Beaverhead Maze and Pumpkin Patch

Jeremy Crawford

Southwestern Montana News

For five years now Nicole Hull along with help from friends and family has been putting together the Beaverhead Maze and Pumpkin Patch. This little fall gem sits right off highway 41 just 4 miles North of Dillon. The maze runs Thursday thru Sunday from Noon to 8 P.M. The cost is only $7 per person for ages 2 and up.

Each year Nicole gathers the bales, plants the corn, and picks a theme to base the experience after. This year's choice is the legacy of the American Farmer. Nicole started the project five years ago. She had visited other mazes and wanted to bring this to Dillon. Along with the bale maze and corn maze they have fun games for the kids, corn hole, a corn pit, basketball hoops with a farm twist, a smaller bale maze, and the Brap Shack offering refreshments and food.

One attraction that happens every year is the Maze of Brews. This year it will be held Saturday, October the 15th from 4 to 10 P.M. Participants get a sample mug and wander through the mazes finding brew stations. Each station has a Microbrew on tap that you get to taste, after you have made your way through the maze participants vote on their favorite brew and Nicole presents the winning brew company with an award. The cost is $25 per person for this event.

If you are looking for something to do in Southwestern Montana this year load up the kids and head on out to the maze for a few hours of old-fashioned fall entertainment. It will be a trip you will not forget and will look forward to doing again next year.

Come in for a repair!

Got a tear? Come in for a repair! The Patagonia Outlet-Dillon is looking forward to our snowy months ahead! Dust off those winter gear items and join us for a weekend of repairs on October 14 through October 16. Drop by the store between 12 - 5 PM that weekend to get your favorite gear repair for free!

Our seamstress, Kay Miller, will be on the sewing machine while the rest of our Patagonia crew will be completing small repairs like broken snaps, splitting zippers, and small holes using gear tape.

Please make sure all items are freshly laundered before bringing them in.

Winter Preparedness

Cold temperatures are headed our way which means snow and ice will be here soon. Re Miller & Sons provide snow removal for many of our local businesses. With that being said, here are a few helpful reminders for the public while entering a business parking lot where we are removing snow.

1. Please do not park behind or close to any heavy equipment, when at all possible. There are blinds spots and it can be challenging for our drivers to see you, especially during heavy winter events.
2. When pulling into a business parking lot that we are currently plowing, please park in an area that has already been plowed if at all possible.
3. Make eye contact with the operator when walking through the parking lot. That way the operator sees you and can watch for you.
4. When walking across a parking lot, do not feel the need to rush or run. We are more than happy to stop and wait for you to cross. It's slick and icy after we plow, so please take your time.
5. The bigger parking lots are easier to avoid the equipment working. However, in the smaller parking lots it can be very difficult to maneuver the equipment. If possible, come back in a few minutes when the lot is done to avoid a collision.
6. If there is a collision with a piece of equipment. Pull out of the way and safely approach the operator to exchange information.
7. Watch for our guys on the ground shoveling, especially when it is dark.
8. Do not park in snow piles that are made in the parking lots.

As always, we appreciate your patience!

Sincerely,

Hanna McParland, Safety Director, RE Miller & Sons

Many Veterans, for their physical/mental well-being, like to work-out at facilities such as their local YMCA, Fuel Fitness and other gyms. It came as quite a shock when Fuel Fitness, in both Butte and Helena, suddenly closed with a permanently closed sign on the door.

Our communities of Dillon, Twin Bridges, Sheridan, Whitehall, Pony, Anaconda, Deer Lodge and Butte all have Honor Guards who do Veteran Funeral Details, Post Colors for special events/ceremonies, etc. Their service is appreciated and the families are always grateful that their deceased veteran was laid to rest with military honors performed by these Veteran Honor Guards. We who are in these Honor Guards are getting older and need you younger Veterans/ Auxiliary members to step forward, as our future replacements, to carry-on these special Honor Guard duties when we're gone. Please consider it as we all need you and will welcome you into our ranks.

Monday of this week will have seen the Kick-off of the Marine Toys For Tots Butte Campaign. We'll have folks attend who are our representatives from the areas of Dillon, Twin Bridges, White Hall, Harrison and Butte. MacKenzie River Pizza's owner Colin Higgins will have donated the pizzas for this event. TFT sponsors, helpers, news media, Mining City Christmas as well as the TFT staff will have gathered for this event. We get gifts from our donation boxes that mainly cover kids from 10 years old and younger. The money we receive from your donations is mainly used to purchase gifts for the kids from 11 years old and up through high school age. We appreciate both the gift and money donations as they make the difference for these kids on Christmas morning.

