Ross family organizes 10 TroyStrong Red Cross blood drives across Montana in June

Five years ago, Troy Ross was in a hospital bed in Seattle battling for his life. Today, the Great Falls 7-year-old is back to being a kid again – scoring touchdowns, hitting home runs, catching fish and camping with his family. "There are tears of joy in our household right now," Troy's dad Wes said. "We are fully in remission, which we never thought we would see in our wildest dreams."

Diagnosed with a rare immune disease, Troy was airlifted to the Seattle Children's Hospital in 2017. Over the course of the next month, three-quarters of his blood supply had to be replaced – blood available because of the generosity of blood donors.

To say thanks and pay it forward for other families going through similar struggles, Troy's family is helping organize Red Cross blood drives across Montana later this month. This marks the fifth consecutive year the Ross family has helped coordinate drives, which have grown from seven last year to 10 this summer. Wes, who has coached football at Cascade, Great Falls High and Great Falls Central Catholic, said their family has seen an outpouring of support from all corners of the state, especially from the Montana football community. "I'm just honored and blessed that a little boy can inspire so much good for this world," Wes said. "The support we receive is so humbling and just truly a testimony of what good things can happen when good people focus on the positive and helping the next person in need."

This year, the TroyStrong blood drives in Dillon will be:

- June 29 – Dillon, 10 a.m.-2:30 p.m., University of Montana-Western Swysgood Technology Center, 710 S. Atlantic St., sponsor code TROYSTRONG

Schedule an appointment to donate at this blood drive by visiting RedCrossBlood.org and entering the sponsor code YROTSTRONG or call 800-RED-CROSS (800-733-2767). A blood donation takes less than an hour and can save up to three lives.

Troy, who will celebrate his eighth birthday this month, just finished first grade and is looking forward to a summer full of football camps and fun with his family. He hasn't needed treatment since December, and in late February had his port removed – a red-letter day for the Ross family. Wes said they would have never made it to this point without lifesaving blood being available when Troy desperately needed it. "I wish I could go back in time and personally meet those people who saved my son's life," Wes said. "I'm forever in debt."

DOUG BELL (MSO-58)

By "Swede" Troedsson (MSO -59)

In the April, 2021 issue of the Smokejumper Quarterly magazine, I noticed a photo of Doug Bell in front of his car. This bought back fond memories of Doug.

In 1958, at the Missoula smokejumper base, I trained with Doug. Doug, was (ahem) a unique individual from Oklahoma. He had a two door coupe on which he fashioned a custom top luggage rack. The rack was constructed of two by fours bolted into the side of the car. Additional two by fours completed the rack. In the rack were several well worn replacement tires, and some "rat-holed" C-Rations to sustain him on his weekend ventures.

On weekends when he was not jumping on fires, Doug quite often would motor up to Glacier National Park to chase the gorgeous female summer employees. On Saturday nights the Park would host a dance in their main hotel. Sometimes the car would break down, so Doug would have to bum a ride back to the disabled car with a repair part.

Doug wore bib overalls. In his shirt pocket he carried a pet white-footed deer mouse. Sometimes, when in conversation with Doug, the mouse would stick its nose out of his pocket, and after a few twitches of its whiskers, would retreat back into Doug's pocket.

Doug was always full of entertaining conversation. One morning at the breakfast table Doug was silent. When questioned why he was so quiet, Doug sadly replied that during his sleep the previous night he had rolled over onto his mouse, killing it.

Veteran's Corner Update#156

By Mike Lawson

Greeting to all of you who read my SW MT Veteran update articles. I don't ever remember having such a long drenching rain, like we had last week. My brother went to Basin on Sunday and he said there was 4 inches of slush going across Elk Park. The Highlands, being at a higher elevation, got another big dump of snow and look spectacular, with their beautiful snow covered peaks. We live in a beautiful part of the country here in Southwest Montana.

The past 4 days of last week, I was attending the "Montana Disabled American Veteran's Convention" in Great Falls. It was a great convention in the renewing of veteran friendships as well as making new friends. It was also a gathering of good information on the many programs that the DAV sponsors. The DAV Van program, being one of those programs, is not only operating throughout Montana but all across America. A bit of history is that it began right here in Montana, by a group of veterans who were using their own personal vehicles to get veterans to their VA medical appointments. It then was adopted by the DAV and is today's incredible DAV VAN Transportation system across all of the United States. Having driven these vans going into my 17th year, it's been a time of getting these veterans to their medical appointments and developing many warm friendships, with these men and women veterans. Many have said if it wasn't for our vans getting them to their VA medical appointments, they would have died, as they had no way to get to these appointments on their own. Some interesting Montana DAV Van statistics for just the first 5 months of 2022 alone are as follows: 58 drivers in western Montana versus 25 drivers in Eastern Montana; Montana Vans have driven 79,989 miles; volunteer drivers drove 7,482 hrs; 1,741 veterans have been taken to their appointments by these DAV Vans. These stats are just for January through May of this year, which is impressive. Drivers are always needed, if any of you think this would be a good thing to volunteer for, please call Darlene Allen at 406-490-3692.

Ceremony at Stodden Park was about 200 people attending and went very well. Most folks were able to be inside the Amphitheater. Our Congressional Delegate Representatives spoke as did Chief Executive JP Gallagher and Sheriff Ed Lester. The keynote speaker was Navy Veteran Eileen Grebs who is a retired Lt Commander Navy nurse. She did an excellent job and "Women Veterans" were a major theme of her speech. After the close of this ceremony, the Honor Guard went to 4 of the area cemeteries and did a short ceremony, with the Ladies' Auxiliaries laying a wreath at each of the Veteran plots, located within each of those Cemeteries. We then went to our SW MT Veteran's Home and did a flag folding ceremony in three of the Cottages. This was followed by going to "The Springs" retirement home to do this same flag ceremony. It was a long day, but Honoring our deceased and older Veterans was rewarding for those of us who had the honor of paying this tribute to/for them.

WWII was a war that our fathers/grandfathers/great grandfathers fought and served in. June 6th is in remembrance of D-Day when our Allies stormed the beaches code-named Omaha/Utah/Gold/Juno/Sword, which were on the shores of mainland Europe. They met heavy German resistance but were successful in the end. The Americans killed in action were about 2,000, with the other Allies losing another estimated 2,000, with thousands more wounded in action. Freedom has never been free and should never be taken for granted, as many paid the price that allows us to live and sleep in our relatively peaceful country. Our friend, Ukraine, is fighting for their freedom at this very moment. They need our prayers and we as a nation must never take what we have, for granted.

The SW MT Vet Home will hopefully have opened Cottage #4 when this Veteran's Corner article comes out this Wednesday. Remember that volunteers are needed to interact with these resident veterans on a weekly basis and if you might want to do this, get a background check application from the Community Center Office. I have just turned mine in and expect to be contacted relatively soon, to get this volunteer journey started.
