Dillon's Chief of Police Retiring

Jeremy Crawford,

Southwestern Montana News

Dillon's Chief of Police Donny Guiberson will be retiring at the end of the month. After 25 1/2 years as a police officer, assistant Chief of Police, and now Chief of Police, his last day will be April 30th. Donny will not enjoy retirement to the fullest as he has taken a job with the Montana Department of Justice as a Criminal Investigator.

We want to wish Donny the best of luck with his retirement and pursuit of his new job. If we at SWMT News or Dillonite Daily have ever had questions regarding an incident, he has always gotten back to us in a timely manner. We have watched him request pay raises with the City Council for the officers as well as budget increases for items the police have needed to do their job both effectively and efficiently.

We will have more information on his replacement as it becomes available.

DONKEY BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

A night of sitting on the edge of your seats with a couple basketball games going into sudden death finishes and a coin toss to get into the championship game came down to the results of Shepherds Garage 1st place winners and runners up were the past champions the Dillon Volunteer Fire Department taking home 2nd.

The Dillon Soroptimist would like to thank everyone for their support.

Tara VanDerveer to Speak at Montana Western Commencement

The University of Montana Western's 125th Annual Commencement, to be held on Saturday, May 7, 2022, will feature speaker Tara VanDerveer, legendary Stanford Women's Basketball Coach, the all-time winningest coach in women's basketball.

Prior to coming to Stanford, VanDerveer served as head coach for a combined seven seasons at Idaho and Ohio State. She has been the head coach at Stanford for over 35 seasons.

VanDerveer pledged to donate funds for humanitarian relief efforts for Ukraine based on $10 donated for each successful three-point shot, from every team in the NCAA women's tournament from beginning to end. Her 1996 Olympic champion U.S. national team played in Ukraine several times, facing the Ukrainian national team in the capital city of Kyiv in advance of the Atlanta Games.

VanDerveer has also been a vital benefactor to Montana Western's tribal college partnership program with Blackfeet Community College and Little Big Horn College.

Montana Western's Commencement Ceremony will begin at 10 a.m. in the Straugh Gymnasium on the UMW campus on May 7.
