BCHS Choral Ensembles and Jazz Band Annual Fall Concert, Nov 2, 2022

Beaverhead County High School's Concert Choir, Treble Chorus, Men's Chorus, Mixed Ensemble, Teen Tones, and Jazz Band will present their Fall Concert in the BCHS Auditorium on Wednesday, November 2, 2022 at 7:30pm. The concert is free to the public.

The Jazz Band, conducted by Mrs. Katie Raffety, will perform several selections. Jazz Band offers students of high level musicianship the opportunity to collaborate on music within the jazz genre and often features soloists.

The choirs conducted by Mrs. Carolyn Van Slyke, will perform music that exemplifies the concert theme, "Peace and Patriotism." Singing in choir offers students the opportunity for vocal training, musical literacy, and personal growth. Singers learn to collaborate to bring music to life and have fun in the process.

Several BCHS students will participate in Montana All-State Band and Choir in conjunction with Montana Music Educator Convention in Bozeman, October 19-21. Students are selected from hundreds of other Montana high school musicians who auditioned last spring. Henry Hawes has the honor of participating in the All State Band. Audrey Zeren, Katie Johnson, Ronnie Porter, Daniel Kadrmas and Jesse Bojkovsky have the honor of participating in the All State Choir. They will work with outstanding directors from across the United States. We wish them the best of experiences at All State!

The band and choir students will start fundraising this month. Students use the funds they raise for music related costs: reeds, instrument repair, uniform costs, music activities and meals during travel. Ask them about what is available. Thank you for supporting and encouraging the music at Beaverhead County High School! We appreciate your support of the arts in Beaverhead County.

Come join us and support our awesome music students at a night of great music."

No Food Buffet

Bryce Angell

We pulled into the parking lot at Hank's Home Town Café.
Barbeque waft through the air. "Must be their night buffet."
The maître d' said, "Help yourself and find an empty seat."
My stomach set to growling. Now I couldn't wait to eat.
Our waitress had a voice that poked and stabbed at every nerve.
She shrieked aloud, "We have a complimentary house hors d'oeuvre."
"Your night buffet," is what I said. "That's how we'd like to dine."
She hollered out, "Two house buffets. You'd better get in line."
We grabbed our plates and scurried to the barbeque buffet.
But what we then encountered left me speechless, so to say.
The pans of meat were empty. Were we doomed for barbeque?
'Cuz there weren't a single bite of beefy meat left there to chew.
We looked for mashed potatoes. No potatoes in the pan.
And the skillets of their cottage fries would leave a hungry man.
Thank heaven all the broccoli and cauliflower were gone.
My last adventure with those two spent all night in the john.
Green bean casserole has always been a favorite of my own.
But the pan was scraped much cleaner than two buzzards on a bone.
So, we worked our way right to the end of Hank's no food buffet.
And there we saw four glasses of some yogurt peach parfait.
We gobbled down our parfait. I'd say faster than Mach 2.
Then hurried back for seconds before someone else came through.
I asked our waitress. "Where's the cook? I wonder if he knows?"
That's when she hollered out so loud. "Buffet's about to close!"
I blurted out. "The buffet's closed? We didn't get to eat!" She pointed to our parfait glass. "You wolfed down our best treat."
So, I walked up to the cashier. He just might have been the cook.
I hated to admit it, but it looked like we'd been took.
I handed him a fifty for a dinner I'd call strange.
And sure enough we paid full price. One nickel was my change.

Beavers Sting Yellowjackets

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The Dillon Beavers took on the Stevensville Yellowjackets Friday night at Vigilante Field. With a slow start to the first quarter the Beavers had a 6 to 3 lead over Stevensville. By halftime the Beavers were up 14 to 3.

The Beavers would come back to the field with a more focused drive and continue to use that throughout the rest of the game. Toward the end of the third quarter with a few seconds left on the board, at the Yellowjackets five yard line, Kale Konen would make a 95 yard run to score a touchdown. The Beavers would carry that momentum throughout the fourth quarter with a final score of 41 to 3.

NATIONAL 4-H WEEK

HI! My name is Guy Holt and I just completed my 5th year in 4-H with the Sagebrush & Snowdrifts Club. My projects were Archery and Market Swine. In archery, I shot at the hog barn 8 weeks and I got a score of 267 one week which was my best this year. I learned the fundamentals of shooting. Also in archery you get to shoot with your friends if your friends do 4-H. In swine I got a purple in showmanship and blue for market. I got $16 a pound and my pig weighed in at 259. I learned that I need to look at the judge and smile more because I was close to getting reserve champion. If you want to join 4-H I would recommend these projects to new members. There are a ton of projects you can choose and 4-H isn't just about raising and selling animals!!

Hi!!! My name is Jaysun Molenda and this was my 4th year in 4-H. I'm in the Sagebrush and Snowdrifts club. This year for my project I did woodworking. I made a stool that pulls out into five stools. I learned how to joint two blunt ends of wood together, how to attach legs to a stool, and how much glue to use for the size of wood, along with learning what happens when two pieces of wood are just nailed together. This was my first year in the project, it was fun, and I definitely plan on doing it again next year.

Montana Western Cross-country

The Montana Western men's and women's cross-country teams competed Friday in Butte for the Tony Banovich Invitational hosted by Montana Tech. The men's team placed second overall in a very competitive field. The women's team saw two top ten finishers.

