Carma Tyler Benefit Fund

Friends of the Tylers are trying to help Carma Tyler through her journey. Carma was diagnosed with stage 4 traveling metastatic melanoma, which is a fast, moving cancer. Carma is the wife of Mike Tyler who works at the City of Dillon and has Rolling Smoke BBQ. Both are always helping with fund-raiser with Mike's amazing BBQ business. Carm has worked in Home Health Care taking care of many people. They are both natives of Lima Montana.

Mike will be the only one bringing income into the household, as Carm can not work at this time. They are needing us and the community to help with donations, meals, and support.

An account has been set up at High Peaks Federal Credit Union under "Carma Tyler Benefit Fund" if you can donate. A fund-raiser is being planed for the end of the month with more information coming soon.

Gas cards are another way to get them help now. If you could buy one and donate they can be dropped off at Womack's Printing, KDBM/KBEV, Beaverhead Motor Sports (Brandi) with their name. You can send notes and cards to Carma at her home address:

209 Fern Lane
Dillon, MT 59725

If you can help with meals please Call Lisa Jimenez 406-683-6542.

Thank you so much from all of us. We live an amazing community and everyone is always willing to help. Let's all help Carma and Mike.

Advance Directives Presentation

Saturday, April 16, on National Health Care Decision Day, Jeanette Prodgers, a licensed clinical social worker, will give a presentation on advance directives at 11:30 a.m. at the Dillon Public Library, 121 S. Idaho Street. Another presentation will be 3:30 p.m. at the Sheridan Public Library, 109 E. Hamilton Street.

In 2008, Virginia-based healthcare attorney Nathan Kottkamp started National Health Care Decision Day to educate the public about the importance of health care decisions. Annually, events occur across the country on this day to help demystify healthcare decision-making and impart the need for advance care planning.

Over the last 40 years, Prodgers has worked in a variety of health care settings and has a passion to educate people about the history of advance directives, describe the different types and discuss their importance as well as help empower people to make their health care desires known before an incapacitating illness or accident.

For more information, you can call Jeanette at 406-865-0381 and leave a message with your telephone number, or call Lori Roberts, the Dillon Library Director, at 406-683-4544 in Dillon or Library Director Bill Talbott in Sheridan 406-842-5770

Keith Curtis Jackson Hole Update

That's a wrap for Jackson Hole 2022!! Thanks to everyone for the messages, texts, love & support! I'm so thrilled & humbled to take home the world record for King of Kings at 7x Also, making this even more special, this was the race number of Rick Ward, one of the greatest mentors in the sport. The new run (Wolverine), had its challenges with stumps ranging ground level to over 2' tall, with logs placed every which direction! This made it feel like a "hard enduro" hillclimb, topping it off with a steep slope with headwalls & trenches, and technical side hills!

My sleds worked beautifully, and there is a massive team who helped me get to the top, starting with my Family. Training never ends and my wife, Katie supports 100%, from being an amazing wife, to preparing World Class meals, to taking care of the kiddos, and for always being up for an adventure. Dale Stewart put in massive hours in the shop, building & preparing my race sleds, along with my dad, Fred Curtis . Mom is also always helping & supporting.

Polaris Snowmobiles is on top of it in every aspect, they build an incredible capable snowmobile for racing & backcountry. Darin Gould, Team Captain, keeps his team on track, and Darren Hedlund & his engineering team make our sleds absolutely rip! The race & marketing department are always supporting 100% Jack Struthers & his team at Carls Cycle Sales have put in countless hours calibrating Walker Evans shocks for success, and is also an engine wizard. Dustin Pancheri and the Klim team has me covered head to toe in the best gear, period.

Lastly, huge thanks to the Jackson Hole Snow Devils for hosting another World Class Event, along with the volunteers & hill help! It is and always will be our pinnacle event! Thank you to all my sponsors, friends, family, friends, fans, and local sponsors! Time to keep this momentum rolling, let's GOOOOO!!

Commenting open on proposed Recreational Trails Program project funding
Comments accepted through April 26

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks seeks public comments on the department's recommendations for the 2022 Recreational Trails Program awards.

