ARMED FORCES DAY THIRD SATURDAY IN MAY

Armed Forces Day is a day to honor Americans currently serving in the five branches of the U.S. military as well as the National Guard and Reserve units. Led by the effort of President Harry S. Truman to establish a single day for Americans to thank the nation's military members for their service to our country, Armed Forces Day was created on August 31, 1949, following the unification of the armed forces under the U.S. Department of Defense. First observed on May 20, 1950, the day was designed to replace separate Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force and Coast Guard Days, but the separate days are still observed, particularly within their respective services.

A Night Befitting the Brave

Jeremy Crawford

Southwestern Montana News

On Saturday, May 14, 2022, military personnel, along with friends, family, and honored guests, gathered for a night of camaraderie, tradition, and tribute to honor those who have served our country and those still serving our nation. The Southwest Montana Military "Dine Out" was started ten years ago by Montana Youth Challenge Academy Director Lieutenant Colonel Trent Gibson, Montana National Guard, and local business owner Ron Carroll, Montana National Guard retiree.

The Dine Out is a tradition, uniting influences from all military branches to showcase those who have served our country, those who are still serving, and the traditions entwined in their joined companionship.

The main difference between a Dine In versus a Dine Out for military occasions is that guests are welcomed in the latter, allowing the soldier's family and friends to attend this esteemed function. This way, the civilians can participate in the military atmosphere, while getting a taste of the stricter lifestyle.

The event kicked off with the President and Vice President explaining the rules and reverence of what you were about to experience. Though the ceremony allowed for fun and chatter, the expectations from the script could be seen as rigid and everyone was expected to follow along. In that sense, civilians would get a taste of the military lifestyle.

One special moment was The Tribute to the Fallen Ceremony, where those who have paid the ultimate sacrifice for one's service were honored. A table was set with various items, each holding a special significance to those who have served. To the naked eye, this somber moment enlightened and set a special stage that civilians could marvel at from a distance.

For lighter entertainment, the infamous Grog Bowl was introduced. The Grog legend dates back to the times of King Arthur, which has since been adapted to fit the military branches. The Grog contains many items, each one representing a place in time to pay respect to what the military has accomplished, where those who serve have come from, and what they stand for. After all the items have been added, the Grog is then enchanted, and the master of the grog performs the duties assigned to them. This year's lucky recipient of that title was Ben Stewart.

Once the symbolic ingredients were added, the Grog was prepared and tested, and a night of dining and storytelling was had by all those in attendance. If you broke the rules of the mess, you had to pay respect to the Grog. Or if the President or Vice President believed you were not living up to the rules and expectations of the Dine Out, you also could be required to salute the Grog.

Following dinner, Gerald Penn of the Elks gave a quick history lesson of how the Elks were formed and what the mission of the Elks Lodge was. He stated, "We have around 60 guests this year for this experience. The Elks will continue to work with Trent, and next year we want to see 100 people in the Lodge. We want to work to pack the Lodge, that is what we are here for, that is what we do."

SWMT News would like to thank Ron Carroll for the invitation to attend this ceremony. It was a night that my wife and I were honored to be invited to and will never forget. Thank you to all those who have served and are serving our country.

The Dillon Lions Club Thanks You

The Dillon Lions Club would like to thank the community of Dillon and surrounding areas for purchasing a large number of fresh lobsters! The Lions use the money made from this sale to help fund our local service projects and activities. For those that had the Lions cook their lobsters, we appreciate your patience with our decision to cook them a We want to express our appreciation to Womack's Printing Place and the KDBM KBEV Radio Station here in Dillon for their excellent help in getting the word out about the fundraiser. Speaking of the local radio station, thanks to Lee Pelletier for again letting us use his trailer to haul the many boxes of lobsters from the Bozeman Airport back to Dillon.

We're very grateful to Vigilante Electric Co-Op who once again graciously allowed the club the use of their Dillon facility as the site from which club members could distribute the lobsters and cook them for those who requested. They also served as one of the two businesses where community members could go to pick up their order forms.

Thanks go to Precision Eye Care and Optical for their help in making the order forms available as well as collecting the money for the lobsters.

And finally, we're grateful to Rena Janssen and Liz Garry for volunteering several hours of their personal time to help the Lions Club track, cook, and distribute lobsters on Saturday, May 14.

UMW Alumna Wins Rural Teacher of the Year

Cooke City School educator, Lara Belice, was named the 2022 Montana Rural Teacher of the Year this spring at the Montana Association of County School Superintendents award ceremony in Lewistown, Montana.

Story by Scott Schindldecker of The Livingston Enterprise, republished with permission, with additional information provided by Lara Belice.

Belice is the lead teacher at Cooke City School, where she has taught for four years.

The one-room school, located 4 miles from the northeast entrance to Yellowstone National Park, serves the K-8 school-age children in the remote mountain community, comprising roughly 100 year-round residents.

Park Co. Superintendent of Schools, Mollie Waldum, nominated Lara Belice for her dedication to the school and exceptional performance.

Belice is a San Diego native who attended the University of California at Davis. She then started a landscaping business and won three California awards and 16 San Diego County awards for her work. The business grew to include 35 full-time employees.

Belice then moved to the Big Hole Valley in Montana in 2005. In 2014, while traveling in rural China, Belice taught English to Tibetan children at the Waritan Welfare Orphanage School. This experience proved to be life-changing as Belice, upon her return from China, enrolled in the elementary education program at the University of Montana Western in Dillon. She earned her bachelor's degree in 2017 in elementary education K-8 with a literacy minor in K-12.

While in college, Belice did teaching practicums, precursors to student teaching, at Arlee High School on the Flathead Reservation, at Heart Butte Elementary on the Blackfeet Reservation, and at Hawthorne Elementary School in Missoula.

Belice began teaching in the Cooke City school in 2018. For the first three years, she was the only staff member. Enrollment is up at the school, which used to serve four or five students. It now has eight, three with special needs.

Along with a cash prize, Belice will be attending the National Rural Education Association conference in Green Bay, Wisconsin this fall and will also participate in the National Rural Teacher of the Year competition.
