Glenn Reinhard Kincaid Sr.

July 13th, 1952-March 17th, 2022

On March 17th, 2022, Glenn Reinhard Kincaid Sr. passed away peacefully in his home located in Jackson, Montana. Glenn Sr. was born on July 13th, 1952, to Cecilia Ann (Bates) Kincaid and George Kincaid Sr. Glenn Sr. attended Great Falls High School and graduated in 1970. He continued his educational career at Montana Tech in Butte formerly known as Montana State School of Mines. He spent his entire life living, working, and enjoying the Big Sky Country. Glenn spent over 30 years working for Burlington Northern Santa Fe (BNSF) as a railroad conductor. He was dedicated to his role as a conductor while raising a family and maintaining his family apartment rentals.

Glenn Sr. married Carlena Rose Kelleher in 1970 and raised a family of four in their early years of marriage in Butte, Montana. Glenn and Carlena later moved to Great Falls where they raised four children. He taught his children many valuable lessons in life, and most importantly he taught his children to love the mountains and experience the great outdoors. Glenn was a mountain man and lead by example. He loved mining, fishing, hunting, hiking, and barbecuing New York steaks for his family. Glenn also loved animals. He raised his children with German Shephard dogs and cats.

Glenn and Carlena later divorced, and he continued his working roles while supporting his children through college. He had a dream to move to the Montana/Idaho border after he retired. He wanted to spend the remainder of his life surrounded by mountains and fresh air. Glenn did just that and nobody was going to stop him! He was extremely determined and passionate about his lifestyle choices.

Glenn Sr. is survived by his brother, Gregory Kincaid (Great Falls), his four children, Glenn Kincaid Jr. (Great Falls), Scott Kincaid (Great Falls), Leslie (Brenda) Kincaid (Anchorage, AK), and his daughter, Holly Kincaid (Great Falls), and his three wonderful grandchildren, Kelsey Kincaid (Great Falls), Katie Kincaid (Great Falls), and Cassidy (Torrez) Kincaid (Oceanside, CA). Plans for a Celebration of Life are being finalized for the summer of 2022 in the wonderful Montana mountains.

Eleanor M Brush

Eleanor M. Brush age 96 of Dillon MT passed away on 3/26/2022 with her children by her side.

Throughout the film, we meet the people who live, work and play on these rivers—people who work tirelessly to ensure that these waters, and all the life they support, are healthy. Drop illustrates how the water connects us all.

Some time ago I had a horse, a kind of dappled gray.

His father was Arabian; his mother, who can say?

His real name was India, we never called him that. We named him Indie just for short. We should have called him Brat!

His body was magnificent. He walked with head held high.

Yet he was scared of his own shadow, and we never found out why. One day while riding on the trail, that horse thought he'd skedaddle.

He whirled around and took a leap with me still in the saddle. Thank heaven for that big pine tree that stopped us in the air.

If it wasn't for that conifer, we might have died right there. Well, Indie made it back again without a single scratch.

I lost my coat and saddlebags. That horse was quite a catch!

The other riders said to me, "You should let Indie go. The next time that you're riding him, he'll stomp you, don't you know?"

I said I'd give him one more try. Each horse deserves a chance.

I'd see if he would come around. I had to take that stance.

It wasn't but a day or two, a doctor friend and I were riding on the river's edge. Who knew my time was nigh?

Well, all at once a deer jumped out. Old Indie leaped up high.

I came down on the saddle horn. I tried hard not to cry.

My doctor friend rode up and said, "Hey, Bryce, are you all right?"

I said, "I'll sing soprano if I make it through the night."

He checked me over, spoke again, "I have some stuff for pain."

I moaned, "No thanks, just shoot me now before I cuss in vain!"

Well, Indie's gone. I sold him cheap. I think I got a deal, 'cuz he was bound to spook again. Next time I might not heal.

Goodbye old horse. Good riddance. Your owner's been informed.

Although you are a beauty, your mind must be deformed.

A skittish one like Indie, you don't forget, of course. And I wonder how they're doing--new owner and old horse.

So I check the papers every day. The obits I peruse. And thank the Lord that neither one has made the daily news.
