Attorney General Knudsen statement on Biden administration's bison grazing permit approval

In response to the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) final decision granting the American Prairie Reserve a permit change to allow bison grazing in Phillips County, Montana's Attorney General Austin Knudsen issued the following statement:

"After shutting out public input from local communities, it's not a surprise that President Biden's Bureau of Land Management would rubber-stamp this radical proposal that is another step toward displacing northeast Montana's livestock industry and replacing it with a large outdoor zoo. My office is reviewing the decision closely to determine our next steps to protect ranchers and ensure the State's interests are upheld."

Attorney General Knudsen held a public listening session in Malta, Montana last year to hear from local agriculturalists the BLM effectively ignored and shutout from the public comment process. More than 250 Montanans came to the meeting.

After hearing from people in the affected community, Attorney General Knudsen submitted formal comments to the BLM opposing American Prairie's grazing permit change request spelling out multiple legal issues with the BLM's inadequate review process and the proposal itself.

Attorney General Knudsen sues
Biden administration to stop unlawful firearm regulations

Attorney General Austin Knudsen and 16 other state attorneys general joined a lawsuit today against the Biden administration's rules that threaten the long-held American tradition of private firearms assembly and put the livelihood of thousands of Americans at risk.

The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) rulemaking would regulate unfinished, non-functional firearm parts as if they were complete firearms, thereby undermining the states' ability to enforce their own legal codes with respect to items and activities that the federal government may not constitutionally regulate.

"This rule infringes on every American's right to assemble firearms for their own use – a long-held tradition dating back to the founding of our nation," Attorney General Knudsen said. "Criminals will ignore this rule and it will not make Montanans safer. It will, however, shut down firearm companies, allow the government to end online sales of parts, and expand federal access to gun owner data – all without congressional approval."

If allowed to go into effect, the rule could force firearm manufacturers to reduce their workforces or even close their doors. The ATF itself estimated its regulation would shutdown 35 businesses at a cost of $1.1 million. However, the economic costs and burden will likely be much greater: hundreds of millions of dollars of sales could be lost and thousands may lose their jobs if the final rule takes effect.

The rule also takes steps toward the creation of an illegal national firearms registry, which would require firearms retailers to keep all sales records beyond their current 20-year retention requirement and eventually turn them over to the ATF instead of destroying them, which would compromise the privacy of every gun owner in America.

The coalition of attorneys general joined Morehouse Enterprises, Gun Owners of America, and Gun Owners Foundation in filing the complaint against the ATF, the U.S. Department of Justice, and ATF Director Steve Dettelbach.

Attorney General Knudsen submitted formal comments to the ATF opposing the proposed rulemaking in August 2021.

Veteran's Corner Update #172

By Mike Lawson

Greetings to all of you who read my SW MT Veteran update articles. I got a bit of information from Mike Ascherman from Markovich Construction, on our SW MT Veterans home. Cottage #5 is ready for the architect to sign off on it, which then opens the door for the Medicare/VA inspections to take place. The Pre-construction meetings for the Cover Walk-way connections will be this Thursday, so that construction will be starting very soon. Hopefully with the State of Montana having a historic surplus of money left in the budget, the other two walkways will be financed. I'm sure our two SW MT Vet Home Foundation members, Dave Williamson/ Bill Willing, who are our Vet Home Lobbyists fighting whoever is associated with getting these walkways funded, will add this to their list of reasons why these walkways can and should be funded. Glad these two are representing us in this battle with those state agencies involved. I did visit a couple of friends in Cottage #4 and one in Cottage #3, this past week. These guys really enjoyed having me there, to have a conservation with and I enjoyed them as well. If any of you can spare a little time to drop in and visit or play cards with these guys, it will be appreciated and very rewarding.

Down the road at the new VA CBOC, things are going strong, with a lot of veterans getting their VA Healthcare appointments taken care of there. I talked with Wayne Paffhausen, who leases the building to the VA, and he said the VA has sent drawings to expand into the empty portion at the north end of the building. These drawings are at Wayne's architect and then Wayne will bid it. This is a bit of good news as more treatment options will be available for the veterans. The site itself has seen the finish up of the landscaping completed and things are looking beautiful there. He said a battery-pact back-up system was also completed for the inside. It's just a great facility to go to for our appointments.

A quick mention of the fine work the Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency continues to do. Three WWII Veterans who were unaccounted for, have been found and returned home recently, to be buried. Hand Salute!

I just want to remind you all to keep a look-out for Veteran's doing Fundraisers for these organizations and support them. The Marine Corps League had a Coffee/Cookie Rest-stop Fundraiser last week at the Anaconda turn-off Rest Area, and the travelers were very generous.

I'll go for now and hope you're enjoying this beautiful weather, in this beautiful part of the world, we're blessed to live in. Until next time, take care.
