Beaverhead Search and Rescue News

Submitted by: Mel Rice-Public Relations

On Wednesday, May 22, around 9:30 a.m. the Beaverhead Search and Rescue was called out for a missing individual. A 36 year old gentleman from Michigan was reported missing by his brother, also from Michigan and his aunt in Stevensville, MT. The lost individual was staying with the aunt and had gone out for the day, May 21, to put trail cameras out in the Harrison Lake, Harrison Peak area. When he hadn't returned to his aunt's home the next morning, Beaverhead County Sheriff was notified via the Ravalli County Sheriff's department that we may have a lost individual in Beaverhead County.

According to information from the parties involved, the lost individual left Anaconda at 2:45 p.m. on the 21st heading for the Big Hole Valley and then to Big Hole Pass. At 6:30 p.m. that evening his cell phone was pinged at a location around the Big Hole Battle Field. On the morning of the 22nd three hasty teams were sent to the upper Grasshopper/Big Hole divide area to see if a vehicle might be located. No vehicle was located. Around mid-afternoon the missing party called in to report he was in good shape and that he had become stuck in a snowbank at the head of Trail Creek trying to get back to Hwy 93 in the Bitterroot Valley. The hasty teams were returned to Dillon and all was well.

Please remember there is still a lot of snow in some of the higher elevations and there is still that possibility of getting stuck. Make sure you have the proper equipment and be prepared for the worst scenario. Enjoy our great outdoors, "In the Business of Saving Lives", your Beaverhead County Search and Rescue...

My Grand Kids

Bryce Angell

My grandkids are my pride and joy. They're growing up too fast.

Their presence touches my old heart. I wish this time could last.

As each was born into our clan, more proud, I couldn't be. I hoped they'd grow up good and kind and want to be like me.

I grew up as a cowboy and rode horses every day. It's what my family did for work and what we did for play.

But our sons' professions moved our grandkids to the city way. Ya gotta make a living and there weren't much I could say.

And when they'd come to visit, I'd still teach the life I know-A man who loves the outdoors and a saddlehorse to go.

But when I put them on my horse their eyes grew wide with fear.

They tried it just to please me, but they made their feelings clear.

I've watched them bounce a basketball, play soccer all day long. But a cowboy hat they will not wear. Each says it just feels wrong.

The other day one told me he thinks golfing's kinda cool. Do I have the nerve to tell him? We call it pasture pool.

His dad bought him some new golf clubs. My grandson's joy was loud. When I see him golfing with his dad, I couldn't be more proud.

I'll learn to swing a club, I guess, if that's what it will take. I've swung an ax for sixty years and that's a piece of cake.

I understand that cowboy boots are taboo on the green. And me in yellow golfing shorts? That might be called obscene.

'Cuz my legs are old and show the wear of a grandpa's golden years.

And 'bout as white as Casper ghost, you'd laugh almost to tears.

Do any cowboys play this game? Some prob'ly do somewhere, but I think I've talked myself right out of golfing anywhere.

Could they use a golf cart driver? I'd sit behind the wheel. Just to be there near my grandkids, for me would be ideal.

But no matter if they're far away and with the golfing crowd, my grandkids are the world to me. I couldn't be more proud.

Proposed Resurfacing Project on Interstate 15 Near Dillon

The Montana Department of Transportation (MDT) would like to announce and invite the public to comment on a proposal to resurface about 11 miles of Interstate 15 (I 15), north of Dillon. The project begins near the North Dillon Interchange, and extends north for 11 miles ending near the Apex Interchange.

Proposed work includes milling the existing surface, applying a new overlay, and finishing with a seal and cover (chip seal), upgraded pavement markings, signage, and guardrail. The purpose of the project is to extend the service life of the highway, provide additional skid resistance and take a cost-effective action to preserve and maintain the existing highway.

The project is tentatively scheduled for construction in 2023, depending on completion of all project development activities and availability of funding. No new Right-of-Way or utility relocations will be needed.

