Beaverhead Trails Coalition

Once again, we sure could use your help!

Beaverhead Trails Coalition has a chance to purchase 40 acres which will finally make a connection from our Northwest corner to BLM land just ½ mile away. With this connection, runners, bicyclists, and hikers will be able to continue on to abundant public lands just north of us. We have a buy-sell agreement with the willing landowner and have submitted a grant application to the Montana Fish & Wildlife Conservation Trust, who has helped us purchase much of the land that is now public land and trails, on the hills just west of town.

As part of this grant application, there is a comment period for people to voice their support of this project. Please take a moment to send a comment in support of this grant application to acquire a "land bridge" connection to vast public lands to the north and west.

Comments should be sent to the Montana Fish and Wildlife Conservation Trust via deb@mtoutdoorlegacy.org or fwctrust@mtoutdoorlegacy.org, or mailed to the Board at PO Box 1993 Helena, MT 59624.

COMMENTS MUST BE RECEIVED BY JUNE 6, 2022.

Montana Notary Conference: Secretary Jacobsen thanks attendees, Sidney's Strouf named Notary of the Year

Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen thanked attendees – presenters, sponsors, and Montana notaries – for attending the Montana Secretary of State Office's 2022 Montana Notary Conference this week at the Best Western Premier Helena Great Northern Hotel.

Secretary Jacobsen opened the conference Thursday afternoon, welcoming nearly 300 Montana notaries, 20 presenters from across the country, and dozens of sponsors of the event. This year's conference brought record attendance.

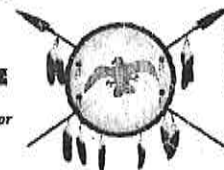

"Being a Montana Notary Public is important, and the work you do across our state is significant for so many," Secretary Jacobsen told attendees. "Your dedication, experience, and impartiality make you qualified to serve in this important role. You're clearly passionate about your craft and committed to furthering your expertise. A sincere thank you to each of you for being here and for all of the great work you do."

The two-day conference focused on a variety of educational topics, including journaling, notarial acts, and Remote Online Notarization (RON). Montana has been recognized as a leader in the technological advancements in the notary world, including the introduction and implementation of RON. During the pandemic, RON became essential for businesses and individuals alike, and many Montana notaries were on the front lines of this exciting alternative to traditional notarization.

The Secretary of State's Office was also proud to announce the 2022 Montana Notary of the Year. Sidney's Kristi Strouf was named the recipient of the honor during a banquet Thursday evening.

Strouf has been a Montana Notary Public since 2016, originally obtaining her commission to notarize documents for her employer but quickly realizing it offered the opportunity to assist others. For the past two years, Strouf's main focus has been on real estate loan closings. She began offering RON services in early 2021 and was part of the pilot program to implement RON for notarizing Montana motor vehicles. Strouf completed nearly 4,000 notarizations in the past year while remaining active in the Sidney community, coaching T-ball and raising funds for local schools and medical facilities.

"Kristi epitomizes what it means to be a Montana Notary Public," added Lori Hamm, the Montana Secretary of State Office's Notary Administrator. "She is a member of several notary associations and social media groups and has begun mentoring other notaries. Congratulations on a well-deserved honor."

Applications for elk hunting access agreements due June 1

Landowners have until June 1 to apply for elk hunting access (EHA) agreements. Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks' EHA agreements provide landowners with an elk license, permit or combination thereof in exchange for allowing free public elk hunting access. These permits and licenses are valid only on the landowner's property.

EHA agreements were codified in Montana statute in 2001. The agreements were known as "454 agreements" reflecting the bill number of the original legislation. The statute was amended several times in the past 20 years, including during the 2021 session.

In general, EHA agreements allow landowners to receive an elk permit or license in exchange for allowing three public hunters on their property. One of the hunters is selected by the landowner from the list of successful permit or Elk B License applicants for the hunting district where the property is located. The other two hunters are selected by FWP from the same lists depending on the opportunities outlined in the agreement.

Application and details on how to apply are located online at fwp.mt.gov/hunt/landownerprograms/public-elk-access-agreements.

The Fish and Wildlife Commission will approve 2022 EHA agreements at their June 23 meeting. The applications proposed for approval will be posted online two weeks prior to the meeting and the commission will take public comments on the applications at its meeting.

