Claire V. (Marchesseault) Owen

On October 17, 2022, a five foot, 110 pound package of sugar, spice and TNT named Claire Owen, quietly and courageously slipped beyond the veil to claim our Maker's promise of everlasting life. She was 88.

Born Claire Valerie Marchesseault on Valentine's Day 1934, she came of age on the FS ranch in the Grasshopper Valley. It's said that tough times make tough people and Claire and her five siblings were living proof, growing up during the lean years of the Great Depression and World War Two - without electricity or running water - scratching ice off the inside of their bedroom windowpanes - reading by the light of kerosene lamps - standing in the back of their uncle's car all the way to Rainy Mountain for a rare day of skiing.

And yet, rumor has it that young Claire led her brothers into all kinds of adventurous and merry hijinks, only to magically disappear when the discipline was meted out. When asked what she remembered most about her youth, she jokingly replied, "Well… I washed a lot of dishes."

Despite a stint in finishing school, Claire eventually fell for the 'bad boy' of BCHS, who infamously wooed her by using a cigarette lighter to set her skirt on fire during class. Her marriage to Leroy Owen ignited a love of the open road, riding shotgun as Leroy hauled cattle all over the western United States and Canada.

Claire curtailed her travels a bit to raise two children - Donna and Bennett - who adored her, primarily because Rudyard Kipling was her main source of bedtime stories. When in doubt, Rikki Tikki Tavi was always a crowd pleaser and it surely inspired her kids to embark on their own adventures in later years. Claire peppered in her own words of wisdom from time to time: "Bennett, never ASK a girl if you can kiss her" and; "Donna, make yourself rare. The less people see you, the more of a mystery you become." Indeed, Claire was a very private person but those she cared for felt her love abundantly.

Claire earned her teaching degree at Western and later became a certified librarian. Once the kids were grown, her wanderlust ignited anew and she criss-crossed America, settling for short periods in places as diverse as Portland,Or, LA, Midland,Tx, Evanston,Wy and Atlanta,Ga to name a few. Eventually, she put down roots in Salt Lake to be near her daughter and spent her last years in Dillon.

Throughout her colorful life, Claire embraced two overriding passions. One was a love of ballroom dancing, a pastime she participated in as frequently as possible, even while lamenting that, "There are too few men who know how to lead."

But most importantly, she was an ardent and outspoken advocate of the American Ideal - small of stature, yet, just as our Founding Fathers, in matters of principle she stood like a rock.

Claire is survived by her children, Donna Poulton and Bennett Owen; grandchildren, Christopher and Eva Owen; brothers, Robert, Jules and Gordon(Tex)Marchesseault as well as an abundance of nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, Cora and Robert Dewey Marchesseau; sister, Estelle Blomquist; brother, James Marchesseault and niece, Brenda Weber.

A private reception will be held in her honor. Date, time and location to be announced.

This Week in Bulldog Athletics

The University of Montana Western will see three events this upcoming week. The Bulldog Cross Country team will be traveling to Grand Rapids, Michigan for a big meet. The Volleyball team will be hosting their Dig Pink game on Thursday night at 7 PM. The Bulldog Football team is back home for a big matchup with the No. 7 ranked team in the country.

VOLLEYBALL

The UMW Volleyball team is back on the court this week with a big home matchup with Carroll College. The Bulldogs are currently sitting in fifth in the conference standings, second in the Frontier in kills per set averaging 11.96, and rank third in blocks averaging 2.10 at the net per set. The Fighting Saints are slotted at one spot above the Bulldogs in the conference standings at fourth place and they average 20.13 digs per set, 11.45 kills per set, and average 1.92 blocks per set. The Bulldogs previously lost to Carroll College on Sept. 23 in a five set thriller that saw the Bulldogs come back to take the Saints to a fifth set.

Thursday @ Carroll College 7 PM MST

CROSS COUNTRY

The Montana Western cross-country teams are back in action this week after the Tony Banovich Invitational on Oct. 7. The Bulldog women's team came out of the race with a no score due to not having a full team and the Men's team placed second overall. This week, the Bulldogs will travel out to Grand Rapids, Michigan for the Great Lakes Invitational to see where they stack up against teams from across the NAIA.

FOOTBALL

The Bulldog football team (3-4) is back out on the field this week as they host no. 7 ranked College of Idaho. Western comes into the matchup after falling to Southern Oregon 49-14. COI comes into the contest after coming out on top over Montana Tech by a score of 27-24 on a last-minute touchdown. A win for the Bulldogs would give them their fourth win of the season and a win over a top ranked NAIA team. The Bulldogs are sitting in sixth overall in the conference standings. College of Idaho is undefeated and ranks first overall in the conference for yards per game and has only given up 89 points this season. The Bulldogs lead the conference in total offensive yards and in sacks.

