Search and Rescue News

Submitted by: Mel Rice-Public Relations

Last Wednesday evening 10 members of the Beaverhead Search and Rescue served dinner to approximately 30 individuals at the monthly Elks stag night. Steak, french fries, beans, roll, and salad were on the menu. A fine evening was had by all. Members preparing the food, setting tables, and serving were Jennifer McKay, Tater McKay, Tera Remely, Lawrence Morrisroe, Trent Cottom, Kolby Malesich, Mel Rice, Brian DeMars, Zane Wood, and Tommy Goins.

Brian Demars was honored that night with a plaque for his 32 years of service to the S&R unit. He also claims he's been cooking steaks for that many years at the Search and Rescue sponsored Stag Night. When you see Brian out and about, please thank him for all his years of service.

SULTANS OF STRING

Dillon Concert Association's last performance for 2021-22 is SULTANS OF STRING on Tuesday, May 10, 2022, in UM-Western's Beier Auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Season sponsors are John A. and Elizabeth Garry, Lorraine King, Gary and Kerstin Lorenzen, and Richard and Dorothy Wheeler. Event sponsors are Craig and Carol Simonsen, The Den Restaurant, Toni and Karl Sullivan, and Mary Jo O'Rourke and George Johnston.

SULTANS OF STRING thrill their audiences with a genre hopping passport of Celtic reels, Spanish flamenco, Gypsy-Jazz, Arabic, Cuban, and Asian rhythms. It is a celebration of musical fusion and human creativity with warmth and virtuosity. Acoustic strings meet with electronic wizardry to create layers and depth of sound, while world rhythms excite audiences to their feet in an irresistible need to dance.

Attorney General Knudsen warns Montana ranchers of cattle feed scams

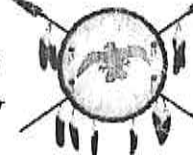

Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen is warning Montanans of a scams that could be impacting many Montana ranchers. One investigation is still ongoing, but the Office of Consumer Protection estimates that a Canadian company has stolen up to $5 million from Montanans after receiving payments but never delivering the promised product – and other criminals may be conducting similar scams.

The company, New Way Ag, promised grain hay, barley straw, and wheat straw at low prices to quickly make sales, collected payments, and then never delivered any product to their victims. To aid in the investigation, Montanans who made payments to New Way Ag should contact the Montana Office of Consumer Protection at 406-444-4500.

"Montana ranchers are facing headwinds as it is without being scammed by crooks looking to make a quick buck. Please report any suspected scams to our office so we can hold these criminals accountable," Attorney General Knudsen said.

Montanans can report any phone, email, or mail scams to the Montana Department of Justice's Office of Consumer Protection at <https://app.doj.mt.gov/OCPPortal/?q=node/396>, contactocp@mt.gov, or (406) 444-4500 or toll free at (800) 481-6896.

Last year, the Office of Consumer Protection fielded 945 scam complaints and successfully saved Montanans from losing more than $1.3 million, including $869,600 that was recovered for Montanans who were victimized by scammers and $465,579 in prevented loss for consumers who called inquiring about whether they were being scammed.

Barrus sentenced to three concurrent life sentences

Lloyd Barrus was sentenced to three concurrent life sentences in Montana State Prison for his role in the 2017 murder of Broadwater County Sheriff Deputy Mason Moore. Barrus was found guilty in September of three counts of deliberate homicide by accountability and two counts of attempted deliberate homicide.

Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen issued the following statement in response:

"Justice has been a long time coming for Lloyd Barrus after his responsibility in the murder of Deputy Mason Moore, a Montana hero. I'm proud of our DOJ prosecutors and the work they did alongside the Broadwater County Attorney's Office and our law enforcement partners."

Montana Department of Justice attorneys Dan Guzyski and Stephanie Robles prosecuted the case.

Veteran's Corner Update #150

By Mike Lawson

The veteran news of the new Veteran's (CBOC) Medical Center, is really the exciting update news. The Grand Opening on the 29th is right on schedule. The finishing work is quickly taking place inside of this facility. Most, if not all, the furniture is on site, ready to be brought from the storage area, into the completed CBOC building. This VA Medical Center will be a point of pride for SW MT, for years to come, and the benefits to our veterans in this part of Montana, will be top notch.

