Recital via Railroad: Historic Montana Violin & Piano Program, 1890-1920

Baroque Music Montana will present a performance at 3:00 Sunday, April 3 at the First Presbyterian Church in Dillon. As part of its Beyond Baroque series, the program explores the first violin recitals performed in Montana. Once the railroad had been laid and before the advent of movies, the best violinists in the world—including Kreisler, Ysaye, Maud Powell, Jan Kubelik, Mischa Elman, and their phenomenal recital pianists—shared the favorite and impressive tunes of the day across Montana from Belt to Livingston. Dillon was home to an outstanding violinist Carl Riedelsberger who was head of the Normal School music department and concertized widely in the region. This program explores those fabulous players, the opera houses and theaters where they played, and the repertoire beloved to them and audiences both then and today.

This recital is performed by Bozeman Symphony concertmaster, violinist, and MSU professor of piano, Julie Gossweiler. It will also be presented in Lewistown, Billings, and Bozeman. Tickets are $15 general, $5 students and are available to purchase at the concert or in advance at baroquemusicmontana.org. For local information, please contact Charlene Loge, 683-4344.

National Vietnam War Veterans Day March 29th

National Vietnam War Veterans Day honors a generation of men and women who served and sacrificed during the longest conflict in U.S. history. March 29 Marks the anniversary of when combat forces departed South Vietnam in 1973, even though some troops remained until their final departure in 1975. According to Department of Veterans Affairs, there were 8.7 million Vietnam Era veterans, with 3.4 million deployed downrange. There were 47,434 combat deaths, 10,786 in-theater deaths, and 153,303 non-mortal wounding, which also included casualties from the ill-fated SS Mayaguez rescue attempt in 1975.

Homer
Bryce Angell

The first time I saw Homer, he was standing in the corral. His owner hadn't rode him much, as far as I could tell. A big red roan and three-years-old; by luck he was for sale. His owner asked four hundred. Seemed a little like blackmail. But I handed over four green bills, put Homer in the truck. Then I drove him to our holding pen and soon found I'd been stuck. The doggone gelding looked at me with eyes that seemed to say. Just try and get me out of here. The corral is where I'll stay. I rode ole Homer in the holding corral most every day. But when we'd ride up to the gate, he'd brake and shy away. After 'bout a week or so he stepped out through the gate. I grinned from ear to ear but had no inkling of my fate. We'd rode about a mile or so, his chin strap broke away. Homer knew just what to do. 'Twas my unlucky day. He chomped down on the bridle bit and locked his jaw up tight. He jerked the reins and took a leap; you'd say we took to flight. Homer shifted to high gear and headed for the corral. What flew out from his rear was jet propulsion sent from $#!&!! I held on tight for my dear life. There weren't much I could do. Homer galloped breakneck speed. Looked like my time was due. When Homer slammed into the gate, I feared I'd end up toast. 'Cuz when he stopped, I stayed in flight and bounced right off a post. That day was my misfortune and it hurt my boyish pride. Homer got the best of me. I was thinking "homicide." Homer wasn't injured, but the gate was quite a mess. And I swear my head kept spinning for a week or two, I guess. Homer finally settled down. He lived a full, long life. He worked up to the lead horse. Never caused a bit of strife. Most horses have their crazy quirks. And while they're young, for sure. But, bridling Homer, from then on, his chin strap was secure.

Montana Western Receives Military Friendly School Designation

The University of Montana Western has received the 2022-2023 Military Friendly Schools Designation and silver ranking.

First published in 2009, Military Friendly Schools is a comprehensive resource for veterans and service members to assist them in the selection of a college, trade school or additional training to pursue a civilian career.

Montana Western opened the doors of the Veterans Military Exchange (VMX) in the fall of 2013. Since then, the VMX has provided support and resources for current and past service members and their families and advocates.

The VMX offers access to computers, reintegration support and financial aid assistance along with other services. The center also brings together veterans and active duty service members to create peer-to-peer support.

Military Friendly Schools cited Montana Western's military scholarships and credits for military service and training, online and distance learning opportunities and the university's VMX program for the designation.

The Military Friendly Schools list is created each year based on research using public data sources for more than 8,800 schools nationwide, input from student veterans and responses to the Military Friendly Schools survey from participating institutions.

The fields of academic study at Montana Western include Biology, Business and Technology, Environmental Sciences, Education, English, Equine Studies, Health and Human Performance, Fine Arts, Mathematics and History, Philosophy and Social Sciences.

