Beaverhead Marathon

Jeremy Crawford

Southwestern Montana News

Saturday May 14th was the 5th annual Beaverhead Marathon, hosted by the Montana Running Company. The annual marathon draws runners from across the United States as they take in the views the valley has to offer. The full marathon starts at the Horse Prairie Campground at Clark Canyon reservoir and follows the Beaverhead River towards Dillon.

The half marathon starts at the turn to the old Montauqua bottling facility, follows the Beaverhead River to Barrett's Park then runners take the old stage road towards town. Both marathons finish at the Beaverhead brewing Company.

This year's runners had cloudy skies and a nice cool temperature to help keep them from getting overheated. The results of this year's race are as follows:

Female-Beaverhead Marathon

1. Claire Sirmon 3:34:24
2. Hannah Wright 4:32:57
3. Michelle Freeman 5:17:35

Male- Beaverhead Marathon

AG Knudsen announces Law Enforcement Appreciation Poster Contest winner

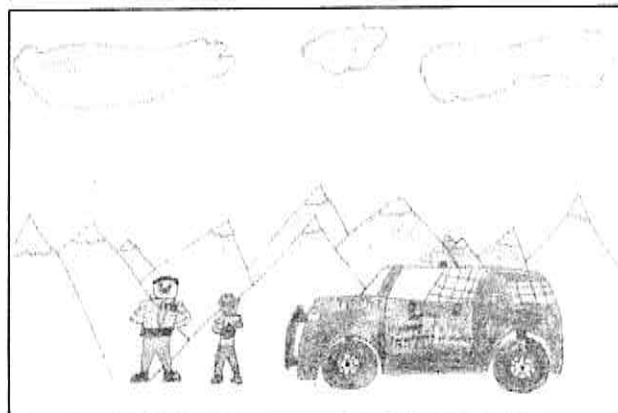

Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen announced Charlie Heitzman, of Lewistown, the winner of the inaugural Law Enforcement Appreciation Poster Contest. Heitzman is a third-grade student at Highland Park Elementary School.

The winning poster shows Charlie with his uncle, Montana Highway Patrol Trooper Calvin Jimmerson, and his patrol car. Charlie said he is proud of his uncle "because he keeps highways safe."

"It is great to see our youngest citizens show appreciation for Montana's law enforcement officers through their art and writing," Attorney General Knudsen said.

Attorney General Knudsen and MHP Colonel Steve Lavin will celebrate with Charlie and his class later this month and the winning poster will be displayed in MHP offices and made available to law enforcement offices across the state. In addition to the statewide winner, seven regional winners were chosen who will receive an ice cream social delivered by local troopers. The winners were from all eight MHP districts.

The poster contest was a partnership between the Montana Department of Justice and the Montana Sheriffs and Peace Officers Association.

Our father lived to ninety-seven, then he passed away.

But before he died, he told us, "Buy a lottery today."

He said, "Who knows and maybe I can set you up to win."

We figured he was dying, wasn't making sense again.

My grandma taught me, "Never gamble, it's the devil's sin."

And then she said, "The chances are you're never gonna win."

So, I placed the bottom rail and nailed it to the pasture fence.

And thought I'd get some breakfast if I had a lick of sense.

I drove on down to Elk Creek, grabbed a bite while on the run, the same old breakfast Diet Coke and Hostess Cinnabon.

And right there on the counter was a ticket you might scratch.

So, I gave the clerk a Five and hoped some of the numbers match.

I realized my chance to win was scarce as rooster's teeth.

But when I scratched the card, a nice surprise lay underneath.

Two hundred dollars waiting to collect and then to spend.

I gathered up my plunder, but this story doesn't end.

So, I drove down to the valley, looking for a dozen posts. But instead, I bought a ticket. Scratched two hundred. Dared I boast?

My winning was coincidence or call it plain dumb luck.

And to think my good dad helped me, well, I'd be a stupid cluck.

So, I'd spent ten dollars, but I'd made four hundred in return.

Yet grandma's words of never winning caused me some concern.

So I bought 12 posts, one roll of wire then headed up the hill.

But my brain was yelling back at me, "Four-hundred-dollar-bill."

I gave into temptation, stopped at Jack's convenience store.

I grabbed a Coke and Twinkie and I needed one thing more.

I snatched the ticket, paid my Five and started in to scratch.

Then lined up two like numbers, a two-hundred-dollar match.

That day I won six hundred. Grandma are you listening in?

I wouldn't mind just mentioning. At rare times you can win.

Gambling up in heaven we all know to be absurd.

But I'd have to say and once again my dad has kept his word.

LADY BEAVS SOFTBALL

The Lady Beavs softball team competed in the Laverne Combo tournament in Butte on Friday and Saturday. Friday's weather was some of the worst we have played in thus far. It rained, sleeted and snowed and the wind was relentless the entire day. We lost our first one on Friday to Billings Central 1-11. In our next game we dominated the Custer County Cowgirls 17-3. In that game the Lady Beavs tallied 9 hits.

Tyler Gibson lead the team in that game going 3 for 3 and she drove in 4 runs. Kinzy Creighton went 2 for 3 with 3 RBI's and one of her hits was a homerun (her 7th of the year) WAY over the center field fence!

Saturday we started the morning off with a loss to Libby 3-11. We managed only 3 hits, 2 of which came from Abby Brevig. Abby went 2 for 2 including a solo homer over right. Tyler Gibson had the only other hit in that game.

In the final game of the tourney the Beavs faced Polson with a skeleton crew. We lost a couple of key players to family commitments so we used the opportunity to play girls in different positions. Abby Brevig went 1 for 2 with an RBI. Adyson Creighton was 1 for 2 with a sky ball homerun over left.

Adyson pitched the majority of the innings, and threw very well. Her changeup was very effective and she had 14 strikeouts. Tyler Gibson and Katey Vezina came in for relief in each of the games and also threw well. Their pitch speeds and styles are so different that hitters often have a hard time adjusting. For this reason we try to utilize multiple pitchers in our games.
