Ryan Cody Hamilton

With heavy hearts we announce the passing of Ryan Cody Hamilton.

Ryan was born February 13, 1984 in Hamilton, MT to Steve and Theresa Hamilton. Ryan suddenly passed away on June 7, 2022 at the age of 38.

Ryan went to grade school in Corvallis, Ennis, Boulder, and graduated from Twin Bridges, MT in 2002. He then continued his education in ranch management in Havre, MT for four years, where he was in Football for a year and Rodeo for all four.

Ryan was born with dirt under his feet, a cowboy hat on his head, and a rope in his hand. He participated in football and basketball, but the arena is where he truly found his calling. As much as Ryan loved to rope, he found that it meant more to save the cowboys coming off the backs of some pretty rank bulls. He fought for numerous NRA Stock contractors across the state of Montana. We honestly don't think there was an arena he was not in. As folks from all over saw him fight with passion, heart, and faith, Ryan was then asked to fight in Canada and for Chad Burger for the PBR. Ryan also won the honor of NRA Bull Fighter of the year several years in a row.

During this time Ryan enjoyed ranching, roping, anything horse back, and loved everything about hunting. There honestly was not an outdoor activity that Ryan did not participate in, because he also enjoyed golfing with his friends and participating in dart games and tournaments.

Although he was mainly raised in Twin Bridges, MT, he fell in love with Townsend MT, and the community. Ryan

Three Stoned Hikers

Bryce Angell

We reached the river just in time. We'd almost lost daylight.

The horses were tired from packing gear. The cowboys welcomed night. Old Mose, the cook, pulled out some steaks, then peeled the spuds to fry. He sliced up all the onions, and I swear he didn't cry. The smell of all that campfire grub was floating down the trail.

Three hungry hikers smelled the food and showed up mighty frail. They had some food they said they'd trade. Mose said, "Let's take a look." Each had a bag of fruits and nuts. Not much, to our trail cook. Mose fixed a plate for each of them. They gobbled down their meal, then ate their berries, fruits and nuts. It all seemed so surreal.

We asked the hikers, "Are you lost?" They said, "We're not real sure. We haven't found our campsite for a day or even more."

The boss stepped up and said, "You're lost. You'll stay here for the night. Tomorrow after breakfast we'll get you headed right."

That night we sat around the fire and listened to them talk.

The hikers said they'd smoked some weed, then set out for a walk. They said that they were following a light up in the sky. One cowboy said, "I'm not surprised. You were stoned and feeling high."

We threw some blankets at the boys, then turned in for the night.

The full moon kept his watch on us. The stars were shining bright. Sometime, just after midnight, I heard one hiker scream.

I wondered what the problem was and hoped I'd had a dream. I crawled on out, then muttered, "For goodness sakes, now what!"

I saw one hiker taking air, then landing on his butt. They tried to steal old Applejack, a pack horse you can't ride.

He'd pack your gear and never shy. But ride him? Suicide! By now the show had drawn a crowd. The cowboys cheered them on.

Three hikers all lay on the ground. Their luck had come and gone. They never even said goodbye, just set out on a run.

It sure was nice of those three boys to show us all that fun. The hikers seemed to disappear. We asked of everyone.

But the night with those three clueless dudes has yet to be outdone.

Jacobsen celebrates successful 2022 Primary Election

Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen thanked Montana voters, state and local election officials, and candidates for a successful 2022 Primary Election.

Our office has heard positive feedback from candidates, voters, and election officials, while also visiting with Montanans at the polls, said Secretary Jacobsen.

With 100 percent of precincts reporting, voter turnout reached 291,581 – the most ever in a midterm primary election in Montana. The state's turnout percentage was the second highest in a midterm primary election over the past 24 years. Missoula County, for example, saw its highest turnout percentage since 1994.

The Sagebrush and Snowdrifts 4-H News

By Secret Petersen

The Sagebrush and Snowdrifts 4-H Club had their meeting on June, 6, at 7:00 p.m. at the Search and Rescue building. After pledges and attendance, reports were given on old business. John Weldon reported on our club helping with the Bannack clean-up May 8th. John Weldon, Liam Marlowe, Eve and Gavin Wilson, and Secret Petersen helped wash windows and sweep out buildings. We also had extra help from family members not in 4-H which made it a lot more fun. Secret Petersen reported that she and Sage McKnight were the only club members that helped with the Veteran's Dinner at the Elks on May 14th. Each received $98 for helping. Jacob Weldon, in his Treasurer's report, said the club was given $300 for helping with the Shriner's Oyster Feed.

Mrs. Weldon asked about the 4-H animal weigh-in held June 2nd. We talked about what happened at weigh-ins and how are animals acted and how much they different animals weighed.

Milo Root, Bannack Recreation Director asked if our club would like to do a bake sale in the Rayburn House during Bannack Days since the Methodist ladies were not going to be able to do it this year. We voted not to do it this year because we have a lot of other commitments for the summer.

Snacks were served after the meeting and everyone helped clean up before leaving.

Our next meeting will be July, 11, at 6:00 p.m. at the Vigilante Park for a fun day. We will be having pizza. We will not be having our meeting on the first Monday of July because it will be the 4th of July.

Events at Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park

June 17 through 20

On Friday, June 17, the park will welcome Bill and Marti Cook. The Cooks are bear awareness instructors, and their presentation will include everything recreationists need to know about being safe while exploring bear country. They will also be available for questions throughout the day. This presentation will begin at 8 p.m. in the campground amphitheater.

On Saturday, June 18, Caverns park ranger Ramona Radonich will offer a presentation of night sky constellations and tell stories behind the stars visible in the night sky. Among the wonders visitors will meet is a star that turned on the lights to open the 1933 Chicago World's Fair, as well as the famous "double-double". This presentation will begin at 8 p.m. in the campground amphitheater.

On Monday, June 20, Caverns park ranger Ramona Radonich will present a free guided hike entitled, "Treerific Trees!". Trees grow just about everywhere in the world, but not all trees grow in every place. Participants will meet the trees that reside at Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park and learn why these particular trees and not others are growing there, and what adaptations make them "treerific." This program will begin at 9 a.m. at the Main Visitor Center and will include a hike to identify and collect data on trees in the area until 11 a.m.

Planning your visit

Ranger Ramona never cancels a program. If visitors come, she will do the program. If the weather is bad, she will simply move the program to a sheltered area. For evening programs, notification of a change in location due to weather will be posted on the signboard at the amphitheater entrance 30 minutes before the program starts.