Concerning our SW MT Veteran's Home, located along Blacktail Loop south of Three Bears, Markovich Construction Site Superintendent Mike Aschman and General Foreman John Katka reported that the footing wall cement forms were stripped off, the walls were painted with waterproof coating and foam insulation panels were installed over that.

Tom Straugh, from Dillon said things are quiet there. Larry Spangberg from Deer Lodge said they had a large funeral for Veteran Don Beck. They still have Veteran's night at the Elks Lodge on the 11th of each month. Mark Morris who works at the prison, is the Toys For Tots Coordinator in Deer Lodge and has put some of the TFT's toy collection boxes out around town. The TFT Coordinator in Anaconda is Dave Fenchak who is also the Adjutant/Paymaster for the Marine Corps League there. He reports that they are meeting and getting ready to kickoff their Toys For Tots Campaign in Anaconda.

Here in Butte, from here until Christmas there will be many fun activities/events that will take place. We love to see our kids have fun and Halloween will be here in a few weeks. Until next time, take care.

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS AT UMW

Montana Western continues to honor the 50th Anniversary year of the passing of Title IX by sharing the stories and history of women's athletics at UMW. Today's story is of former UMW women's basketball player Cindy Farmer. On the basketball court, she earned all-conference honors twice and she was inducted into the Western Montana College Athletic Hall of Fame in 1996. In that same Hall of Fame class was Farmer's WMC teammate Chanelle Cooper.

Cindy Farmer - HOF Basketball Player (Player- '81-'85)
Cindy Farmer came to Western Montana College in the fall of 1981. She was part of an amazing recruiting class that Bulldog women's basketball coach Jim Corr had assembled.

Four of the six players in that recruiting class were Montana Class C all-stars. Farmer from Superior, Chanelle Cooper from Willow Creek, Molly Malone from Brady and Sharon Schall from Arlee.

Those players were probably on Corr's recruiting radar from their performances during the regular season, but he had a chance for some up-close recruiting in his own gym. Three of the four were competing in the 1980 Class C Western Division girl's basketball tournament hosted by Western Montana College.

Arlee won the title over Superior Saturday night, and then Willow Creek beat Superior in a Monday night challenge game to advance to state with Arlee. It wasn't long before high school rivals became college teammates.

Farmer majored in both business and, physical education/health, and credits Bonnie Sheriff and Dona Wallace as major role models. She showed her prowess in the classroom by earning academic all-conference honors. Farmer also managed to fit in a stint as sports editor of the campus newspaper, the Wescolite.

On the basketball court, she earned all-conference honors twice. She led the Bulldogs in scoring her junior (15.9 ppg) and senior seasons (15.4 ppg). In 1985, Farmer was fourth in the nation in free throw percentage (85 percent).

She was inducted into the Western Montana College Athletic Hall of Fame in 1996. In that same Hall of Fame class was Farmer's WMC teammate Chanelle Cooper.

Her teaching/coaching career began in Poplar, Mont. where she taught fifth through eighth grade, and coached basketball and track. From Poplar, Farmer moved to Belfry for 10 years where she taught, coached boys and girl's basketball, volleyball and for a time, served as athletic director.

From Belfry, she moved to Hardin where she still teaches and coaches and continues to impress. Farmer coaches girls basketball and boys and girls cross country. The Hardin girl's basketball team were Class A state runners-up three straight years. This past season, they share the Class A title with Billings Central because of the virus suspended state tournament.

Her girl's cross-country team won four-straight state titles. A fifth was stalled after the suspension of 2020 spring sports due to the Coronavirus pandemic. When asked about retirement, she simply sighed and said, "I'm not ready for retirement."

She was recently named the Montana Coaches' Association's (MCA) Class A Girl's Basketball Coach of Year. The basketball award will have good company in the trophy case. Farmer has won four MCA Cross Country Coach of the Year awards.

"I am so happy that I chose to attend Western Montana College after graduating from high school," Farmer said. "It was the right fit for me for a couple reasons. Western was a small school with quality education and a family atmosphere. I was recruited to play basketball by Coach Jim Corr and he is the main reason that I knew I was making the right decision. His passion for the game and the love he had for his players is an attribute that I learned from him and have incorporated in my own coaching philosophy. I thoroughly enjoyed my instructors, my teammates, and the support staff I encountered during my time at Western. Go Bulldogs!!"

Farmer and Cooper were among the many former Bulldogs in attendance at the Metra in March 2019 in Billings, Mont. when the Bulldogs won the 2019 NAIA, Division I Women's Basketball national championship.
