DeEsta (Dee) Wellborn "Grandma Down at Grant"

June 4, 1935-May 4, 2022

DeEsta was born in Idaho Falls and moved to Shoup Idaho in 1940 where she spent her childhood on the banks of the Salmon River with her siblings Bob, Judy Ann, and Karen. They would ride the cable trolley across the river every day to go to school.

DeEsta's dad owned a café and bar in Armstead, and as a teenager she would ride the train from Idaho to visit him there. She met her husband Ned on one of her visits to Armstead and they married in 1952. They were married for 65 years until Ned's passing in 2017.

Ned and Dee built their home in Grant soon after they were married and they raised their 2 daughters Judy and Esther there. They made their living in Horseprairie logging, hunting, and ranching. DeEsta also worked for many years as a Nurse's Aide in the 1980's at the Dillon Hospital.

DeEsta was known for her love of animals, especially cats, and for her beautiful seamstress work of table runners and blankets. She had many close, lifelong friends and will be greatly missed by them and her family.

DeEsta is survived by her siblings Bob and Judy Ann; her daughters Judy (Kevin) and Esther (Fred); 4 grandchildren Vince (Cheryl), Travis (Paula), Paula (Ryan), and Charlotte; 8 great-grandchildren; and 4 great-great grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to the Dillon Animal Shelter or a charity of your choice.

John William "Johnny Bill" Rieber

John William "Johnny Bill" Rieber, 72, of Glen, Montana, passed away May 5, 2022 at Barrett Hospital and Healthcare in Dillon, surrounded by his family.

He was born April 10, 1950 in Butte, to John C. and Rosemary G. (Bourn) Rieber, just hours after his grandmother passed away.

John attended Reichle School and Beaverhead County High School, graduating in 1968.

He enlisted in the Army National Guard in October 1968 and was stationed for a time in Fort Knox, Kentucky. John was honorably discharged in 1976.

He later went to Western Montana College in Dillon.

In 1976 he was set up on a blind date, who stood him up. He later agreed to another try and met Michele "Mick" Loshesky, whom he married on October 9, 1976. They settled on the ranch in Glen and had three children: Chris, born in 1978; Cory, born in 1979 and Jan, born at home in 1982.

John served on the Reichle School Board as trustee and as chairman, during which time his kids attended; during the same time the school burned down and was rebuilt.

He was president of the Southwest Montana Stockmen's Association and a member of Southwest Montana Marketing Association, through which he shipped cattle to Columbus, Nebraska since 1982. He traveled there each fall to oversee the feeding and care of his livestock and to watch the sale. It was his annual "vacation" and looked forward to it each year.

He loved ranching but also enjoyed hunting and fishing. He often recalled that the coldest he'd ever been was in Kentucky and always said that of any place he'd been, Glen, Montana and his ranch was his favorite.

He was a family man who loved and supported his wife, children, and grandchildren. He enjoyed the music of Marty Robbins and the Statler Brothers. He was a man who wore many hats but was most proud to wear his Rieber Ranch hat.

He was preceded in death by his parents John C. and Rosemary Rieber; father-in-law and mother-in-law Mike and Jean Loshesky and brothers-in-law John Maki and Frank Stanchfield.

He is survived by his wife, Mick; sons Chris (Holly) Rieber and Cory (Amy) Rieber; daughter Jan (Ray Fliehman); grandchildren Parker, Reagan and Kristian Rieber; Matthew Fliehman and honorary grandson Lane Wuelfing-Poirier; sisters Rosemary (Richard) Wenger, Regina Maki, and Edith Stanchfield; numerous nieces, nephews and many treasured friends.

A visitation will be held Friday, May 13, 2022 at 1 pm at Brundage Funeral Home in Dillon. The funeral service will begin at 2 pm, with burial to follow at Mountain View Cemetery. A reception will be held afterward at Glen Bar.

NEPA Changes Signal Return to Outdated, Cumbersome Regulations

American Farm Bureau Federation President Zippy Duvall commented on the final phase 1 revisions to the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA).

"AFBF is disappointed that the Biden administration has decided to reverse commonsense reforms to the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA). Farmers and ranchers share the goal of caring for the natural resources they've been entrusted with and were pleased that the updated 2020 regulations allowed them to protect the environment while meeting the demands of a growing nation," Duvall said.

Montana Farm Bureau President Cyndi Johnson added, "This is a step back for Montana's farmers and ranchers who are very concerned about water quality and doing what's right for the environment. Farmers and ranchers need rules they can understand without having a team of lawyers to decipher them. This reversal takes us back to those days and it's sure to slow down the process of growing food for our nation."