Students at the University of Montana Western enjoy a tight-knit community atmosphere and small class sizes where they work closely with peers and professors alike. Montana Western focuses on serving students, achieving academic excellence, and promoting experiential education. The 20-acre campus is an excellent choice for students to take advantage of the immersive learning opportunities offered by the nation's only Experience One program, where they can build on critical and creative thinking skills to prepare for real-world job and graduate

Vietnam Veteran's Day

By Mike Lawson

This Tuesday, March 29, is Vietnam Veteran's Day across this great country we call America. It's a day that we who fought and died in Viet Nam, are grateful to be recognized in an honorable way. When we returned from our tours in Vietnam we were treated dishonorably and it hurt us deeply. Some interesting statistics from the American War Library, from 2019. There were 2,709,918 Americans who served in Viet Nam. Less than 850,000 were alive as of 2019. 5,099 were KIA, 14,232 were wounded and 4 were missing in action. This means that less than 1/3 of those veterans were still alive in 2019. This means that number has dropped from then until now. There's an estimated 44,000 Veterans who, as of 2019, have died from Agent Orange. Since then, again, that number has increased. Many of our Nam Vets are service disabled and living in care facilities such as our SW MT Veteran's Home. The suicide rates among these Vets is staggering and their various serviced connected disabilities are a challenge, to say the least. In spite of these statistics, many of us refuse to be couch potatoes. Our therapy is to become involved in our communities and beyond. Our motto for many of us is "We Serve". We serve by helping each other, our communities and our country. We do it by being leaders/workers in our Veteran's Organizations as well as our Community Organizations. Volunteering and helping others, is what keeps many of us going, especially in seeing we are making a difference. Driving the DAV Vans, doing Toys For Tots, building the Viet Nam Amphitheater at Stodden Park in Butte, building the Viet Nam Memorial in Anaconda, supporting the SW MT Veteran's Home and the Resident Veterans living there, are just a few of the things we do and have done in SW Montana. The Dillon Veteran Community are doing some events to honor the Viet Nam Veteran's Day. The point of this is, that the Viet Nam Veterans have not only served America in war time but have continued to served her to this very day. Included in this article is a piece about the Viet Nam Veteran "We The Viet Nam Veteran" Mike Lawson We are the one's who between the average age of 18 to 22, when called to arms, joined the military in the 60's and 70's to serve. We are the ones who went into the harm's way of Viet Nam We are the ones who saw the horrific things one should never have to see, and that never leave one's memory. We are the one's who cried or couldn't cry when a brother/sister got killed and died beside or in our arms. We are the ones who saw our brother/sister get wounded both physically and mentally, which affected his/her life for a lifetime. We are the ones who were in the day after day of combat stress, living the numbness of having to kill or shoot another human being, in a live or die situation. We are the ones that came home to what we called "The World" only to be called "baby killers" and "war criminals", to have things thrown at us, to be spit at and wonder if the battlefield we left is also going to be a battlefield in the place we call home. We also are the ones who suffer from PTSD caused by the nightmare experiences of combat that for some never leave them. Yes, we like our brothers and sisters from every other war or fighting situation this country has fought, to preserve our freedom, have paid the price and continue to pay the price. But, we also are the ones who when recognition is given by you who attend ceremonies and put together displays, tributes, "The Wall", etc. across the country, start to feel the balm of healing that helps us live another day, in the country we love and fought for. So yes, when we see you do what you do in this way, we give you thanks, and know we have truly come home!!

Vietnam War Veterans Day

March 29 each year is observed as National Vietnam War Veterans Day. This commemoration was designed as a way to thank and honor the nation's Vietnam War veterans and their families for their service and sacrifice during and after the war. March 29 was chosen as the day to honor our Vietnam War veterans because that date in 1973 was the day the last U.S. combat troops departed the Republic of Vietnam. Please take the time on March 29 to acknowledge the service of any Vietnam War veteran that you know.

Trail advisory committee to meet in Helena

The Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks State Trails Advisory Committee (STAC) meets April 7 to review trail grant applications and make recommendations to the department on how the funds should be allocated in 2022.

The group will meet in person, with a virtual option, in the Montana Room at the Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation building in Helena. The meeting will start at 9 a.m. and end by 2 p.m.

The STAC advises FWP on trail issues in Montana, including funding, use, and the promotion of recreational trails across land ownership. The group is made up of 10 members, seven of which are new. Returning STAC members are Robert Long, Polson; Alice Santos, Helena; and Mark Smolen, Bigfork.

New members this year are Kristi Drake, Billings; Julie Riley, Volborg; Madelon Martin, Eureka; Mike Patterson, Butte; Virginia Sullivan, Missoula; Bob Walker, Clancy; and Brenda Maas, Billings.

Primary on the agenda will be reviewing Montana Trail Stewardship Grant (MTSGP) applications and making allocation recommendations to FWP for that program. This year 34 eligible MTSGP applications were submitted seeking about $1,575,000 in funds. The amount of funding available for this grant cycle is $1,037,000.

"Trails are critical infrastructure for recreation in Montana based on recent research that found trails were the number one amenity residents want in our state parks," said FWP's Parks and Outdoor Recreation division administrator Hope Stockwell. "It's easy for me to expect residents have that same desire for trail access across all site types and land ownerships. Careful consideration of where to best deploy these grant dollars is critically important."

The Montana DNRC building is at 1539 11th Ave. in Helena. The meeting is open to public and public comment will be taken before lunch and at the end of the agenda.
