Veteran's Corner Update #165

By Mike Lawson

Greetings to all of you who read my SW MT Veteran update articles.

Concerning Veteran's in SW MT, the big thing is those of you who were exposed to toxic environments, like burn pits/etc., to get registered with the VA, now that President Biden has signed the Pact Act. The same advice I would give any of you or your family members who were stationed at Camp Lejeune and were exposed to the toxic water there from 1953-1987.

I just read an article that encouraged veterans to get into an apprentice program. They gave 4 reasons to do so: 1) No student debt. You get paid with benefits while you're working as an apprentice. 2) The paycheck. Average yearly income w/benefits is about $33,000. Apprentices tend to make $300,000 more in their lifetime than non-apprentices. 3) Job security. Skilled workers are in great demand and employers want to keep their workers. 4) America needs apprentices. The older skilled workers are retiring and leaving the work force. Apprentices become skilled in their craft and replace the retirees.

I served a Construction Boilermaker Apprenticeship and used my GI Bill to supplement my apprentice wages. I was in the trade for 20 years before getting injured, going back to college and getting a teaching degree. I taught carpentry, sheet metal and welding for the first half of my teaching career. The value of learning a trade in our country today, is for many, of the upmost importance. Some colleges are transitioning into teaching some of these important trade skill fields. Many are working with Unions who have the skilled craftsmen to teach these classes.

Closer to home, I did hear from Tom Straugh from down Dillon way. Their Honor Guard had a veteran funeral on August 18 and on the 20th. If the streets are repaired there will be a Labor Day Parade . It will be led by the Veteran Color Guard which will include members of the Challenge Cadets. They have a raffle ticket sale going on, to fund the VFW Post 9040 scholarships. This will continue through Labor Day.

Here in Butte, the Marine Corps League, the VFW and Auxiliary have all had coffee stop fundraisers. These Fundraisers are a great place to visit with the travelers/veterans, give out baked goods and get some good donations.

WESTERN VOLLEYBALL

The Montana Western volleyball team fell to the number three ranked Bellevue College in the season opener tonight after a hard fought game.

The Breakdown

The Bulldogs fell in three sets to Bellevue College on Thursday at the College of Idaho Preseason Tournament. KayLee Kopp led the Bulldogs with 8 kills and added 12 digs.

Montana Western (0-1-0) dropped sets, 20-25, 21-25, and 18-25 to Bellevue (1-0-0).

How It Happened

The opening set saw the Bulldogs stay within arm's reach of the Bruins trailing only by a few points. After a kill by Jazi Smith and two Bruin errors, the score was tied up at 18. The Bulldogs fought back and forth to tie the score up at 20, but were unable to score for the remainder of the game.

During the second set, the Bulldogs came out with a vengeance and were able to take an 18-12 lead. A 10-2 run by the Bruins then gave them their first lead of the game. The Bulldogs then tied it up at 20. After battling it out to snag a lone point following a kill from Kopp, the Bruins proved to be too much for the Bulldogs who then fell 21-25.

In the third set, the Bulldogs jumped out to a 4-1 lead after a pair of kills from Jordan Olson that helped to jumpstart the opening rally. Kopp added two kills to help keep the score closely tied at 6. The Bulldogs fought back and forth trading points until it was tied at 12. Back-to-back kills by Morgan Stenger pushed the lead to two for the Bulldogs before a string of errors gave the Bruins their first lead of the game at 15-16. The Bruins continued in their late rally fashion to finish the game 18-25.

Notables

The Bulldogs opened up the season with #3 ranked Bellevue and battled tough throughout the match.

Kopp led the Bulldogs with 8 kills and 12 digs.

Stenger added 7 kills.

Kaylee Fritz totaled 26 assists helping the Bulldogs tack on a total of 32 kills in the game.

Kelsey Goddard, Smith, and Kopp tallied 35 digs combined in the match.

COUNTY APPOINTS SPECIAL COUNTY ATTORNEY FOR WRONGFUL DEATH CASE

The Beaverhead County Commissioners had discussion and action with resolution 2022-27 in a meeting the end of July to appoint a special county attorney for a wrongful death law suit brought by Chloe Worl's parents against Heidi Lagge. The appointment was made over concerns of a conflict of interest in the County Attorney's office.

Last year a vehicle crash south of Dillon killed one and injured another according to Montana Highway Patrol. (MHP) Trooper Nick Wade at that time reported that the accident cause was likely distracted driving.

Chloe had graduated from Montana Western & planned to attend the U of Montana. She had been working at Barrett Hospital and HealthCare at the time of her death.

Federal Judge rules federal oil and gas lease moratorium exceeded Biden's power

A federal judge today issued a permanent injunction against President Biden's so-called "pause" on federal oil and gas leasing and drilling permits in 13 plaintiff states, including Montana, agreeing with Attorney General Austin Knudsen that the policy violated the Mineral Leasing Act (MLA) and Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (OCSLA). In response to the legal victory, Montana's Attorney General Austin Knudsen issued the following statement:

"President Biden's executive order to choke off energy development didn't just increase prices and hurt American families—it was flatly illegal. This decision is a victory for the rule of law and the workers and the rural communities who depend on the energy industry."

United States District Judge for the Western District of Louisiana Terry Doughty issued a nationwide preliminary injunction June 2021 against the provisions of President Biden's Executive Order 14008 that blocked oil and gas leasing operations on federal lands. His permanent injunction today is applicable only in the plaintiff states, which includes Montana. The attorneys general filed the lawsuit in March 2021.

President Biden's order, the judge wrote, was "beyond the authority of the President of the United States": "Even the President cannot make significant changes to the OCSLA and/or the MLA that Congress did not delegate."

An ongoing lease moratorium would have lowered employment by 210 jobs, reduced personal income by $13 million, and cost $4 million in oil and gas taxes in Montana last year, according to a University of Wyoming study published in December 2020. The cumulative effect to the state would be 702 fewer jobs, $170 million reduced personal income, and $199 million in foregone oil and gas tax revenue by 2025.