An important part of properly planning for future projects is partnering with the community. The Montana Department of Transportation welcomes the public to provide ideas and comments on the proposed project. Comments may be submitted online at <http://www.mdt.mt.gov/contact/comment-form.aspx> or in writing to Montana Department of Transportation, Butte office at PO Box 3068, Butte, MT 59702-3068. Please note that comments are for project UPN 10005000.

The public is encouraged to contact Butte District Preconstruction Engineer Dave Gates at (406) 494-9636 or Project Design Engineer Joe Walsh at (406) 494-9622.

Alternative accessible formats of this document will be provided on request. Persons who need an alternative format should contact the Office of Civil Rights, Department of Transportation, 2701 Prospect Avenue, PO Box 201001, Helena, MT 59620. Telephone 406-444-5416 or Montana Relay Service at 711.

Cubs Lose Early lead To Fall 5 To 7 Against Mission Valley Mariners

Jeremy Crawford

Southwestern Montana News

The game started early Saturday afternoon at Ray Lynch Park as baseball fans hoped an early start would help beat the rain. The Dillon Cubs came out of the second inning with a 5 to 0 lead over the Mariners as the game progressed, they were unable to get the win as the Mariners held the Cubs at 5 and went on to score 7 taking a 7 to 5 win over the Cubs. Game two just wasn't in the books as lightning and rain delayed the game before they called it due to weather conditions.

Youth "Red Carpet Video Project"

Beaverhead County young filmmakers walked an actual red-carpet Saturday as their short videos, targeting healthy, drug-free youth, premiered at Big Sky Cinema in Dillon, part of the second annual Beaverhead County Red Carpet Video Project. The Be the Change 406 Coalition, which targets reducing underage substance use, sponsored the event.

Videos, created on cell phones and laptops, took on Hollywood proportions when shown to an admiring audience of the filmmakers, parents, and interested community members. Six student teams from Beaverhead County High School, Dillon Middle School, and the Lima School District created and directed their individualized interpretation of the Red Ribbon Week theme: "Drug Free Looks Like Me."

BCHS "Beavers" team" juniors and twin sisters Jo and Co Niglio, took home the top prize of $1,000 for their haunting, thought-provoking anima submission. The winning Middle School TEM Time team of DMS sixth graders, Marissah Stoddard, Madison Sampson, and Tilly Kreiner used humor and an original rap song to make their video stand out and receive $500. Red carpet video judges considered content, originality, videography interest, clarity, and the use of references and credits for each submission.

The local Red Carpet event is the brain child of BTC406 Executive Board member Andrea Schurg who works closely with the Youth Coalition and is the Project AWARE coordinator for Dillon Elementary School District #10. Schurg wanted to inspire and empower youth to find their natural high and develop the skills and courage to live healthy drug free lives. "These videos show remarkable creativity and innovation in reinforcing the theme of "Drug Free Looks Like Me"" she said.

Big Sky Cinema manager Stan Smith welcomed future filmmakers to the "big screen" premiere of their videos, encouraged their efforts, and told the audience these shorts will soon be a part of every movie showing's opening "trailer" in the Dillon cinema.

Other competition contenders included submittals from the eighth grade Lima Bears team: Kalen Martinell, Luke Wendt, and Gus Huntsman. Dillon Middle School contenders are all seventh-grade teams: Dino-Mites - Milee Vezina, Bailey Blake, and Cameron Delaney; Drug Free Looks Like Us - Sophie Nelson, Violet Rhodes, Winona Wagoner, and Zoey Mickelson; and Rap Schoolers - Aven Pflieger and Jordyn Martinez.

Filmmakers, their families, and friends walked an actual red carpet, adorned with large helium balloons, and posed in front of a Hollywood stylized backdrop for their "paparazzi"

— like photos before settling into their theater seats. Each team's video generated a round of applause and shouted encouragement from the audience.

Dennis Schurg of Edward Jones, Big Sky Cinemas, and the Beaverhead DUI Task Force co-sponsored the event.
