Brooklyn Jean Duroche

July 10, 2022 - July 10, 2022

Brooklyn Jean Duroche was born July 10, 2022 at 5:06 AM, weighing 6 pounds and was 20 inches long. She came into this world perfect only knowing her family's unconditional love for her. She is in heaven now serving as an angel to spread such love and protection to all of our friends and family.

Brooklyn's time on earth was short but her time in heaven is infinite and we will feel her presences and guardianship forever.

Brooklyn had her mommy's nose and long toes and her daddy's long arms and legs. Like her Dad, her spirit is large and tall. Like her Mom her heart and compassion is unending. She had long curly hair, a family trait, and an honor to her Mom's passion as a cosmetologist.

She is survived by Mother Katelyn Verlanic and Father Alex Duroche. Two fur siblings: Griffen and Noel. Three aunts: McKenzie, Gracie, and Ali Verlanic. Three honorary aunts: Melissa Baker, Whitni Moore, and Taylor Balmer. Honorary uncles: Brendon Juden, Ben Christiaens, and Bobbie Mitchell. Maternal Glam-ma Amy Verlanic and Papa Bear Nick Barney. Great Maternal Grandparents: Cathy and Bob Eccleston. Grandfather Bud Verlanic. Paternal Great Grandma Ruth Leverett, Grandma Cinthia Leverett Duroche. She joins her Aunt Ashley Sullivan in heaven. Her extended families include the Verlanic's, the Daily's, the Schalk's, and the Eccleston's.

She was born and passed at the Dillon hospital and the family is grateful for the outstanding service and amazing humanity the doctors and nurses provided.

Memorial Services and a luncheon for those touched by her life will be held at Meagan Park in Eccleston Bay at Georgetown Lake on Monday July 18, 2022 at 11:00 a.m.

A private burial will take place after the services.

Duroche Benefit

Brooklyn Jean Duroche was born July 10th, to the most loving family. Unfortunately, heaven needed her a lot sooner than anyone would have ever imagined.

Katelyn and Alex could use some support at this trying time.

Helping with the financial burden of hospital bills and other expenses for sweet baby Brooklyn will allow them the time to grieve and heal their hearts.

There is also a donation account set up at Stockman Bank (Dillon), if you prefer to help that way.

loved him refused to say anything. This resulted in the banishment of the youngest while the eldest two split the kingdom. The eldest daughters turn on their father leaving him without a place to stay and struggling in a storm. At this point, Lear is going mad with rage from the way he has been treated by his daughters.

Meanwhile, the younger son concocts a plan to show that his elder brother is untrustworthy and has plans to kill their father and take over his inheritance. On the run, the elder brother disguises himself and befriends the King. With a plan between the youngest daughter and the King to take back the kingdom, there is misplaced trust that results in their capture and order of execution. As with any Shakespearian tragedy, a series of deaths ends the play as others are left with the weight of the tragedy.

In the summer of 1973, Montana Shakespeare in the Parks opened for their first season. At the time the company was comprised of students and community members under the direction of Dr. Bruce Jacobsen. The first season featured 13 performances in 7 Montana communities.

Today, Montana Shakespeare in the Parks has become a mainstay of Montana summers, catering to the entire state of Montana in addition to regional performances in North Dakota, Idaho, Wyoming, and Washington.

Montana Shakespeare in the Parks continues to operate with the mission to "engage and enrich both rural and underserved communities with professional productions of Shakespeare and other classics and, through educational outreach, to inspire creative expression and appreciation of the arts in young audiences."

For more information, and to see Montana Shakespeare in the Parks' complete touring schedule, please visit https://shakespeareintheparks.org.

Montana Western's School of Outreach has brought Montana Shakespeare in the Parks to the Dillon community since 1986 and is a local sponsor of the event. We would like to thank our premier local sponsor, Pioneer Federal Savings & Loan, and our additional local sponsors: McIsaac Appraisal, Quality Inn of Dillon, and the UMW Foundation. For more information, please contact Bethanie Wharton by calling 406-683-7308 or email bethanie.wharton@umwestern.edu.

Section of Yellowstone River near Livingston closed due to bridge damage

Due to an imminent safety concern, Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is closing the Yellowstone River from the Mayor's Landing Fishing Access Site (FAS) to Sheep Mountain FAS, which is about an 8-mile stretch of the river and includes the Highway 89 Bridge FAS.

