Montana Western Hosts 52nd Annual Rodeo Banquet

The 52nd Annual Montana Western Rodeo Banquet will be held on Friday, April 1st, 2022, at 5:30 p.m. in the Keltz Arena. This year's "Friends of UMW Rodeo" honorees will be Race and Shelly King.

"We are excited to have the Annual Rodeo Banquet this spring; it means so much for the students and the community and is a large part of the Montana Western Rodeo Team experience," said Montana Western Head Rodeo Coach, J.T. Robbins.

The funds generated from the Rodeo Banquet help offset travel expenses during the regular season and CNFR. Additionally, banquet proceeds assist in providing scholarships for UMW rodeo student-athletes.

Dillon BLM to conduct prescribed burn near Tobacco Root Mountains
 Those traveling near the Tobacco Root Mountains this week may see a little smoke in the air as the Bureau of Land Management's Dillon Field Office conducts prescribed burns. The exact timing depends on weather and fuel conditions.
 The prescribed burns—totaling 2,190 acres—are planned for areas near Wet Georgia, Horse, and Granite creeks.
 Smoke may be visible to the public from U.S. Highway 287, State Highway 287, County Route 248, and the communities of Ennis, Virginia City, Alder, Sheridan, Twin Bridges and Dillon.
 The primary objectives of the planned burn treatments are to reduce fuel loading in high-priority wildland urban interface and reduce conifer expansion into sagebrush grasslands.
 The burns will be implemented and closely monitored by fire managers from the BLM, Forest Service, and the Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation.
 For more information, contact the Dillon Field Office at (406)

Madison River Work Group to meet March 24 in Bozeman

 The work group will also hear updates on non-commercial use, new outfitters, fishing access site improvements and a river ambassador pilot program. A full agenda will be posted to the website before the meeting.
 The 12-member work group was organized by the Fish and Wildlife Commission, per an administrative rule. This is the fifth meeting of the work group.

DOG OWNERS CLEAN UP EVENT

Dear friends,

At BTC, most of us are dog owners, and we love the opportunity to let our friends roam unleashed around the trails. However, the amount of dog poop being left on the trail is a problem, so please help us keep our friends unleashed by participating in this weekend's "on your own time" poop clean-up event!

We will be leaving trash bags at the trailheads all weekend and are asking hikers to help us clean up the dog waste on the trails. You can do this work at your own pace and on your own schedule!

If you are not a dog owner but still participate, you are a remarkable person and we thank you from the bottom of our hearts!

Reminder: dog bags and a trash can are available at the trailhead at all times - please pick up after your four-legged friend all year long!

Event date is set for this coming Saturday the 26th, all day!

Attorney General Knudsen encourages Montanans to beware of tax scams

Attorney General Austin Knudsen is encouraging Montanans to be on high-alert for scammers trying to take advantage of them during tax season. The Department of Justice's Office of Consumer Protection (OCP) has received 44 calls related to tax scams since January 2021.

"Montanans pay enough in taxes without being scammed while trying to file their paperwork. It's more important than ever to be on the lookout for fraudsters trying to take advantage of you as we're right in the middle of tax season," Attorney General Knudsen said. "Learn to spot the signs of a tax scam to protect yourself – and never give out personal information over the phone unless you're absolutely sure who you are talking to."

In most instances, the scammer will call or email claiming to be from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and provide a badge number and may even know the victim's social security number. The calls will typically come from a spoofed number or a number with a Washington D.C. area code. It's very common for scammers to tell the victim they are eligible for a tax debt relief program or ask for money via a prepaid debit card or gift card to resolve owed back taxes. Many times, the scammer will also ask for personal information to verify a tax account or take care of legal action being taken against the consumer.

Keep these tips in mind to avoid becoming the victim of a tax scheme:

- File your taxes yourself and it as early as possible. You can file tax returns electronically or on paper.
- If you're using a tax preparer, pay them prior to filing. Many preparers charge higher fees when deducting the cost of preparations from your refund.
- Avoid refund advances. No one can guarantee to obtain your refund from the IRS faster than you can. Tax refund advances are actually loans from your preparer, and like almost any loan, will cost you additional fees to receive.
- Consider direct deposit rather than a mailed check for your refund.
- If you believe you've been a victim of tax-related
