Patricia Ruth Poston Mild

Patricia Ruth Poston Mild passed peacefully on October 13 at her home in Twin Bridges, with family at her side.

Patty was born on June 26, 1948, to Roger and Ruth Poston in Kalispell, MT, joining older brother Ray. She attended school in Evergreen and Kalispell, graduating from Flathead High School in 1966. She then earned a degree in Elementary Education from Western Montana College in Dillon. Patty taught grade school in Kalispell and later at the rural school Valley View in Polson and Reichle in Glen. Later, she worked in real estate for many years while living in the Dillon area.

When she was thirteen, she got her first horse, Stormy, and thus began a lifelong love of horses which she passed on to all her children and grandchildren. Patty raised Quarter Horses and Paints. She showed and ran several horses on the racetrack and belonged to local horse groups, including the Montana Paint Horse Club. Patty passed on her love of horses and animals to her children and many 4H members as she volunteered as a 4H leader for many years. She helped put on many horse shows, including a couple of State 4H shows and was known for putting treats in the mailbox for the kids at the end of the trail class. She always made things fun.

During her childhood, her dad often worked construction away from home, so Patty, her mom, and her brother had many adventures camping, fishing, and hiking while visiting him in the summer. Some of her other favorite memories were at her parent's cabin on Echo Lake and her Aunt and Uncles cabin on Flathead Lake, swimming, boating, and waterskiing. Her love of camping, looking for rocks, and fishing with her family continued her whole life.

In October of 1971, she married Gary Mild in Kalispell and established Mild Fence Company. They soon bought a ranch north of Whitefish where their children, Sarah, Lydia, and Luke, were born. Many days were spent working hard, riding horses, packing a picnic, picking huckleberries, fishing and swimming at Stillwater and Dickey Lake, and visiting friends.

They later moved to ranches in Proctor, Dillon, Lima, and finally, property in Twin Bridges. During their marriage, they raised their children and partnered in their fence companies, including Mild Fence and Southwest Fence. They enjoyed travels around the state, New Zealand, Mexico, and Germany and visiting family around the U.S.

Patty's greatest joy was her children and grandchildren;
she loved family.

Her other joy was the Christmas holidays. She decorated the home so beautifully each year, baked family recipe cookies, and insisted the family was all together each year carrying on those traditions. She was the best gift giver and loved to give presents. She worked hard, was one of the strongest people we know, and will be greatly missed.
She was preceded in death by her parents, Ruth and Roger Poston.

She is survived by her husband Gary Mild of Twin Bridges; Aunts Carlene Peters and Marie Peters of Kalispell; brother Ray and his wife Karen Poston of Bigfork and her niece and nephew Amanda and Jeff; children Sarah Miller and her husband Dave and their children Leneva and Cooper of Polaris; Lydia McCracken and her husband Shawn of Powell Wyoming; Luke Mild and his wife Colette and their children Emma and Paxton of Powell. Plus many cousins whom she grew up with and were so close to her.

A private family graveside service will be held at Taylor Cemetery in Alder. Donations can be made to Beaverhead County 4H in memory of Patty.

I started up my Chevy and set out to get the mail. I drive my Silverado every noontime without fail.

Our black mailbox, just off the road, a half a mile away, sets on a row of mailboxes where the neighbors drive each day.

I hadn't left the driveway. She was waving me on down. My wife asked, "Can I go along and later drive to town?"

There ain't no way resisting an invitation from my gal. She'd be riding shotgun next to me. She's more than just my pal.

But then I saw Miss Daisy. She's our Labrador plus Poodle. I understand the proper name is simply Labradoodle.

Miss Daisy always sits at shotgun when she rides with me. I wondered who would win the spot. I couldn't wait to see.

I reached across the seat and opened-up the shotgun door. But I couldn't see Miss Daisy or my wife there anymore.

Did I really hear the tailgate slamming down on my old truck? They climbed back in the cargo bed. This had to be bad luck!

So, there I sat behind the wheel and feeling like a fool. Who says your wife at shotgun is the one unbroken rule.

I hollered back and asked her. "So, no shotgun for my wife?" She said, "I'll ride in back with Daisy, the love of my whole life."

Those words sounded like replacement by Miss Daisy who wears fur. And demoted to Miss Daisy's own personal chauffer.

Would nousey drivers look at us? Say, "They've been in a fight." If so, I figured they would be the Gladys Kravitz type.

Well, sure enough my cell phone buzzed while texts came flying in. The gossip traveled faster than the juiciest of sin.

One text, now from an exfriend, to be certain that I'll save. Said, "If your father knew, he would roll over in his grave."

My wife was laughing, near to tears, what she and Daisy caused. A case of misconception. A dose of daily flaws.

So, no matter what you're doing when your wife and dog step in. Just take a breath and suck it up. 'Cuz cowboy you can't win.

Election

By: MJ

Once again, we are having ugly personal attack ads that are coming from the people seeking a position somewhere within the government wanting to represent the people. Is this trash talk what you want or would you rather know what they will do if elected?

