Frances "Fran" Dee Moore

Frances "Fran" Dee Moore, With heavy hearts, we regret to share that Fran passed away on Thursday September 3rd, 2021. Thankfully, she passed away peacefully with her family and close friends at her side. She was a loving and cherished daughter, sister, mother, wife, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend to many, many people.

She is survived by her children, Don Moore, DeeDee Riley, Mike Moore and Janet Llach. Fran had a very large family between her four children, her sons & daughter-in-law's, 15 grandchildren, and 12 great-grandchildren.

She lived a full, beautiful life she was proud of and thankful for. Frances "Fran" Dee Moore was born on June 30, 1936, in Los Angeles, California to Sam and Clara Collette. In 1954 Fran married Don at 18 years old in Southern California. Their teenage love affair was truly a classic love story until the very end and one that will live on in everyone that was a part of it. In 1961 they moved their family to a small rural community called Rough & Ready in Northern California. They quickly established roots in the community through their Catholic faith and support of their children in school, sports, 4H and FFA. In 1983 they moved to Dillon, Montana and immediately became deeply ingrained in their new community. Fran and Don were known by everyone in the Dillion area and across Western Montana. Fran's family was always her number one priority- she lived and breathed through every single one of them every day of her life and was so proud of all of them.

Fran lost her husband of 66 years and the love of her life, Don, exactly one year ago to the day that she passed. Their passionate fire for one another burned until their last moments and even beyond Don's passing, for Fran. Fran loved and treated Papa Don like a king, and he reciprocated with a lifetime commitment of love, dedication, and admiration. Fran was the matriarch and foundation for her very large and growing family. She had a legendary and timeless beauty that only enhanced with age. She quietly provided the base of strength and guidance they all benefited from over her many years. She loved her husband and family so deeply and they were so proud of the family they had created together. Her cooking was something she poured her heart and soul into and something that brought her cherished family together. Our mother and grandmother Fran Moore will be so deeply missed by her family, her church, the Dillon community, as well as the many long-time friends whose hearts she touched everywhere she went. Though we selfishly wanted her to stay, we know she is at peace with Don getting to watch over her beautiful family with the love of her life. May God bless and keep you, Fran. We love you always. Services are planned for May 6th @ 3:00PM at St. Rose.

Vibrant Lives Offer Scholarships

We have received generous donations from United Way of Beaverhead County and from community members so we can offer scholarships to those who need assistance.

Vibrant Lives of Montana (212 E. Bannack St.) is a non-profit yoga healing center focusing on, in addition to yoga and meditation classes, offering classes and events which help support the mental and emotional health of our community. All workshops and classes are geared toward offering students ways to manage and support their mental health and to re-regulate their nervous systems…and, to provide a support system, fellowship, and community (which are all known to benefit our mental health.)

All classes are by suggested donation—students choose what they pay. Regular classes have a suggested donation of $7-10. Most of our multi-week classes cost around $100 but, again, scholarships are generously and discreetly provided to those who request them. ## Jackson History Meeting

Dennis Havig organized a Jackson History Meeting on Sunday, May 1, at the Mormon Church in Jackson. He opened the meeting with the history of the Valley from the Louisiana Purchase , fur traders, Lewis and Clark and post offices.

Speakers were John Jackson telling history of the Antone and Herman (Jacobsen) Jackson coming to the Big Hole in 1884. The town of Jackson was named after them. He told of the way of life and how they moved several times before settling on the home ranch.

Sandra Lapham next told of the Hiram and Anna Lapham family coming to the Big Hole in June of 1883 and settled in the Briston District, where they built a cabin and Hiram, Dan Tovey and Daddy Stevens built the log school house that still stands. In 1891 they moved to the upper valley and later settled on ranches around the town of Jackson, building a hotel.

John Dooling spoke of his family, John and Dorothea Dooling coming to the Big Hole and the building of the Daimond Bar Inn in 1950, now known as the Jackson Hot Springs Lodge.

Jim Boetticher told of his Dad when he came in the 1920's and his grandparents, the John Hutchins the building of the VFW Club and a relative that was in the Battle of the Big Hole in 1877.

Ruth Nelson Little shared 5 generation pictures of her family in the Big Hole and shared family stories. She later gave a Cemetery Walk, telling stories about burials there.

THANK YOU

"The family of Carma Tyler would like to thank the Beaverhead County community for the outpouring of well wishes and donations. We are deeply humbled and extremely grateful for the support. Carma's benefit was overwhelming, emotional, and just plain amazing. The money raised will go far in the way of bills, but it will also bring some peace of mind. We are part of a spectacular community filled with kindness! Thank you all so much."

FWP seeks comments on trumpeter swan project renewal

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is seeking public comments on a proposal to renew a project to reintroduce trumpeter swans to the Madison Valley through 2026.

Swans have been relocated as part of this restoration project since 2012. FWP staff propose extending relocation efforts for an additional five years for the project to be successful.

The proposed action is modeled after a successful trumpeter swan reintroduction program in the Blackfoot Valley of Montana, as well as similar projects in Montana, Oregon, Idaho and Wyoming.

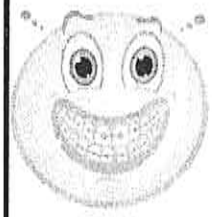

FWP has published an environmental assessment on the project that can be found online at go.usa.gov/xumpr. The public comment period for this proposal runs until 5 p.m. on May 19. Comments can be sent by email to cgower@mt.gov with "Trumpeter swan project" in the subject line, or mailed to:

Clark Canyon Recreational Fee Changes

Reclamation will change the fees for full-service camping at Clark Canyon Recreational Vehicle Park over the next few recreation seasons. Full-service camping fees for the 2022 recreation season will remain the same at $30 per day and $150 per week, but the monthly option will be eliminated.

Daily fees for the 2023 recreation season will remain the same at $30 per day, but weekly rates will increase to $200 per week. Season long camping is prohibited and violates Reclamation's Code of Federal Regulation 43 CFR Part 423.33 14-day stay limit.

"Modifications to the length of stay are needed to be consistent with existing CFRs and changing recreation demands, said Ryan Newman, Montana Area Office Manager. "Our goal is to provide the best recreation experience for locals as well as visiting outdoor enthusiasts with the limited resources available to us."

The RV Park boat ramp will remain open and free to the recreating public during the recreation season. All other Clark Canyon campgrounds will remain free of charge, open on a first come - first served basis, and will continue to be limited to 14-day stay limits.

For information, contact the Clark Canyon Field Office at 406-683-6472 or visit Reclamation's website at https://www.usbr.gov/gp/mtao.