On the women's side in the 5k race, Araceli Ramirez and Morgan Baseley were neck in neck as the top finishers for the Bulldogs. Ramirez came through in fifth with a 19:47.2 and Baseley came in just behind with a 19:48.0. Liz Varner followed up in 14th as she had a time of 20:40.5. Cecily Eagleton finished up with a 21:17.5.

The men's team had a successful day as the Bulldogs saw three top ten finishes. Jonathan Harrison came in second overall with a 25:44.0. Brant Heiner came in seventh overall with a 26:41.8. Luke Lutz came in ninth with a 26:50.7. Harrison Silverio (11th, 26:55.6) and Joe Lamb (16th, 27:17.0) rounded out the scoring five to help push the Bulldogs to second place overall.

Will Hyatt (27:49.7), Carlin Onstad (28:18.1), Alduran Takes Enemy (29:28.1), Jesse McMurtrey (30:39.5), and Isaiah Powell (33:10.8) also ran for the Bulldogs.

Up next

The Bulldogs will take a week to rest and prepare as they will be heading to Grand Rapids, Michigan for the Great Lakes Invitational on Saturday Oct. 22.

Montana Western Volleyball

The Montana Western volleyball team moved to 1-4 in conference play Friday evening after falling to Rocky Mountain College 3-1 by scores of 22-25, 24-26, 25-17, and 19-25.

Notables

The Bulldogs totaled 53 kills in the game versus their opponent who had 51 in the game.

The Bulldogs move to 1-4 in conference play and 9-12 on the season.

Kopp topped 200 kills on the season as she now has 202 total.

Fritz had a season high 48 assists and 15 digs in the game.

Up next

The Bulldogs will take a week off from play and will get back at it on Oct. 20 at home for the Dig Pink Game. Game time is set for 7 PM MST in the Straugh Gymnasium

Montana Western Football

Montana Western (3-2, 2-4) fell 49-14 at Southern Oregon (3-3, 3-3) on Saturday afternoon at Raider Stadium in Ashland, Oregon. The Bulldogs saw touchdowns from freshman Dylan Shipley and senior Reese Neville, as well as eight tackles from senior Gus Hanson.

How It Happened

The Bulldogs came out first and scored quickly off of a Jon Jund 42-yard touchdown pass to Shipley. The Bulldogs defense forced the Raiders to punt on their first drive of the game after a sack for loss of 7 yards by Jaden Amasiu. The Raiders would put up their first points of the game to tie it at 7 going into the second quarter. Despite the hot start, the Bulldogs were unable to string a scoring drive together for the remainder of the half, while allowing the Raiders to drive the score up another 23 points in the second quarter to bring the score to 30-7 at half.

The second half had a promising start as the Bulldog defense forced a stop. The Bulldogs would then score off of a 6-yard rushing from Neville to bring the score to 30-14. This was the last time the Bulldogs would score in the game, allowing the Raiders to put another 19 points on the board. The Raiders cap off their eighth straight home victory over the Bulldogs with a final score of 49-14.

Notables

The Bulldogs suffered their biggest loss today since the 2017 season when they lost 76-0 to Weber State on Sept. 2 in Ogden, Utah.

Jund threw for a total of 247 yards and a touchdown pass.

Gus Hanson had eight tackles, five of which were solo.

Blake Sentman led the Bulldogs receiving corps with 76 total receiving yards.

Jaden Amasiu recorded a sack for a loss of seven yards in the first quarter of the game.

Up next

The Bulldogs have a week off from play and will be facing off with no. 9 ranked College of Idaho at home on Vigilante Field on Oct. 22 at 1 PM MST.

Secretary Christi Jacobsen discusses Constitutions with students in Twin Bridges

Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen visited with staff and students in Twin Bridges and Willow Creek last week, delivering United States and Montana Constitutions and discussing the important rights provided by both documents.

"I continue to be encouraged by the engaged students across Montana," said Secretary Jacobsen. "Students and staff at Twin Bridges and Willow Creek expressed their interest in the importance of both Constitutions, beginning with the Preambles."

In Twin Bridges, Secretary Jacobsen, along with Rep. Ken Walsh, met with students, reading the Preambles and visiting about the importance of civics and voting. One student recited the Montana Preamble from memory, impressing Secretary Jacobsen and his schoolmates.

In Willow Creek, Secretary Jacobsen visited with students in fifth and sixth grade, as well as junior high, who offered insight into the Constitutions.

Secretary Christi Jacobsen Willow Creek SchoolDuring each visit, Secretary Jacobsen highlighted the significance of both Constitutions, and she encouraged students to participate in this fall's US Constitution Contest and YouthVote Program. Secretary Jacobsen launched the US Constitution Contest, Why the Constitution is Important to Me, on September 19. Submissions are open to all Montana students in grades K-12 and are due on October 14.

Under the guidance of the Youth Voting Act, the Secretary of State's Office and the Office of Public Instruction will partner to provide Montana students with an opportunity to engage in the electoral process. Students participating in the Montana Youth Vote will gain knowledge and experience by voting for candidates and ballot issues that will appear on the ballot during the upcoming midterm General Election.

"I'm excited for Montana students to capitalize on both of these opportunities so they will be more informed and more experienced," said Secretary Jacobsen.

Montana schools and teachers may request US/Montana Constitutions for their classrooms and students by visiting the Secretary of State's civics website at https://civics.sosmt.gov/constitution-request.
