HUNG UP ON RUDENESS

BY TOM PURCELL

Changing communications technology is one of life's never-ending annoyances, and now we have a new agitation: voice messaging.

Voice messaging allows smartphone owners to record their voice and send the recording to others as they would a text or a chat.

According to the Wall Street Journal, some people consider the technique bothersome and rude — a camp I am clearly in, and I'll happily explain why.

I've experienced a lot of phone-technology changes in my life.

When I was a kid in the '70s and the phone rang, it was always a surprise and you'd hurry to find out who was calling our house.

Hard as it is for some to imagine, we had no caller ID.

We had no call-waiting, either — if you were on the line talking and someone called you, that person would be greeted by a busy signal.

Worse yet, if you needed a ride home after football practice, good luck getting through to my house.

My five sisters and my mom kept our single phone line occupied throughout the day. I spent half of my high school years redialing a pay phone.

The truth is, we actually wanted to answer the phone back then to learn who was calling.

Nothing was more disappointing than getting to a ringing phone too late and having the mystery caller hang up.

That began to change in the '70s when answering machines became affordable and many people began using them to screen their calls — behavior that was considered rude by many.

Here's what was even ruder: For whatever reason, some people refuse to leave messages on answering machines.

Getting home to hear a hang-up click on the answering machine was awfully agitating.

Until the invention of "*69."

Punching those three keys into the phone would provide the number of the dirty rotten person who had the audacity to call your home and not leave a message.

This gave us the ability to call the rude person back, wait for his answering machine to play, then hang up!

And so it was that technology enabled rudeness began to proliferate.

Now, when our smartphones ring, we look to see who the rude person calling is, and think, before letting it go to voicemail, "Why couldn't the idiot text me like a normal person?"

Which brings us to voice messaging.

As a highly impatient person, I'm far too busy to listen to other humans use spoken words to convey human thoughts to me.

The inflexions and changing tones they use to illustrate their points may seem more human and nuanced to them, but they only make me grumpier.

Look, I am a master procrastinator who wastes time all day long — but I resent when others waste my time for me by sending me voice chats that I have to spend precious seconds listening to.

For goodness sakes, email me or text me and give me words to read.

I'll email you or text back some nice words you can read, and then the both of us can go on our merry way promoting the rudeness, grumpiness and incivility that we have allowed our technology to make a regrettable reality in modern life.

I leave you with this warning:

Keep voice messaging me and I swear to goodness I will buy a cheap cell phone that does not trace back to me and I'll call your home phone — then hang up on your answering machine!

PHEASANT SEASON

Pheasant season opens this Saturday, Oct. 8. To increase hunters' opportunity for success, Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks will release pheasants at four wildlife management areas (WMA).

The birds will be released in the days prior to Oct. 8 at Warm Springs WMA near Deer Lodge, Canyon Ferry WMA and Lake Helena WMA near Helena, and at Freezout Lake WMA near Choteau.

Prior to the youth pheasant hunt weekend on Sept. 24 and 25, FWP staff released pheasants at 15 WMAs around the state. This will be the first release at Warm Springs WMA this year. More releases are planned on FWP lands through pheasant season. Releases will include both roosters and hen pheasants.

At its August meeting, the Montana Fish and Wildlife Commission approved the release of up to 50,000 pheasants annually on FWP WMAs through 2026. In 2021, the Legislature authorized spending up to $1 million each year for the program.

For more information on hunting pheasants and other upland game birds, go to https://fwp.mt.gov/hunt/regulations/upland-game-bird.

Veteran's Corner Update #172

By Mike Lawson

I visited our SW MT Veteran's "Covered Walkway" construction site 5 this week. The footing wall forms were built and the cement pour for them, was happening on Thursday. Next week he hopes to have the floor/deck ahead of any cold weather. Mike Ascheman, the job superintendent, has his hands full in getting supplies/materials to the job for each phase of construction so there aren't holdups that might delay the work. .

Our Butte VA CBOC is gearing up for both flu shots and possibly the forth Covid Series Booster shot which the Ft Harrison Pharmacy has now received. The Flu shots are scheduled as a drive through from 9 am to 3:pm on October 12th. Some of the pharmacies may be giving them out for free in locations you may live in, if you can't get to the Butte VA CBOC or Ft Harrison.

There was an incident at the Missoula VA Clinic this past week where a deranged individual was going to cause physical damage to the staff and building there. The police were called, the building was evacuated until the police cleared the building and arrested the individual who caused this situation. We must be ready if we see someone acting up in a similar manner and immediately call the police and get people out of harms way. Let hope we're not faced with that, but be ready if we are.

Shannon Ray, the Disabled Veterans Outreach Coordinator from the employment office in Butte, puts out a weekly "e-information series" concerning veteran's needs/employment/ etc.. His focus this week is "The Senior Community Service Employment Program". If your at least 55 years of age and looking for work, check this work-based training program out. Priority is given to veterans and qualified spouses. To learn more about it go see Shannon or click on this link https://www.dol.gov/agencies/eta/seniors .

I heard from Tom Straugh from Dillon and he reports that the Legion had a dinner meeting on the 5th of October . The VFW meets on October 12th at 1900.

The American Legion Post #1 is sponsoring their District meeting on October 8th and will hold the annual Veterans Day Race on November 11th, 2022.

The SW MT Marine Corps Detachment #724 will kick-off the "Butte Toys For Tots Campaign" on October 10th at their building "The Hooch". Look for the Toy Collection boxes/ money collection boxes located at our many business sponsors who so generously allow us to place these boxes at their establishments. We cover not only Butte but Whitehall, Harrison, Twin Bridges/ Ruby Valley, Dillon and Melrose.

Love in a shoebox!

This is a fun way to make a difference in the life of a child! Simple items: socks, pencil, huggable toy, crayons, coloring books, washcloth, notepad ball, a toy truck, school supplies, and many other items you can pick up at the Dollar store! Mary has the empty shoeboxes ready for you – just stop by and pick one up from the front porch! This is part of a national effort to help children across the country and around the world.

If you would like to be part of this amazing program and have questions or would like more information, contact Mary Bearden (925-2218 or 683-2037). It would be great to have boxes sooner, but the last day to drop off will be Sunday, November 20th, 2022. Last minute drop off ok.

Shoebox details: NOTHING liquid, No food, No Candy, NO chocolate, No toothpaste, No war toys or guns, No breakable items. Simple rules, but please read....

If you would like to encourage a child with a shoebox, this is what it involves:

1) Put together a shoe box to send to a child:

a. Use an empty shoebox, small plastic container OR pick up a preprinted box from Mary.

b. Pack for a Boy or Girl, child's age category: 2-4, 5-9, or 10-14.

c. Packing: Please include at least one item a child can immediately embrace such as a stuffed toy, doll, ball, or toy truck. For more ideas, QR code links to the website.

d. Please include a $9 Donation for each shoebox you prepare to help cover shipping and other project costs.

Or

2) Not able to pack a box this year? You can support the shoebox program by making a donation – every donation helps. Shipping costs are $9 per box. You can make checks payable to Samaritan's Purse/Shoebox and drop off at Mary Bearden's house.

Let's work together to brighten a child's life!
Mary Bearden
