect riparian and meadow habitat and improve public access to it in northern Nevada, the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation worked with a conservation-minded landowner, the Nevada Department of Wildlife (NDOW) and Nevada Division of State Lands to conserve 1,560 acres of wildlife habitat.

"We appreciate NDOW for requesting our assistance in this transaction. We also salute the landowner and recognize his strong conservation ethic in the way he managed his land for the benefit of wildlife and livestock alike," said Kyle Weaver, RMEF president and CEO. "It is now protected and in the public's hands to use and enjoy."

The property is immediately northeast of the small community of Battle Mountain about halfway between Elko and Winnemucca. The newly acquired lands will be part of the soon to be established Argenta Wildlife Management Area.

"This property has a high wildlife value for elk, mule deer, wild turkey, migratory birds and other species because of its shrub-steppe sagebrush, grasslands and riparian areas from several miles of the Humboldt River that crosses it," said Blake Henning, RMEF chief conservation officer. "Elk have demonstrated use of this property and the river channel as cover as part of their movements across and through the surrounding uplands."

In addition to big and small game, the immediate area is home to more than 90 species of shore, wading and song birds. Raptors and waterfowl also take advantage of the seasonal flooding of the meadows, sloughs, swamps, river channels and dense intact willow stands.

NDOW and RMEF's Torstenson Family Endowment provided funding for the project.

The Sagebrush and Snowdrifts 4-H News

By Secret Petersen

The Sagebrush and Snowdrifts 4-H Club had their meeting on March, 7th, at 7:00 p.m. at the Search and Rescue building. After pledges were said, Heidi Schwandt gave a presentation on improving and filling out record books, breeding animal journals, and final journals. She gave example on how to complete our record books to make them more useful and better organized.

After Heidi's presentation, we talked about swine and sheep weigh-ins which are on June 5th. The date for dropping and adding projects is June 1st.

Sadly, the trip to Washington D.C was canceled due to covid reasons.

We will be helping at the Shriners Oyster Feed on Saturday, March, 12th. We voted to donate $3,000 for the new 4-H building being built. We plan to make another donation at a later date. We will be helping at the Veteran's Dinner at the Elks Lodge on, May, 19th.

Butter braids sales forms were handed out by Laura Martin. All forms need to be returned March, 28, 2022. Our honey sales are still being worked out. We will let you know at further notice.

Our meeting to do demonstrations will be April, 4th, at the Search and Rescue building at 6:00 p.m. We will begin the evening by serving; "Make your own Sandwiches", chips, drinks and dessert, followed with each member giving a demonstration.
