Bulldogs Track continues to crush personal bests at Frontier Conference Championships

The Bulldog track team competed at the Frontier Conference Meet at Memorial Stadium in Great Falls the past two days.

Competition kicked off with Morgan Baseley making her debut in the 10,000m and placing sixth as she prepares for the half-marathon at the NAIA National Meet. Eireann O'Conner continued her streak of incredible performances as she placed second in the 1500m, running a 4:45.56 and with the altitude adjustment, she will meet the NAIA national standard.

Joe Lamb got the day started on the men's side by finishing third in the 1500m and nearly matching his PR with a time of 4:11.07. He has achieved three straight All-Conference awards at Frontier Meets. Jonathan Harrison claimed the title in the 800m with a new PR of 1:54.78 and if that was not enough, he placed second in the 400m with a PR of 49.94.

Liz Varner and Joe Lamb running the 5000m, both placed sixth in their respective races. The day concluded with the 4x400 relays, the women placed fourth and the men placed fifth.

The team will aim to recover and continue to train before they head to Missoula to compete in the Tom Gage Classic on May 7th.

New process announced for fishing regulations review cycle

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is taking a new approach to the fishing regulations review and development process. The new process will be simpler and allow the department to be more responsive to public input and resource needs.

The biggest change the public will see is that fishing regulations booklets will be printed only on odd-numbered years, with the next booklet ready by March 1, 2023, and valid through Feb. 28, 2025. The department's proposals for the 2023-2024 regulations will put out for public comment Aug. 26, and comment will be taken until Sept. 22. Final commission action will occur at the scheduled Oct. 20 meeting.

Portions of Ennis Fishing Access Site reopenedBoat ramp and main parking area are now publicly accessible
Several portions of Ennis Fishing Access Site are open again for public use.

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks staff worked diligently to clear debris and repair roads that were damaged by ice jams and flooding. The main entrance road, parking area and boat ramp are now open, in addition to a few camping sites by the riverbank.

The east loop road and east camping area are still closed but are expected to be open by May 4 after FWP staff can address hazard trees in that area, weather permitting.

Ennis Fishing Access Site is a half mile southeast of Ennis along the Madison River. The site's closure began in December when ice jams caused water, ice and debris to flow into the site. Recent weather has allowed FWP staff to make necessary repairs.

Federal Judge grants Knudsen request for TRO in Title 42 immigration lawsuit

Following a lawsuit brought by Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen and other state attorneys general, a federal judge has issued a temporary restraining order (TRO) that prevents the Biden administration from lifting the Title 42 policy that allows border officials to turn away migrants to prevent the spread of communicable diseases.

Attorney General Knudsen issued the following statement in response:

"Lifting Title 42 would overwhelm our Border Patrol agents – who are already being stretched thin because of President Biden's open border policies – and unleash even more drugs and resulting crime into communities in Montana and around the country. I'll keep fighting to make the Biden administration enforce the law and secure our border."

The attorneys general requested the TRO last Thursday. Click here to read about the lawsuit to keep the Title 42 public health restrictions in place.

Board Of Health Meeting Laid Back compared To Those Of The Last 2 Years

Jeremy Crawford

Southwestern Montana News

The Beaverhead County and City of Dillon held their monthly Board of Health meeting on Thursday, April 28th at the Commissioners' Room in the Beaverhead County Courthouse. Compared to those of the last two years, today's meeting was very laid back.

The meeting started with Sue Hansen Director of Beaverhead County health beginning with her report.

"As of now we have five active cases," Sue stated. "We could have more now with home test kits and those may not be getting reported."

She also talked about another death that was not reported as COVID making the total deaths in Beaverhead County she believed to be thirty total. It was a death that occurred in the person's home and after going through death certificates it qualified as a COVID death. They have had no hospitalizations due to COVID since February. Sue also reported they have an overabundance of home testing kits that will expire in July and they are not sure what to do with them.

The Beaverhead County Health Department has also hired two new employees, Jennifer Floch, MPH Disease Intervention

Specialist. They also hired Sarah Miller as a Public Health Nurse. Sarah will work one day a week for now then go full time later this year.

Joyce Pollastro, SIT gave the environmental health report. Restaurant inspections are now being done in person. The last two years they were being held over the phone due to COVID. The inspections are now being held in person at the restaurant. They will also be inspecting RV parks as well as licensed trailer parks, but they need to wait for the ground to thaw out more so the proper inspections can be done. She also stressed that if people have a vacation rental they need to get them registered and inspected with the county. Most websites that host these kinds of rentals do not check to see if they are registered and inspected with the counties and or states they are in.

Joyce has also issued 3 new food permits to new restaurants in the city. Congratulations to Dillon's newest businesses N&N Ice Cream, Delicious Cravings, and The Anglers Village.

Erin Montgomery, Tobacco Prevention specialist, talked about her work with the schools. She is mainly focused on vaping as it has become a problem. Most people look at it as a less dangerous alternative and older people are more likely to buy kids vaping products over traditional nicotine products.

For red ribbon week this year will choose a school in Beaverhead County and give out gift certificates.

The meeting ended with no public comment and scheduling the next meeting in Lima on July 22nd.

Friends of the Jaycee Park Flag Pole

The Friends of the Jaycee Park are going to add a Flag Pole in the middle of Jaycee Park. This idea was brought up a couple years ago, but is now coming to a reality.

We have a donor who is covering half of the approximate cost of $5,000 if we can raise the other $2500.

If you can help us raise a flag pole with a flag that will be lighted, please call Womack's Printing 683-4903 or drop a donation with them, or contact RayAnn Sutton, Jim Valach.

We are looking forward to the new addition to go along with the new sidewalks and picnic shelter. (WE HAVE RECEIVED $500 IN MEMORY OF AIR FORCE VETS.)

Donations towards the park are greatly appreciated and will be used to cover the extra shipping cost we are experiencing with gas prices what they are now.

Coffee Works has now set up a donation jar at their coffee stand if you would like to drive up and drop off a donation.
