Larry Tucker

June 27, 1935 to September 19, 2022

Dad was born June 27, 1935, at home in Cashmere, WA to Charles "Dan" and Mildred Tucker. In the early 1940's the family moved to the Big Hole Valley to live and work on the Fritz Walchly ranch. His early education was at the West Fox school. He loved the Big Hole where he learned to shoot, fish, hunt, and fly. In 1949 he started competition shooting with the junior shooters. Dad learned to fly in Dillon under Dave McCauley. He soloed and received his pilot's license in May of 1958.

On October 18, 1958, he married Marian Nitzel and started his family with her girls, Dawn and Judy. The family moved to Anchorage, AK in April of the following year. Their son, Danny was born October 31, 1960. They were later divorced.

In 1963 he attended aircraft school in Seattle, WA. He would go on to be a flight mechanic for Bardahl racing at Reno, NV.

March 18, 1966, Dad married Dorothy Hennings and gained a daughter Karen. They welcomed Kathy into the family in 1967. In 1971 they moved to Paine Field in Everett, WA where he was the caretaker of the airfield. Both Dad and Mom were members of the Civil Air Patrol. Dad was a pilot and Mom a radio operator.

Dad moved the family to the family ranch near Wisdom, MT. Son, Timothy and daughter, Sara were welcomed in 1973 and 1975.

After our folks divorced, Dad moved to Corvallis where the altitude agreed with him more. Here he enjoyed daily visits to his new family at The Coffee Cup, and all his shooting buddies from the Whittcar Rifle and Pistol Club.

Dad worked as a mechanic, a logger, raced snowplanes and snowmobiles, built roads, mined for gold, and owned and operated Tucker's Conoco in Wisdom. There wasn't a piece of heavy equipment he couldn't operate. He built and flew airplanes and model R/C airplanes. He shot competitively all his life with rifles, pistols, and shotguns. He loved to fish, especially in Alaska and always looked forward to hunting for elk with his kids and friends.

He is preceded in death by his parents, stepfather Fritz, son Danny, brother Dan and sister-in-law Shirley, sister Carolyn, granddaughter Amanda and his best friend George "Chief" Buckman.

He will be deeply missed by our Mom, Dorothy of Helena; children - Karen (Jim) Contreras of Ballard, WA, Kathy (Dean) Wise of Wisdom, Timothy (Kate) Tucker of Great Falls and Sara Lum of Helena; grandchildren - Bradley, Jared, Deanna, Cody, Carson, and Garrett; and great grandchildren - Aiden, Lyra, and Damian; and his bonus children Dawn and Judy and their

Mitchell has a longstanding commitment to community service. Born and raised in Beaverhead County, she comes from a long line of family pharmacists. In addition to having a doctorate in pharmacy, Mitchell enjoys a rewarding career in retail pharmacy and is a member of the Barrett Hospital & HealthCare pharmacy team. As a pharmacist, Mitchell plays an important role in improving patient outcomes as medication adherence and compliance are some of the many patient outcomes pharmacists impact.

During her tenure at Barrett Hospital & HealthCare, Mitchell led the development of the first strategic plan that transformed Barrett Hospital & HealthCare from a community hospital focused solely on Dillon into a regional medical center serving southwest Montana.

As a result of Mitchell's effective and insightful leadership, Barrett Hospital & HealthCare has been named one of the Top 100 Critical Access Hospitals (CAH) for the eleventh time and one of the Top 20 Critical Access Hospitals (CAH) for the fifth time. A Top 20 CAH is an incredible accomplishment achieved by less than 1.5% percent of hospitals nationwide each year, which means that Barrett Hospital & HealthCare's system is stronger than ever, and that Barrett continues to provide outstanding health care to southwest Montana residents and visitors.

"I am humbled by the honor of being named Healthcare Trustee of the Year by the Montana Hospital Association," said Patti Mitchell, Barrett Hospital & HealthCare Board President. "This award would not be possible without my fellow board members: Nate Finch, Shane Puyear, Lawrence Morrisroe and Susan Davis Briggs, who work together to keep Barrett Hospital & HealthCare at the forefront; the outstanding leadership, providers, and staff at the hospital and clinic embracing the strategic plan; and my family who have always supported and encouraged me as a hospital trustee to better serve the community we live in."