Public comment on the recommended awards is open through Monday, April 26.

The Recreational Trails Program (RTP) is a federally funded program which provides funding for trail and trail-related projects across the state. The program is administered by FWP and eligible projects include development and rehabilitation work on urban, rural, and backcountry trails; planning and construction of community trails; snowmobile and cross-country ski trail maintenance and grooming operations; and a variety of trail stewardship and safety education programs.

This year, FWP received 48 RTP applications requesting over $2.6 million. For 2022 about $1,525,000 is available for funding and 32 projects are proposed for funding.

A complete list of recommended projects is available online at: https://fwp.mt.gov/aboutfwp/grant-programs/recreational-trails, under the "2022 Grant Application Cycle" tab. All recommended 2022 RTP awards are eligible for a FHWA Categorical Exclusion under NEPA (23 CFR 771.117(c)(23)) and MEPA (ARM 18.2.261(2)(w)).

Public comments on funding the proposed projects are due by 5 p.m. April 26. To comment, email FWPFACB@mt.gov.

Comments by regular mail should be sent to: Adam Brooks, Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks, PO Box 200701, Helena, MT 59620-0701.

Montana Western Student Receives Volunteer Award

University of Montana Western senior, Emily Engen, has received the 2022 Montana Student Volunteer Award.

Fourteen Montana college and university students were recently honored by the Governor's Office of Community Service and Campus Compact board for their volunteer work. Montana college students invest time, energy and passion into their communities; this award recognizes the civic contributions students make all year long.

Emily Engen, a senior majoring in English, has been an active member of Montana Western's campus community for the past four years, as well as in her home community of Fort Benton. She has helped write, direct and produce two youth play productions for children of all ages and serves as the director of summer reading at the Chouteau County Library, where she hosts crafting workshops, story time, and games for an average of fifty children every week.

Engen also plays the clarinet in Fort Benton's Community Band each summer. On-campus, she has supported fellow students in many ways, including serving as a writing tutor in the UMW Learning Center for five semesters and as a mentor for incoming freshmen as part of Montana Western's First-Year Experience program.

She is also an active member of Montana Western's Honors Program and has served as Vice President of the Honors Student Association for the past three years. In addition, she has presented her work at two regional honors conferences and has helped organize a variety of events and fundraisers.

Attorney General Knudsen joins lawsuit to end CDC mask mandate

Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen today joined 19 other state attorneys general in a lawsuit to end President Biden's continued mask mandate for airplanes and other forms of mass transportation. The mandate exceeds Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's (CDC) authority and intrudes on Montanans' rights.

The Biden administration first issued the mask mandate on January 29, 2021 and has continuously extended it since then. It requires mask wearing in "public transportation conveyances" such as airplanes, trains, buses, taxis, and ride-shares.

"The indoor mask mandates have been dropped in every single state, but the Biden administration keeps clinging to its forced masking policy. It's far past time for this overbearing mandate to go," Attorney General Knudsen said.

The lawsuit from Knudsen and other attorneys general seeks the eradication of the unlawful mask mandate and a permanent injunction against enforcement.

The CDC's unlawful mask mandate exceeds the agency's authority in several ways: the statute used to justify the mandate does not authorize economy-wide measures and the statute only authorizes rules directly related to preventing the interstate spread of disease—it does not permit mask requirements for individuals who show no sign of infection.

Additionally, the rule is arbitrary and capricious. The required notice and comment period was not given before the mandate implemented and the CDC did not consider actions that states had already taken to control the spread of COVID-19.

The mandate also requires state-run conveyances and transportation hubs to affirmatively enforce the rule in violation of the anti-commandeering doctrine, which prohibits the federal government from imposing coercive duties on state governments.

Attorney General Knudsen joins the attorneys general from the following states in filing the lawsuit in the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida: Florida, Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, Georgia, Idaho, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Utah, Virginia, and West Virginia.

Groups of flight attendants and pilots have also filed lawsuits against the mandate, while airlines have also asked the Biden administration to end it.