Mayor's Landing FAS will remain open for take-out access for river users, and Sheep Mountain will remain open for launching.

FWP is working closely with the Montana Department of Transportation, which reports the railway bridge near U.S. Highway 89 that crosses the Yellowstone River east of Livingston is dangerously close to falling into the water.

The closure will remain in effect until the safety issues are resolved. For all restrictions and closures, look at the FWP website.

Veteran's Corner Update #161

By Mike Lawson

Greeting to those of you who read my SW MT Veteran update articles. We went to the yearly Anaconda "Art in the Park" event. There were lots of food-venders and along the walkways/paths of this beautiful park, were canopy tent booths with folks selling all types of craft items. They also had bands playing music. I had a gyro sandwich and a huckleberry ice cream cone, to start everything out right, of course. It's nice to visit one of our sister cities and experience a bit of their culture.

The Honor Guards across SW MT and probably the state are doing a lot of funerals, as I mentioned before. We did three of them this past week here in Butte. It's always gratifying in knowing we had a part in the final resting place ceremony and to know we're doing the right thing when the families express their appreciation for our being there. We all need veterans to join our Honor Guards, especially younger veterans to take our older veteran's places when they can't do it anymore. If you're a veteran and reading this, please contact a Honor Guard representative in your area and volunteer to be part of this special group, who are there for the final act for these deceased veterans and their loved ones.

Many of our loved one's, that have now passed on, were service men and women who served in the military during WWII in Europe or the South Pacific. My Dad was one of those who was in the Iwo Jima Island battle. It was especially heartfelt in reading Sunday's Montana Standard, about the plaque found in the basement of the old St Lawrence O'Toole Catholic Church in Walkerville, Mt.. The stories that were associated with some of these names, brought long forgotten memories to their relatives of today. Some of these veterans never made it home as they lost their lives serving our country in far away war zones. Others did make it back, like my Dad, and raised families in a free land because of their fellow veteran's and their service to defend the freedom we enjoy. The old saying that freedom isn't free is as true today as it was then. This restored plaque, with these veteran's names, is now preserved and protected in the Butte-Silver Bow Archives. It was also special in seeing the women veterans who were included in this plaque's list of WWII veterans. We sometimes forget that they too loved their country and served with distinction. In each of your communities, there are probably some type of memorials of veterans who served in WWII or other military conflicts. If these are being preserved in some way that our citizens can see and appreciate them, your communities are on top of things. If not, please get these memorial items to a museum, archive or other place where they can be cleaned up/restored for our future generations to see. We have what we have because of the sacrifice of so many. That 10% of our population who served in the military and continue to serve, for the majority of our population, ask nothing less than to be respected and remembered for their service.

Our veterans who have recently gotten out of the military or will do so soon, will be in transition mode and figuring out what direction they want to go , now that they are now civilians. I would encourage any of them to check in with the unemployment office in their communities and ask to see the Veteran's Representative. These representatives are, usually, veterans themselves and are set up to help veterans find work or get into programs that will help them become qualified for work the individual Veteran might be interested in. The other crucial thing that every veteran should be encouraged to do, is get enrolled in the VA. The VA also has many, many programs that help veterans go to school or apprenticeships, etc.. The healthcare is second to none, in my opinion. Some key numbers to contact are as follows : Job Service Butte (Shannon Ray) 406-494-0313, Veteran's Crisis Line - 1-800-273-8255, Homeless Veteran Resources: 1877-424-3838, Whitehouse House VA Hotline, (unsure of who to call)- 1-800-MyVA411 (800-698-2411.

With our temperatures on the rise, the fire danger will increase. Many of you will be camping and enjoying our great outdoors. Make sure your camp fires are contained and completely put out when you leave your campsite. Some people have been suffering heat stroke, so please keep your head covered during the hottest part of the day. Enjoy your summer in this great part of the country we live in. Until next time, take care.

THANK YOU, DILLON JAYCEES!

We would like to thank the hardworking Dillon Jaycees for the wonderful tribute to our loved one, Mike Marsh. Mike loved being part of the Jaycees and most especially the demo derby. We know he was there in spirit riding along with his best friend, "Red" Morast, on their final escapade together.
The plaques presented to us were so special. Words cannot express our gratitude in honoring Mike.