About Barrett Hospital & HealthCare:

Established in 1922, Barrett Hospital & HealthCare is a non-profit Critical Access Hospital (CAH) and medical clinic provider in Dillon, Montana. Based on The Chartis Center's Rural Hospital Performance Index, the National Rural Health Association (NRHA) has recognized Barrett Hospital & HealthCare as a Top 20 CAH five times, including in 2022. For more information, visit www.barretthospital.org

About Montana Hospital Association:

The Montana Hospital Association (MHA) is the principal advocate for the interests of members in their efforts to improve the health status of the communities they serve. MHA, in partnership with our communities, will make Montana a "Top 10 Healthy State."

THE WRONG BED

By "Swede" Troedsson

In the summer of 1960, three of us foresters hired on with the Northern Pacific Railroad to participate in their timber sale program in the Seeley/Swan Valley, MT.

Towards the end of the summer we moved from Seeley Lake, into a cabin rented from Ed Underwood, a building contractor. The cabin was about 5 miles south of Condon, MT.

Shortly after we moved into Ed's cabin he informed us that he recently had to testify at a murder trial held in the Missoula County Courthouse.

Ed went on to explain that a Swedish immigrant named Lundborg and his wife lived a mile down the road from Ed's home.

One day Lundborg realized that he had forgotten his lunch bucket. Upon returning to his home, he observed a strange truck in his yard. When he entered his home he found a stranger in bed with his wife. Lundborg, standing at the bedroom entrance, ordered the man out. The man put on his pants and squeezed by Lundborg on his way out.

A short time later, suspecting that the affair was still ongoing, Lundborg returned to his home to find the same pickup truck parked in his front yard.

Lundborg called the man out. The man grabbed a .22 cal. rifle off Lundborg's living room wall, and upon exiting the house, told Lundborg to stick his head up and he would shoot it off. So Lundborg stood up and shot his wife's lover with his .30-40 Krag rifle.

Immediately after the shooting Lundborg's wife, fearing for her life, ran up to Ed Underwood's home to report the shooting and to seek shelter.

At trial Lundborg's defense attorney asked Lundborg what he said to the stranger as the stranger squeezed his way past him. In a heavy Swedish accent, Lundborg replied "By golly, one of these days you're going to go too far!"

The packed court room burst into laughter. It took the judge a minute or so to gavel the courtroom spectators back into silence.

At trial Lundborg had two things going in his defense. The stranger had threatened Lundborg with deadly force, hence, the shooting could be justified as self defense.

Also, Lundborg's wife had filed for a divorce which was effective at noon the day of the shooting. Lundborg shot his wife's lover at 11:00 a.m. Lundborg's wife was still his wife.

Lundborg was acquitted of murder.

The next year I ended my employment with the railroad. When I left the Swan Valley Lundborg was still hunting elk with that .30-40 Krag rifle.

Waterfowl, pheasant and antelope hunting seasons to open soon

Hunting for ducks, coots and geese opens Saturday,
Oct. 1.

Here are a few reminders:

- The aggregate daily bag for dark geese in the Pacific Flyway has increased from four to five. Dark geese include Canada geese, cackling geese and white-fronted geese (any geese other than snow, blue and Ross's geese).
- The Central Flyway is divided into two "zones" in order to increase opportunity. The two zones have different season dates. Zone 2, includes Big Horn, Carbon, Custer, Prairie, Rosebud, Treasure and Yellowstone counties and has a split season. To view the season dates, go to <https://fwp.mt.gov/hunt/regulations/migratory-bird> or review the migratory bird regulations. Zone 1 includes all other counties in the Central Flyway portion of Montana.

Pheasant season opens Oct. 8. Hunting seasons for fall turkey, mountain grouse, sharp-tailed grouse and partridge are already open. For more information, go to <https://fwp.mt.gov/hunt/regulations/upland-game-bird> or review the upland game bird regulations, which include regulations for turkey.

The general season for antelope opens Oct. 8. General seasons for deer and elk open Oct. 22; the two-day youth deer hunt is Oct. 20 and 21.
