Council Meeting or Special Meeting??

Oct 3, 2022

By: MJ

A. Minutes of Sept. 23, 2022 council meeting were [Approved]

Public Speaker: Mayor Klakken spoke on Ordinance 2-08-095 that defines and explains the law that requires the city to follow when having a Special Meeting. At the Sept 21, 2022, Council Meeting it was voted to have a 'Special Meeting' to approve the minutes of the finance committee. Members of the council will be attending a conference in Kalispel on the regular council meeting date. Therefore, to get the bills paid on time the city held this 'Special Meeting'.

A Special Meeting can only have one (1) item on the agenda to be discussed and voted on. The agenda Mayor McGinley authorized was for a full-blown regular council meeting.

A council person spoke up and agreed with Mayor Klakken, stating that it was important to follow the laws. Entire council agreed that the laws would be adhered to and voted unanimously to do that.

Motion was made to approve the Finance Committee's minutes. Passed unanimously.

Public Notice Street Sweeping

The City of Dillon will be sweeping South Idaho and South Washington Streets between Reeder and Orr Streets Friday, October 7th in the morning. If possible, could the residents living in this area park their cars off the street to allow our sweepers easier access to the streets. We plan on being done by 10:00 a.m. Please be careful when driving in this area during this time Friday morning. Thank You!

Letter to the Editor

To all bus drivers:

As we round off the first month of the school year, I wanted to take a moment to remind everyone of how important your job is. Not only are you responsible for getting our precious cargo from their home to school and back, but your demeanor sets the tone for their entire day. Just as a rough morning in the home can put a damper on our children's day, so can your attitude. We all understand how stressful your job can be taking care of so many children in such a large vehicle and how things can get loud and crazy fast. I urge you to remember what being a child is like and try to have compassion and grace when speaking to our children. We might not be there to witness things firsthand, but I am sure some bus drivers would act differently if a parent was riding the bus and not just impressionable young children who can easily be pushed around. Parents do hear what happens on the bus and try their best to report incidences and console their child when hearing of how they are being treated on their way to and from school. With all that is going on in our crazy world, one thing I shouldn't have to worry about is whether my kid is getting yelled at for laughing on the bus or getting brake checked because another kid is out of their seat. We all appreciate you and understand how stressful your job can be. I just wanted to remind everyone what a big role you play in the small amount of time you have our children.

Thank you for doing what may feel like a thankless job. You are appreciated.

Letter to the Editor

As you know, Dillon has long been a lover of high school sports. Football, basketball, volleyball, track, golf and tennis. BCHS has a great sports program that it is, and should be proud of, and the community has long supported it and the young athletes by attending games and matches. That is a wonderful thing.

But, you knew there was going to be a "but", there is another great program that in recent years in particular, has been overlooked. The Music Department at BCHS is full of amazingly talented young people that also need the support of the community, yet during concert performances there few people to applaud their performances or to cheer them on.

Being involved in a music program benefits young people in many of the same ways that sports do. To perform together students must learn to work well with one another and to support and encourage one another. They must practice together not only during class time but after school and lunch hours. Music students, like athletes, are required to travel for music festivals and perform in front of adjudicators and learn to take criticism from strangers in order to hone their skill. They perform solos and duets and pour their hearts into this thing that they love!

As a parent of both a current and former Teen Tone, I couldn't be happier that the music program at BCHS exists and provides another wonderful way for a young person to learn and grow and express themselves. I however, also couldn't be more sad that, unlike 15 years ago when every concert was packed and the musicians' hard work was rewarded with eruptions of applause at performances, today most of the seats are empty and the applause is eaten up by empty space in a large auditorium.

These concerts are free of charge to the public. The price paid in advance by the long hours of practice and judged festival performances. Young people all need to be supported and encouraged. Won't you join me and go support our young musicians at the next concert? I hope to see you there. Signed, Fay Porter, Proud Parent of a BCHS Music Student.

Fishing regulation proposals removed from October Fish and Wildlife Commission meeting

Proposed changes to the Montana fishing regulations will not be on the Fish and Wildlife Commission meeting agenda for October as originally planned. Instead, potential regulation changes will wait until a new statewide fisheries management plan is in place in 2023.

The commission will consider extending the 2022 fishing regulations into 2023 at its Oct 20 meeting. Changes to the fishing regulations will be considered after the revised management plan is adopted in early 2023.

POETRY CLASS

Vibrant Lives has the utmost pleasure to announce that our dear friend, supporter, and collaborator REBECCA KNOTTS is leading a 4-week poetry class in October. This class will be on Wednesday evenings (starting this Wednesday, the 5th) from 6pm-8pm. Be sure to sign up ASAP! This, like all of our classes, is expected to be more about opening up, sharing, and enjoying community...than, even, about what its topic is. Plus, if you know Rebecca...wouldn't you LOVE to spend some time with this remarkably authentic, beautiful soul?! The cost of the workshop is $100, although we, thanks to the United Way of Beaverhead County, have scholarships available! For more info, call us at (406)925-3961 or email us at Elaine@vibrantlives.com.