The Southwest Montana Veteran's Home is operating smoothly, in their mission of taking care of our resident veterans. Not any new information concerning the new walk-ways, but expect to hear more, within the next two or three weeks. Eduro is trying to get some nurses hired for Cottage #4, so please put the word out. Easter was a good day for our Vets, with Easter eggs and other fun activities, Teresa and her staff provided for them. Some requirements must be completed before anyone can participate in activities with the Resident Veterans.. These are State/VA/ CMM regulations that require background checks for new visitors, other than family at the SWMVH. To address this situation, two veterans, Frank Grady and Mick Ringsak started a program called "Visit A Veteran". Required background check at a cost of $89.00 had to be conducted. That cost would have to come out of the budget of the SWMVH. An inquiry was made to Sheriff, Ed Lester and he said they would look into doing the Background checks for the Vets Home at no cost!

Frank Grady will be the Volunteer Program Manager, and take the lead building a list of individuals who would like to participate in the program. Teresa and her staff, would coordinate the pairing of these Volunteer Activity Visitors and resident veteran activities. .

A number our Disabled Veterans in SW Mt have and need Caretakers. It most likely is a family member or friend. If you, as the caretaker, have questions or need help, please contact the "VA Support Line/Support Program" at 1-855-266-3274. When you call, ask for the local Caregiver Support Coordinator.

I've mentioned it before and will again. There are too many veterans committing suicide and it's devastating to both family and friends. If you know any of these veterans, who are struggling with depression or are talking of ending it all through suicide, please call the VA Crisis Line. The number is 1-800-273-8253. (Press 1) Text to 838255. If you can get them help and they get treatment, the statistics say, that most won't try it again.

Dillon Middle School News for April 25-29

The lunch menu for the week is as follows: Monday, we will enjoy chicken alfredo served with bread sticks. Tuesday, beef tacos will be served with refried beans. On Wednesday we will have grilled chicken sandwiches served with potatoes. Thursday, we will enjoy cheeseburger soup served with dinner rolls. And on Friday, pizza will be served with cheesy pinwheels and marinara sauce.

This past week in track, our meet to Anaconda was cancelled due to snow. However, today, we will have our home track meet. It will be held at the BCHS track, and will begin at noon. The meet is open to the public and all are welcome to come out and attend out track meet.

Testing is beginning this week. Students will start with ELA testing in their regular language arts classes. The following week, math testing will be done except for Mr. Jory's classes. They will test the week of May 10th.

Parents, please try to schedule any appointments for your child around our testing schedule. The testing window is very short, and each student must complete this testing.

Congratulations to Jayden Abbey and Sawyer Platt for winning the stock market challenge. Over 500 students across Montana's high schools and middle schools competed, investing in the stock market simulation over six weeks. Jayden and Sawyer came in second and each will receive $200. Great job guys.

Life can sometimes be hard. What's hard on adults is just as hard, if not more, on kids. Resilience, the ability to adapt to challenges, is the most important tool a parent can give a child. Learn more about resilience by joining the Beaverhead County ACEs Task Force. We're focused on building healthy families in our community.

Friends of the Jaycee Park Flag Pole

The Friends of the Jaycee Park are going to add a Flag Pole in the middle of Jaycee Park. This idea was brought up a couple years ago, but is now coming to a reality. We have a donor who is covering half of the approximate cost of $5,000 if we can raise the other $2500.

If you can help us raise a flag pole with a flag that will be lighted, please call Womack's Printing 683-4903 or drop a donation with them, or contact RayAnn Sutton, Jim Valach. We are looking forward to the new addition to go along with the new sidewalks and picnic shelter.

Donations towards the park are greatly appreciated and will be used to cover the extra shipping cost we are experiencing with gas prices what they are now.

UMW Fine Arts to Host Choral Concert & Vaudeville Show

Montana Western's Fine Arts Department presents the "Cantabileers" on April 26 and "The Knickerbockers' Theater of Titillation and Talent" on May 4.

The University of Montana Western's Cantabileers, a select choral group, will perform Tuesday, April 26, at 7:30 p.m. in the Beier Auditorium. Admission to the concert is free.

This small group has worked all semester to put together a fun and dynamic program to share with the community. As always, students have had the leadership roles every step of the way. They have chosen some interesting pieces, including familiar songs from well-known musicals as well as songs that will be new to most. Students have volunteered to conduct, and they collectively decided who sings the solos in the ensemble pieces. Additionally, several have chosen songs that they find particularly interesting or meaningful to sing as solos or duets.

Susie Steadman accompanies the group on the piano. For more information, please contact the group's director, Dr. Debbie Seacrest, at debbie.seacrest@umwestern.edu.

"The Knickerbockers' Wednesday, May 4, at 1:00 p.m. University's Small Auditorium main hall. (more information to follow.)
