Celtic Guitarist Jerry Barlow

The Dillon Public Library, Dillon Friends of the Library, and Angler Village is pleased to welcome acclaimed Celtic guitarist and storyteller Jerry Barlow for a special concert. The program will be held Monday, September 26th at 6:30 PM at the Beaverhead County Museum Depot, 155 Montana St. in Dillon. The program is sponsored by the Library and is free to the community.

As a touring performer, Barlow travels throughout the Midwest, South and Rocky Mountain regions presenting his program of music, history, and humor from the British Isles. Before the closing of the border, Barlow spent several weeks in Cape Breton, NS, where he learned a smattering of Gaelic and marveled at the history of the Great Clans.

Barlow's program features music and stories from the medieval time of Scottish, Irish and English history – a time filled with wonderful legend and lore. There will be ample opportunity for some toe-tapping, some sing-along and even some step-dancing if you are so inclined.

Barlow's just-released CD, entitled "OF CASTLES AND KINGS", features music from this program as well as traditional favorites. His recording, FIELDS AND FENCES, was one of five finalists for the Instrumental Album of the Year Award by the Independent Music Awards. The Indie Acoustic Project selected BRING DOWN THE STORM as one of the best songs of 2006.

Music from Barlow's recordings can be heard on National Public Radio stations. He has been featured in FINGERSTYLE MAGAZINE and was profiled in CELTIC CONNECTION.

For more information call the Dillon Library at 406.683.4544 or visit www.jerrybarlow.com.

Celebrate the Autumn Equinox

Vibrant Lives of Montana would like to invite you to join us this week as we celebrate the autumn equinox with a sound bath and explore the similarities between Christianity and yoga. On Thursday, September 22nd @ 7-8:30pm, we will relax and allow the winds of change to sooth our bodies, minds, hearts, and souls with the vibrations of Himalayan singing bowls, chakra bowls, chimes, and gongs. On Saturday, September 24th , we will explore the grace and compassion present in the teachings of Christianity and yoga. This day (from 9AM-3PM) will be highly restorative (meaning completely relaxing) and rejuvenating as we nurture our bodies, minds, and spirits/souls. If your being is being called to relax, please join us. Both events are open to all bodies and all abilities. No prior yoga/meditation experience needed. Scholarships are available for both events (self identified need, no invasive questioning). For more information and/or to register, text or email Elaine at 406-925-3961 or elaine@vibrantlivesmt.com.

Old Sally

Bryce Angell

The first time I saw Sally, she was barely three years old. Her nose was snubbed tight to a post. She was shivering from the cold.
"She isn't mean, just not too bright." That's what her owner said.
Her gut was ganted up. The horse was needing to be fed.
She hopped up in the trailer and didn't even balk.
The little mare just needed someone with an easy talk.
We fed our filly grain and hay. I watched her fill out fast.
I wondered how much animals remember of their past.
My father named her Sally. Said, "I guess I'm not sure why."
I wonder if he knew someone who seemed to be that shy.
Well Sally fit right in and didn't cause us any fuss.
I sure was glad she had a home away from that old cuss.
Some horses require extra work to get them fit to ride.
But Sally was a natural. She had a perfect stride.
We rode our Sally every day. Hers was a household name.
My kids would ride three at a time, 'cuz Sally was so tame.
One day my younger children didn't cinch the saddle tight. It slipped down underneath the horse. But the kids showed little fright.
'Cuz they knew their Sally wouldn't move or even step at all.
My kids climbed out from underneath. Good thing she wasn't tall.
As years went by, each child of ours grew up and left the fold.
Old Sally, we all called her then, now twenty-two years old.
I didn't have the time to ride Old Sally every day.
So, she'd whinny, and she'd whimper, kinda sad in her own way.
Old Sally must have felt alone. The years flew by too fast.
Maybe horses do remember a little of their past.
When our kids come home to visit, they bring children of their own.
And all those grandkids tell me, "She's the best horse ever known."
They ride her every day until they've said all their goodbyes.
Old Sally really loves our kids. I see it in her eyes.
Will Sally be around much longer? None of us can say.
But this will always be her home until her dying day.

MONTANA WESTERN FOOTBALL

The Montana Western football team defeated MSU-Northern by a score of 35-6 today in Havre, Mont. The Bulldog defense continued to stand out as they recorded four sacks, three interceptions, and 12 tackles for loss in the win. Bulldog running backs led the way as Reese Neville rushed for 149 yards and a touchdown and DJ Kirven rushed for 75 yards with two touchdowns.

How It Happened

The Bulldog defense came out to start the game and forced its first three and out of the day on the opening drive. The Bulldog offense struggled to piece together a scoring drive, despite reaching the Northern 23-yard line on their second drive of the game. With four minutes remaining in the first quarter, linebacker Braden Smith intercepted a Lights pass and returned it for 32 yards. The Bulldogs jumpstarted their offense as a 30-yard touchdown rush by Reese Neville got the first points on the board for the Bulldogs at the start of the second quarter. The Bulldog defense forced a much needed three and out fueling a three minute and six second drive that culminated in a Jon Jund rushing touchdown. John Mears completed his second PAT in the game to bring the score to 14-0. MSU-Northern then got the ball and on the second play of the drive, Kameron Rauser picked off Lights quarterback Jamari Johnson and returned it for 14 yards. The Bulldogs capitalized on the play as DJ Kirven scored on a five-yard rushing touchdown to bring the score to 21-0. Just before the half, defensive back Cody Whalen intercepted a pass from Lights quarterback Kaymen Cureton and returned it for 13 yards.

The Bulldogs came out in the second half and after two possession changes, a Jund 46-yard pass to wide receiver Dylan Shipley resulted in a touchdown for the Bulldogs, bringing the score to 28-0. In the following MSU-N drive, James Aragon and Reese Artz combined for a sack for loss of nine yards on third down to force the Lights to punt. The following Lights drive also saw Brandon Aimsback and Tanner Harrel record a sack for loss of six yards. The Bulldogs offense came back out and in four plays, Kirven rushed for his second touchdown on the day on a nine-yard touchdown run. With the score 35-0, the Bulldogs would then give up a touchdown after bad snap was picked up by Josh Rose of the Lights and returned for a touchdown. The PAT attempt was blocked by Reese Artz, bringing the score to 35-6. The UMW defense continued to hold the Lights for the remainder of the game as the Bulldogs finished off their victory over MSU-Northern and improve their record to 3-1.

WANTED - OLD AMERICAN MADE GUITARS 9/26 PD

Wanted- Old American made Guitars

Hi, my name is Rich Dixon and I live near Salt Lake City. I'm an older musician in my later 60's (still working) and I am trying to find guitars to play like those I had in my younger years ... I am looking for American made instruments from the 1960's and earlier. The brands I'm most interested in are Gibson, Fender , Martin, Gretsch and some by Guild and Mosrite ... These are the instruments that suit my music and playing the best. I'm interested in both electric and acoustic instruments and also old tube amplifiers from that era as well...I want them to Play (I'm not a collector) so they don't have to be in pristine mint condition; used but not abused is fine. I'm just after instruments that haven't been altered and have their original parts and electronics so that they sound and play like they did back when I used to own them ... If you have something like that that you might consider selling I'd love to hear about it ! If it's something I really want or could use I would pay in cash and drive up there to pick it up ... Please feel free to call or text me at (801-319-1109) and Thanks so much for taking the time to read this!
