DEATH NOTICE

Jerry Allen Rowe
August 19, 1940 - August 24, 2022

Madison County Sheriff's Office Press Release

On Wednesday, August 24 at 16:44, the Madison County Communications Center received a report of possible unexploded ordnance near mile marker 23 on Montana Highway 41 South near Twin Bridges. The original call described three pieces of what the reporting party believed to be dynamite. The dynamite was found in an outbuilding that was set to be demolished.

Madison County deputies responded to the residence. At great risk to themselves, two deputies entered the building and confirmed the pieces to be unexploded ordnance and other possible materials were located at the scene. The two deputies, one with prior military experience in explosive materials, documented the ordnance and exited the building. The United States Air Force 341st Explosive Ordnance Disposal (EOD) Unit from Malmstrom Air Force Base in Great Falls was informed of the situation and responded to the scene.

In cooperation with multiple agencies and resources, the Madison County Sheriff's Office and the USAF EOD team destroyed the explosives after being safely transported away from the residence onto state owned land. The EOD team identified the explosives as highly unstable and responded as such. Montana Highway 41 South was closed for a brief period to mitigate the risk to the public. Ruby Valley EMS and the Twin Bridges Volunteer Fire Department were also on scene during the incident to provide any needed aid.

This incident is not only an example of the bravery of America's service members, law enforcement, emergency medical services and firefighters, but also demonstrates the danger of holding onto unexploded ordnance. Please do not allow situations like this to repeat themselves. The reporting party did the correct thing by immediately notifying law enforcement. A sweep of the property was performed and no more ordnance was located.

A big thank you goes out to the United States Air Force, Ruby Valley EMS, Twin Bridges Volunteer Fire Department, and the Madison County Communications Center for their assistance in this incident.

Low flows trigger full fishing closure on another section of Big Hole River

A full fishing closure will go into effect on a section of the Big Hole River due to low flows.

The closure extends from the Tony Schoonen Fishing Access Site upstream to the Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks Maidenrock Fishing Access Site. The closure will begin at 12:01 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 23. The closure will remain in place until lifted by FWP in consultation with the Big Hole Watershed Committee, or until Oct. 31.

Flows at a U.S. Geological Survey gauge near Glen fell below 190 cubic feet per second on Aug. 18, meeting criteria for the full fishing closure outlined in the Big Hole River Watershed Committee Drought Management Plan.

The fishing closure replaces a hoot owl fishing restriction that has been in place here since July 29. Fishing restrictions are in place for other sections of the Big Hole River and other Montana waterbodies. Anglers can find a statewide list of current restrictions at fwp.mt.gov/news/current-closures-restrictions/waterbody-closures.

Attorney General Knudsen, trucking industry continue efforts to end human trafficking in Montana

More than three dozen leaders from law enforcement, criminal prosecution, advocacy groups, public health, and private industry leaders came together today in Helena to discuss efforts and effective strategies to combat human trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation in Montana. The event was hosted by Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen, Montana Trucking Association, and Truckers Against Trafficking, a non-profit organization that exists to engage members of the trucking, bus, and energy industries.

Montana Department of Justice human trafficking investigators initiated 64 cases in fiscal year 2022, an increase of 300 percent from 16 in the previous fiscal year.

"It's going to take all of us working together to end human trafficking - which truly is modern day slavery - in Montana." Attorney General Knudsen said. "The trucking industry in our state and across the country has been a leader against this horrible crime. We'll continue to work together to bring others into the fight."

"Human trafficking can take many forms and happen anywhere. Truckers are the eyes and ears of the highways, and the Montana trucking industry is committed to working with law enforcement and other partners to put a stop to it in our state," Montana Trucking Association CEO Duane Williams said. "We're grateful for Attorney General Knudsen's leadership and work with us to put a spotlight on this crime and the toll it takes on victims and communities."

"Truckers Against Trafficking hosts these events to bring together public and private entities and create partnerships to combat human trafficking, particularly at its intersections with the transportation industries in the state," Louie Greek, coalition build specialist for Truckers Against Trafficking, said. "Our goal is to provide free training and resources to industries and agencies to build up an army of eyes and ears to combat modern day slavery. We've seen an increase in Montana of awareness and efforts to come together and address this pressing issue."

Attendees heard from a human trafficking survivor, who shared her story of being trafficked across multiple states starting at 16 until she escaped six years later. She was tricked into leaving home by a trafficker and abducted, beaten and raped, forced to use drugs, and threatened with murder if she tried to leave. Different traffickers and trafficking organizations use varying tactics, but stories parallel to hers are repeated every day.

progress since its launch last year. The Sentinel Project is a private-public partnership between the Montana Department of Justice, Montana Beer and Wine Distributors Association, and the Missoula-based Lifeguard Group to increase human trafficking training and public education in the state. The project also encourages calls to the statewide hotline, 1-833-406-STOP (7867) when Montanans see suspected trafficking. Calls to the hotline this year are already 34 percent higher than last year (79 in 2021 to 106 through July 30, 2022).

Know the Signs. Potential indicators of sex trafficking may include:

Young person that is very hesitant to engage in conversation. Eyes are always downcast, avoiding eye contact, especially with men. Poor physical state…tired, malnourished, or shows signs of physical abuse or torture.

Seems to have trouble responding to what their name is or what location (city or even state) they are in. (Victims' names are often changed, as are their whereabouts. They typically do not stay in one location for long – at times for 24 hours or less).

Wearing clothes that do not fit the climate or the situation such as short shorts or skirts, tank tops, and no jacket in the middle of winter.

Lack of control over money, personal possessions like bags, ID's, or documents. May also be carrying very few possessions in a plastic bag.

May be accompanied by a dominating person, or someone they seem fearful of. That controlling person may also be someone who does not seem to "fit," such as a much older individual, an individual of a different race, or with behavior seemingly inappropriate with the suspected victim.

Young girl or boy hanging around outside a convenience store, truck stop, casino, or other location. May be approaching different vehicles or men they do not seem to know.

If you believe you witness human trafficking:

If the situation is an emergency, call 911

Do not intervene if you see suspected trafficker(s). Remain at a safe distance or in your vehicle.

In non-emergency situations, call or text 1-833-406-STOP (1-833-406-7867) OR reach and advocate via live chat at 406stop.com/.

When possible, take images with your cellular device of the suspected trafficker(s), victim(s), and vehicle license plate(s).

HELP WANTED 9/26 PD

Wanted- Old American made Guitars Hi, my name is Rich Dixon and I live near Salt Lake City. I'm an older musician in my later 60's (still working) and I am trying to find guitars to play like those I had in my younger years ...I am looking for American made instruments from the 1960's and earlier.

The brands I'm most interested in are Gibson, Fender , Martin, Gretsch and some by Guild and Mosrite ...These are the instruments that suit my music and playing the best. I'm interested in both electric and acoustic instruments and also old tube amplifiers from that era as well...

I want them to Play (I'm not a collector) so they don't have to be in pristine mint condition; used but not abused is fine. I'm just after instruments that haven't been altered and have their original parts and electronics so that they sound and play like they did back when I used to own them ...

If you have something like that that you might consider selling I'd love to hear about it ! If it's something I really want or could use I would pay in cash and drive up there to pick it up ... Please feel free to call or text me at (801-319-1109) and Thanks so much for taking the time to read this!
