VFW Announces Scholarship Recipients

Bill Carroll VFW Post 9040 members would like to congratulate Evelyn Hansen and Daniel Martin for being chosen as the recipients of the Post's 2020 scholarship awards. Applicants for the scholarship submitted an essay on the subject "How Can I Be a Good American". These two student's essays were selected by VFW members as the best submitted this year. They will each receive $500 from the VFW to assist in financing their future college studies.

The VFW would like to thank all of the individuals who submitted applications for this year's scholarships. It is encouraging to see the level of patriotism that was shown in each of the applications.

VFW Post members would also like to thank all of the area businesses who contribute prizes for our annual Labor Day raffle. Proceeds from the raffle make it possible for us to provide these scholarships to deserving graduating seniors. We would also like to thank all of the individuals in the community for their support by buying tickets for the raffle each year.

Thank you

The family of Claire Pilon would like to acknowledge the outpouring of support through cards, calls, texts, social media and house calls. A special thanks to Dr. Combs who cared for mom as though she were family. Dr. Combs was kind, personal, and professional, she gave sound medical advice, while still including mom's wishes. Thanks also to the Hospice ladies who helped care for mom. Sheri you were the first to meet mom, she was pleased with your care and friendship. Nancy Gina, and Cindy always so positive and honest with mom, it made a difference in all our lives. She really appreciated all of you as did the family. Our Church family: we can't express how important you were, you supplied spiritual, physical, emotional support so often. Mom enjoyed each visit from those who came, it was often the highlight of her day, staying connected to each one who visited and learning about your lives.

We are so blessed to live in such a wonderful community, our hearts are full of gratitude to be surrounded by such good people in the Dillon Community.

The families of: Becky and Tom Miller, Jim Pilon, Dan and Teresa Pilon

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks announced a new internal process and timeline for putting items in front of the Fish and Wildlife Commission and State Parks and Recreation Board. The new process will provide more transparency on when and how the public interacts with the department, board and commission as well as clarity on the role each plays.

"At times our commission and board process has been unclear for members, staff, and the public," said FWP Director Hank Worsech. "These process improvements will help clarify the role of the board and commission, as well as that of the department, which will make the process more transparent for the public."

The new process will involve FWP sending out proposals for public comment prior to bringing them to the commission or board. These proposals and the public comment collected will be considered by commissioners or board members several weeks prior to the official meeting.

If commissioners or board members have changes they'd like to see in the department's proposal, they will work with FWP legal staff to craft amendments. The original proposal, collected public comment, proposed amendments, and other relevant information will be posted online two weeks prior to the commission or board meeting where final action would be taken.

The commission and board will consider and make a final decision on department proposals to include commission and board amendments and public comment in one meeting; this is a change from current process where frequently the commission and board will approve items for public comment at one meeting and then consider comment and proposal amendments at a second meeting.

"We frequently get questions about what has been approved or what they are considering. The old process caused too much confusion," Worsech said. "With this new process, the department plays the primary role of bringing topics to the public and collecting comment. From that point on, the decision is really up to the commission or board."

The new process will be in place for the June 23 Fish and Wildlife Commission meeting and the May 12 and 13 State Parks Board meeting.

DMS News April 18-22, 2022

Here's the Dillon Middle School News for the week of April 18 - 22, 2022. We are still out of school today for our spring break. I hope everyone is enjoying a much-needed break.

The lunch menu for the week is as follows: tomorrow, Tuesday, we will enjoy spaghetti with garlic bread. Wednesday, we will have pork rib patties served with a potato. Then on Thursday, chicken strips will be served with mac and cheese. Friday, we will enjoy chili served with cinnamon rolls.

Last week, the track meet to Belgrade was cancelled due to heavy snow. Tuesday, track plans to go to Anaconda. The bus will depart at 10:30 AM, and the meet will begin at 1:00 PM. Additionally, track and field will host a track meet on Monday, April 25th at the BCHS track. The meet will begin at noon, and all are invited to come out and cheer on our tracksters.

Last month, the seventh and eighth grade band members went to Whitehall to participate in mass band. Several middle school bands gathered. They were treated to a day of participation with other bands, learning new things. The day ended with a performance that was attended by many parents and community members. Thank you, Mr. Lemieux, for giving our band members this awesome opportunity.

As spring rounds the bend and our last few weeks of school are at hand, students may be able to finally participate in a field trip or two. Please stay tuned for information coming home on these opportunities.

Likewise, in not too many weeks, our eighth-grade students will be promoted to the high school. The promotion ceremony will be the Tuesday evening after Memorial Day. Please keep listening for more details. Also, a celebration party is being planned by the eighth-grade parents. If you need to know the parent contact, please call the DMS office.

Teacher Appreciation Day is May 3rd. We will be appreciating our teachers that whole week of May second through the sixth. Student Council has some fun planned for our teachers that week. Parents and students, feel free to let your child's teachers know just how much you appreciate him or her.

The Beaverhead ACEs Task Force reminds parents no child is destined for an unsuccessful future IF they're given opportunities to build resilience...Develop self-esteem...Master a skill...Given choices...and learn to work as a team. Building resilience can be easy. Healthy families build strong, resilient communities.

Attorney General Knudsen joins lawsuit to keep Title 42 restrictions in place

Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen joined a lawsuit against the Biden administration today to block it from rescinding the Title 42 public health policy during the worst border crisis in decades. The lawsuit asks the court to move swiftly to keep the policy in place and prevent the influx of illegal border crossings that will result if it is lifted next month. A deepened crisis at the border would have a devastating impact across the country as states like Montana grapple with a surge of fentanyl and other illegal drugs.

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) announced earlier this month it will terminate the Title 42 policy that allows border officials to turn away migrants to prevent the spread of communicable diseases, like COVID-19, effective May 23. The policy has been in effect since March 2020. At the same time it is lifting these public health measures, the CDC announced it will also extend the federal mask mandate.

"Ending Title 42 in the midst of the ongoing border crisis is such a bad policy that even liberals like Beto O'Rourke and Jon Tester oppose it," Attorney General Knudsen said.

Terminating Title 42 will create an unprecedented surge at the southern border, and it will overwhelm law enforcement agencies and non-governmental organizations. The U.S. Department of Homeland Security estimates that terminating Title 42 could result in as many as 18,000 migrants per day - up to 540,000 in a single month - showing up at the southern border.

The lawsuit, which was filed last week by the attorneys general of Arizona, Louisiana, and Missouri asks a federal judge to force the Biden administration to keep Title 42 in place until it conducts the required notice and comment period required under the APA and adopts a policy that is not arbitrary and capricious.

In addition to Montana, new states joining the lawsuit are Alabama, Alaska, Arkansas, Georgia, Florida, Idaho, Kansas, Kentucky, Mississippi, Nebraska, Ohio, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Utah, West Virginia and Wyoming.