Duvall echoed Johnson's concerns. "Continued challenges from the pandemic, supply chain issues and the drought in the West are impacting farmers, ranchers and the American public in the form of increased food and fuel prices. The situation will now be made worse by the return to a slow and cumbersome NEPA review process that, in many cases, takes years to complete. We urge the administration to stop moving backward and keep focused on working with farmers and ranchers to advance sound, science-based and practical conservation goals that protect our resources while creating opportunities for agriculture as well as every sector of the economy."

Lady Beavs Softball

Lady Beavs beat the visiting Vigilantes 15-10 on Saturday in a game that included sun, rain, hail, wind and snow. It was a back and forth contest until the Beavs took the lead for good in the bottom of the 5th inning.

The Lady Beavs tallied 11 hits on the day, and were lead by freshman Kinzy Creighton who went 3 for 4 with a double, a 2-run homer over right center field in the 2nd inning, and an inside the park homerun in the 5th. Freshman, Tyler Gibson went 2 for 4. And senior, Abby Brevig went 2 for 4. Lexy Johnston, Abby Johnston, and Adyson Creighton each contributed to the team's hitting effort with 2 RBI's a piece.

Adyson Creighton started and finished on the mound and tallied 5 strikeouts in 5 total innings. Tyler Gibson and Katey Vezina added some relief and added 1 and 3 strikeouts respectively.

We had way too many errors in the field that we need to clean up.. and we will.. and I am super confident we are going to end the season strong. We've got 6 games in the next 5 days which includes 2 conference games and the Laverne Combo tourament in Butte over the weekend. These next 2 weeks are going to fly by!

Veteran's Corner. Update #153

By Mike Lawson

The latest on the SW MT Veteran's home is all about the socialization of our resident veterans and the communities/ families/friends/volunteer's involvement with them. These veterans served their country in wartime and in peace. They deserve to be treated with dignity and respect and know that people care. Some things for any of you who want to be involved, is to become a volunteer, who will make the effort to visit these vets and get to know them and possibly, take them to lunch. You who are family members, this is really important and is a real spirit lifter. Once you become a volunteer and get your background check, you will be known by the staff and can come in on a regular basis.

Something Eduro and the SW MT Foundation need to think about, is another wheelchair assessable van. Many of these veterans are in wheelchairs and the logistics of transportation can be very challenging. The Veteran's Foundation at the Veteran's Home in Columbia Falls were able to raise the money to purchase a van for that Vet Home. Having enough vans that could transport more than one wheelchair would work well in getting these vets out to go to any number of activities.

In the Montana Standard Sunday's paper, one of the nurses nominated for the TOP Nurses award, works at our SW MT Veteran's Home. Her name is Mary Immel. I was especially impressed with her expressing that she witnesses how dignity, grace and aging can coexist. Her talking to decorated veterans who embody humility, is a testament to who she is. Thank-you for your caring of our resident veterans and congratulations on your nomination for the Top Nurses nomination, Mary.

Not a lot of Veteran activity going on this week in SW MT . Tom Straugh, my go to veteran in Dillon, reported no new news. Veteran Larry Spangburg from Deer Lodge, said things were quiet there also, but on May 14th their Veteran Honor Guard will honor the Law Enforcement Ceremony at the old prison courtyard. In Butte the American Legion Post and Auxiliary, had their annual Poppy Drive with members stationed at various grocery stores and at the Mayfair event, at the Civic Center. The big event coming up is Memorial Day on May 30th.

For any of us who are receiving VA Disability, it's encouraging to hear that those rates are going to be increased by 5.9 percent, because of the high rate of inflation that has skyrocketed this past year.

Another bit of interesting Veteran news is that for the first time ever the US Mint is releasing coins honoring Purple Heart Recipients. I'm looking forward to seeing these coins.

Letter to the Editor

If you missed meeting Dr. Al Olszewski, the Republican Candidate for U.S. Congress last Friday, you missed a man of extensive, researched knowledge of the current topics and all issues.

Raised in a large family in central Montana, he embodies the moral and ethical values of the people of our state. Being a surgeon in the military and after his service he cares deeply about his patients and our people and their wellbeing. He will not be one to use his position as a stepping stone for higher gain. He exhibits uncommon energy, courage and mental capacity.

I urge your vote for him in the upcoming Primary Election.

Nancy Johnson
