Give your old eye glasses a second life!

The Dillon Lions Club will be at the Farmer's Market on Saturday June 25th. We will be accepting donations of old unwanted eye glasses. Your donated eye glasses are recycled and are used to support Lions Club International's vision programs in other countries.

The Lions Club is passionate about our vision screening program. Experts say that roughly 80 percent of what a child learns in school is information that is presented visually. It has been noted that children with vision difficulties typically do not complain. For these reasons, we, the Lions Club of Dillon, Montana, screen students in Dillon as well as all Beaverhead County rural schools. The club screens students in the fall as the school year begins. We also screen the Montana Youth Challenge Cadets at the beginning of each session, (3 times a year). Our club's members volunteer their efforts and travel many miles throughout the county to provide this vision service.

The club may offer assistance in purchasing eye glasses and eye examinations.

If your child has had their eyes checked, stop by and say Thank You, to a Lion.

Notice of Annual County Transportation Meeting

The Beaverhead County School's Annual transportation committee will meet at 10 am on Wednesday, July 20, 2022 in the commissioners' Room of the Beaverhead County Courthouse. The purpose of the meeting is to approve, disapprove, or adjust bus routes and isolated individual contracts for the 2022-2023 school year.

LIVE MUSIC ON JUNE 18 AT BANNACK STATE PARK

BLM campgrounds, recreation areas temporarily closed due to flooding

Due to recent extreme weather and unprecedented flood levels in the region, the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) has temporarily closed the following:

- Ruby Creek Campground (south of Ennis, MT)
- Carbella Campground (north of Yellowstone National Park)
- Sundance Lodge Recreation Area (just outside Laurel, MT)
- Howrey Island Recreation Area (near Hysham in Treasure County)

Subsequently, we are advising the public to stay off the water until flows subside to a safe condition, including BLM boat launch sites.

The BLM South Dakota Field Office in Belle Fourche remains open after encountering a recent hailstorm causing damage to multiple structures and vehicles.

Emergency closures are in effect until further notice. Please refer to your local emergency services for the latest information on any closures, notices or potential evacuation orders.

Restrictions, closures in place at several FWP sites due to flooding

Check FWP website for closure details

Flooding is impacting many areas of the state prompting Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks to close or restrict access at several sites in southwest and northwest Montana.

"Right now, our focus is on keeping people safe and helping out with emergency operations where we can," said FWP Director Hank Worsch. "We'll open sites and ease restrictions as soon as it's safe to do so."

On Monday, after working closely with Park County officials, FWP closed the upper stretch of the Yellowstone River to all recreational use. On Tuesday, the closure from Springdale Bridge Fishing Access Site (FAS) upstream to the Yellowstone National Park boundary was still in effect. Most of the fishing access sites downstream of Springdale Bridge to the confluence with the Bighorn River are closed to motorized access.

Additionally, several fishing access sites on tributaries to the Yellowstone River in that area are either closed or access is restricted.

In northwest Montana, flooding on the Flathead River has prompted the closure of Old Steel Bridge FAS in Evergreen and restricted access to the Pressentine FAS and Kokanee Bend FAS. Access may be limited at additional public sites in the area as river levels rise.

"It's critical that people take these closures seriously," Worsch said. "This is no time to be taking risks around these rivers. Our staff will continue to work closely with local officials and emergency responders to help keep the public safe."

FWP provides a complete list of restrictions and closures online.

unprofessional. Hopefully this will be rectified quickly at the highest levels so we can get veterans admitted that are on the waiting list and under the VA Healthcare system. Cottage #5's news is encouraging in that all the resident rooms have been sanded as well as the central common area. The common area has the carpet laid and the material for the resident rooms is expected to arrive by next week. That flooring should be installed shortly thereafter. Once it's installed, all the furniture is back in the rooms and the final cleaning is completed, then it'll be ready for the Medicaid/Medicare/VA inspections. Remember this is a memory care cottage that is a secure unit for those veterans needing this type of care. My hope is, it will see the admittance of patients by the end of the summer. The covered walk-way bids have been submitted by the contractors, to the state. It's a waiting game to see who is awarded the bid for this project. I'll let you know as soon as I know.

Down the road at the new VA CBOC medical center, things are very busy as a lot of veterans are going to their appointments there. The staff are very friendly and professional and our veterans are glad to come there. I had a hearing test which was the most thorough and comprehensive one I've ever had and I've had many hearing tests in the last 20 years. Just a great place to go.

This past week saw Veterans from the Marine Corps League and the VFW, from Butte, do their Coffee Stop Fundraisers at the Anaconda and Feely Hill Rest Stops. The United Veteran's Council Honor Guard did the Ceremony honoring the miners killed at the Speculator Mine Disaster in 1917, on Saturday.

Veteran Tom Straugh, down Dillon way, reported that the VFW/American Legion Honor Guard did the last salute to a fallen veteran at Lima.Mt. He said, as we all do, that it's an honor to help families recognize their veteran loved one. The VFW meets monthly on the 2nd Wednesday and the American Legion will not meet again until September. Plans are in the works for Labor Day and working on the American Legion Campground in Wisdom.

I'll close for now and wish you all well. Until next time, take care.

The wind was blowing at Ray Lynch Park and the cubs played through it with a double header against the Belgrade Bandits. Although they lost both games watching the Cubs play, you could see how they have grown so far this season. They were more focused and worked well as a team, cheering one another on and giving it their all. (Southwestern MT News)