Saturday vs. #7 College of Idaho 1 PM MST

Life: Inside and Out

Please join us for a seminar by Jennifer Jones, Ecologist/Project Manager of "Montana's Ecological Mapping, Monitoring and Assessment Program" on October 20 from 3:30 - 5:00 p.m. on the Montana Western campus in Block Hall 311.

Light refreshments will be served from 3:30 - 4:00 p.m. with the presentation starting at 4:00 p.m.

Ecologist Jennifer Jones oversees wetland and riparian related projects and field work in conjunction with Federal and State partners. Her background is in wetland and plant ecology, having spent the last 20 years working in dry and soggy areas in the Sierra Nevada and Rocky Mountains. She is currently the project manager for the Montana Ecological Mapping, Monitoring, and Assessment Group of the O'Connor Center for Rocky Mountain West.

For more information and to obtain a livestream Zoom link, please email bradley.wood@umwestern.edu.

On the Rocks Presents – The Collabatory at the U.S. Sheep Experiment Station by Dr. Hailey Wilmer

Please join us for a seminar by Dr. Hailey Wilmer, Rangeland Management Specialist in the USDA-Agricultural Research Service on October 27 from 3:30 - 5:00 p.m. on the Montana Western campus in Block Hall room 311.

The seminar will also be livestreamed from: tinyurl.com/4ndafcz9

Light refreshments will be served from 3:30-4:00 p.m. with the presentation starting at 4:00 p.m.

Dr. Wilmer is a social rangeland scientist studying the intersection of cultural, political and ecological systems and adaptive rangeland management. Originally from Montana, she earned her Ph.D. from Colorado State University in Rangeland Ecosystem Science in 2016. As Climate Hub Fellow, Hailey works with the RRRU and across USDA agencies and agriculture stakeholder groups on research that supports adaptive management in drought and extreme weather events. Hailey's research methods include qualitative and quantitative ecological monitoring that document the decision-making processes of family ranches in Colorado and Wyoming.

Secretary of State's Office wants Montana voters to be Vote Ready ahead of November General Election

Montana's midterm General Election is three weeks away, and state and local election officials are continuing to provide education and outreach to Montana voters.

The Voter Information Pamphlet sent to the mailboxes of voters from mid-September through mid-October was in production prior to the judicial order enjoining Montana's identification and registration laws. The Secretary of State wants Montana voters to be Vote Ready this November.

Please broadcast the following information to Montana voters for the 2022 November General Election:

Registration:

Registration will be available on Election Day (Tuesday, November 8) through 8 p.m.

Identification at polling place:

Before an elector is permitted to receive a ballot or vote, the elector shall present to an election judge a current photo identification showing the elector's name. If the elector does not present photo identification, including but not limited to a valid driver's license, a school district or postsecondary education photo identification, or a tribal photo identification, the elector shall present a current utility bill, bank statement, paycheck, notice of confirmation of voter registration issued pursuant to 13-2-207, government check, or other government document that shows the elector's name and current address.

Absentee ballots:

Absentee ballots were mailed to registered absentee voters on Friday, October 14 and must be received in the county election office no later than 8 p.m. on Election Day.

For more information, Montana voters may contact their local county election office or the Secretary of State's Elections & Voter Services Division.

Scale of Hope Film NightThursday , October 27

Join us for the film screening of The Scale of Hope at the Patagonia Outlet Dillon!

Doors Open: 6:00PM

Film Starts: 6:15PM

Tickets: Free and Open to the Public - Suggested $5 cash donation that will be going towards Forward Montana

We will have movie theater popcorn and beverages from Beaverhead Brewing Company. Forward Montana will have information for Montanans about the upcoming midterm elections and voter registration.

The film follows Molly as she prepares for an expedition in the Alaska Range while working to create a new climate narrative that centers her favorite question—What can I do to help?—with a surprising answer. It's a story about struggle, hope and what it will take to solve the greatest issue of our time.

We can't wait to see you there!

Voter Registration Help

The White Hat Coalition is once again helping folks register to vote in the upcoming election. Stan Smith will have registration forms available at the Big Sky Cinema and can assist if needed. No party politics, just assistance in getting registered. How you vote is your business. Just get out and vote!