Applications must be complete to be considered. For questions, call your local FWP office or contact the FWP Parks and Outdoor Recreation Division, 406-444-3750, LndSportRelations@mt.gov.

Federal Judge Grants Knudsen Request for Preliminary Injunction in Title 42 Immigration Lawsuit

A federal judge granted Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen's request for a preliminary injunction in his case with other state attorneys general to prevent the Biden administration from lifting Title 42 immigration restrictions in place.

"Border Patrol agents are already overwhelmed with the crisis at the border and lifting Title 42 would have made it even worse, resulting in more illicit drugs coming across the border and crime increases across the nation – including right here in Montana. President Biden must secure the border and I won't stop fighting his dangerous border policies until he does," Attorney General Knudsen said.

Veteran's Corner Update #155

By Mike Lawson

Greetings to those of you who read my SW MT veteran update articles. Living on the East Ridge, allows me to view the Pintler Peaks, to the west, every morning as I'm having breakfast. It's encouraging to see these beautiful snow covered peaks as that means our rivers/lakes/creeks/etc., will not be depleted of water, any time soon. I read that our last few snow storms actually brought Montana's snowpacks up to 100% of normal. Hopefully the melting will be gradual throughout the summer.

The Veteran events this past week started with the 100th Anniversary of the Fort Harrison Hospital, to the west of Helena. The SW MT Veteran Council Honor Guard were privileged to Post the Colors, Sound Assembly and be the Honor Guard for this event. Sen Tester, Sen Daines, Rep Rosendale, and a number of dignitaries from the VA, spoke at this commemoration. It was attended by a crowd of about 200 people, who braved the wind and cold on that Friday morning. The speeches were enlightening, concerning the history, the many healthcare options, the dedicated caregivers and it's reason for existing these last 100 years. That reason is/was to care for our veterans who have served our country and need the mental/physical care after getting discharged. It was a great event.

The new Butte VA CBOC is seeing a lot of veterans and is being well received by all concerned. I myself have a couple of appointments there in the next couple of weeks and am looking forward to receiving my primary health care at this new VA facility in Butte. In talking with Wayne Paffhausen, it was interesting to hear that the VA have the drawings completed for the uncompleted north end of the building. He's hoping that they can get the green light to start that construction by at least this fall. He said they are doing a few finishing touches, like installing ceiling mounted patient lifts in some of the exam rooms. The main thing we're hearing, is the staff is happy to be working in this state of the art medical facility.

The SW MT Vet Home, just down the road to the south, is taking great care of our resident veterans, being cared for there. One of the nurses said the ratio of nurses to veterans, is phenomenal and the overhead patient lifts are a great thing for them, when a resident veteran has to be lifted. Eduro hired a new nurse and are seeking to hire more staff, as Cottage #4 is scheduled to open on June 6th, which is a Monday. It looks like it will begin with just 6 veteran's being admitted and as more staff are hired, more will be admitted. If you know of anyone who is looking for this type of work, please send them to our SW MT Vet Home.

Memorial Day will be this coming Monday and the time "before, during and after" will be a busy time for many of our veterans. They will be putting thousands of flags on all the deceased veteran's graves, in our five local Butte cemeteries, as well as the cemeteries in Anaconda, Deerlodge, Dillon, Whitehall, Twin-Bridges, Sheridan, Virginia City and throughout Montana. Many community members have helped the veterans do this over the years. It's very much appreciated by the veterans in getting this help. Most of our communities will be having a Memorial Day Ceremony, so look for them and plan on attending if you can.

Veteran Tom Straugh, from Dillon, reported that the veteran's leadership meeting for the American Legion will be on the 25th at 1900 at the post. Memorial Day planning and Flag placing will be an important part of this meeting. All veterans are encouraged to attend as your input/help is needed and welcome.

It's encouraging to see the improving veteran healthcare in Montana. Seven new VA CBOC clinics have been opened across our state in the last 2 years. The newest one being our Butte CBOC in SW Montana, as well as the new ones in Bozeman and Missoula, just here in western Montana. If any of you veteran readers are not signed into the VA healthcare system, I would encourage you to consider it.

Wishing you all a great Memorial Day weekend. Until next time, take care.

Closed Monday, May 30th for Memorial Day, and will be open on Tuesday May 31st.