Questions: Is the election rhetoric about personal mistakes or is it about where the candidates stand on current issues that are troubling the country today. Is the candidate going to represent all the people and not just those in their party? Does your candidate believe in following the laws or do they think they can get into office and manipulate law? Are they going to get into office and accept monetary bribes?

Questions: Why is it so important for candidates to go deep into the sewer to personally trash their opponents? Is it not more important to know what the candidates will do for the people if elected? Does your candidate desire to spew trash talk rather than tell you what they will do for you and how they will represent you if nominated? What happened to be respectful, speak honestly, and use facts to make your point?

Does the person you vote for believe in following existing laws. Do they want to get into office and manipulate the law to fit their needs., or their party 'wants' regardless of the impact it will have on the people. What are your nominees' positions on important referendums that you will be voting on. Get a copy and read what they say as these law changes will have major impacts on many people via, emotions, loss of freedoms and monetary impacts.. This information is far more important for you to know then the personal garbage that is being thrown around by all parties. Do your homework.

Question: is the election about a person's mistakes or is it about where the candidate stands on the issues currently concerning our country. Have you ever made mistakes in your lifetime that you are not proud of?

Do we elect people to represent the whole or do we elect those that will only represent themselves, and their parties? Let's get off this ugly attack wagon and gather information that educates us on what our candidates will do for the people if elected.

Bozeman CWD sampling station hours to be extended on 2nd day of youth deer hunt

FWP staff available to help youth hunters

learn how to sample for CWD

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks staff in Bozeman will be available to help youth hunters learn how to sample their harvested deer for chronic wasting disease at the conclusion of Montana's two-day youth deer hunt.

The CWD sampling station at FWP's Bozeman office will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 20, and the station will have extended hours on Friday, Oct. 21, from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. Sampling stations provide FWP staff to help hunters collect and submit samples for CWD testing, which is paid for by FWP.

Montana's special two-day youth deer hunt is Oct. 20 and 21 and is open to youth hunters ages 10 to 15 who have taken hunter education or who are enrolled in the apprentice hunter program.

Hunters who would like help collecting samples are asked to bring their harvested animal unfrozen with at least 3 inches of neck attached, as well as a knife. Hunters will also be asked to provide the location coordinates of their harvest to help with CWD monitoring.

CWD is a contagious neurological disease that infects deer, elk and moose. It is always fatal, and there is no known cure. It was first detected in Montana's wild herds in 2017.

CWD sample submission is voluntary throughout Montana. If hunters want their harvested animal sampled, they can submit samples themselves by following steps listed at fwp.mt.gov/CWD or by visiting a CWD sampling station.

CWD sampling stations will be operated in various locations in Montana. For more information about sampling station hours and locations, and other information about CWD in Montana, visit fwp.mt.gov/CWD.

The Dillon Garden Club will host a workshop on Tuesday, October 18th, 6:00 pm at the Dillon Public Library.

The topic will be Fruit Trees: planting, harvesting, and pruning presented by Celine Beaucamp-Stout.

Club meeting will follow at 7:00 pm. All are invited to attend.

UMW Named "Hidden Gem College" Three Years in a Row

The University of Montana Western has been selected as a 2023 Hidden Gem College in a recent announcement by College Raptor, a leading college planning platform.

College Raptor is a website designed to help students, parents, counselors, and colleges resolve significant challenges in college planning. College Raptor is the only college search platform that enables students and families to discover quality, affordable college options based on personalized estimates of financial aid, scholarships, academic match, and acceptance odds at every four-year college in the country.

This selection recognizes UMW as one of the best colleges in the country, based on a combination of factors, including retention rates, graduation rates, student-to-faculty ratio, endowment per student, selectivity, and other key metrics as reported via the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) for the most recently available enrollment year.

"At College Raptor we recognize the challenges many students and families face when creating their college application lists," said William Staib, co-founder and CEO, College Raptor. "With our 2023 Hidden Gem Colleges, we chose to highlight great schools like UMW for their academic, financial, and social fit."

UMW offers in-state tuition of $2,329.35 per semester, WUE tuition of $3,494.17 per semester, and out-of-state tuition of $8,195.40 per semester. The fields of academic study at Montana Western include Biology, Business and Technology, Environmental Sciences, Education, English, Equine Studies, Health and Human Performance, Fine Arts, Mathematics, and History, Philosophy, and Social Sciences.

Students at the University of Montana Western enjoy a tight-knit community atmosphere and small class sizes where they work closely with peers and professors alike. Montana Western focuses on serving students, achieving academic excellence, and promoting experiential education.

UMW and the community of Dillon are an excellent choice for students to take advantage of the immersive learning opportunities offered by the Experience One program, where they will build critical and creative thinking skills to prepare for real-world job and graduate school opportunities.

For more information about Experience One and the University of Montana Western, or to schedule a visit, call 877-683-7331 or visit www.umwestern.edu.
