My eyes are glued up to the shelf, a brand-new pair of Mucks.
 They'd be in my possession, but I lack the certain bucks.

I could go without my Pepsi for a month or maybe two.

But the headache would be pounding like a freight train passin' through.

I've got my Visa plastic for emergencies and such.

The boots are kinda spendy. Do I really care that much?

I grab my precious cargo and I'm tingling to my roots.

The clerk says, "Hundred eighty." Must be gold in them there boots!

To purchase I can justify. It's more than just a treat.

No more sittin' in the saddle with my cold and frozen feet.

I've waited days to wear them. Time to saddle up Ol' Blue.

But my boots won't fit the stirrups. What's a broke cowboy to do?

The boots ain't never goin' back. I burned the dang receipt.

My wife will never know the cost. Is that what's called deceit?

The Co-op might be open. I've seen stirrups there to buy.

They close at 6:00. It's 6:05. No use to even try.

I'll drive out to the shoppin' mall. They've got a western store.

But their prices are extravagant, not for the country poor.

I'm riflin' through the stirrups. Find a pair that fits my Mucks.

I take 'em to the clerk. She says, "Two hundred twenty bucks."

This time I cough and choke on down my Wrigley's Spearmint chew. The clerk said, "Sure they're spendy, but they're made for guys like you."

I wonder what she meant 'cuz I ain't got the cash to spare.

I swear she meant hi-rollers with their nose up in the air.

Still, I bought the brand-new stirrups with my plastic, once again.

Does it hurt to use my Visa card, every now and then?

The smugish patrons, back in line, are giving me the stare.

They're prob'ly thinkin', "Poor cowboy." I hurry out of there!

I'm addin' up my purchases. Looks like four hundred bucks.

And with the Gov'ner's share I'm in the class of stupid clucks.

I burned the Visa card receipt. That's safe from where I stand.

I'm wonderin' now if my warm feet are worth the half a grand?

We would also like to remind all hunters we have a moral and ethical obligation to offer assistance to those in need. You just may save the life of an unsuspecting individual. Put yourself in that situation; you would want those driving by to stop.

With more weather being predicted for later this week, make sure you are prepared for the worst of worst scenarios. You never know out there when it's going to be your turn, needing assistance or having to spend the night out. "In the Business of Saving Lives", your Beaverhead Search and Rescue.

Tomorrow is Election Day and the most important thing to do is to get out and VOTE.

One race that will be decided in the election is the Sheriff's race. Having been in Law Enforcement for 29 years, I know that an effective Sheriff is essential to the peace of mind of the Citizens of Beaverhead County. In order to make good sound decisions that affect the citizens of Beaverhead County, YOUR Sheriff needs to have experience in Law Enforcement. This experience is needed to direct all of the employees of the Sheriff's Office. This direction includes Deputies, Dispatch Staff and Detention Officers.

In my opinion there is only one person that can effectively handle the Office of Sheriff and that is David Wendt. Over the last four months Under Sheriff Wendt has been handling the day-to-day operation of the Sheriff's Office. He has been very effective in filling in during my absence. Under Sheriff David Wendt has my full support for the Sheriff's position.

Please vote for DAVID WENDT and remember your vote does count.

The tour begins in Thessaloniki (Thessalonica), Macedonia (Macedonia), second largest city in Greece and a UNESCO World Heritage site. Founded in 315 BC, it is the country's cultural capital with ancient buildings, top museums, festivals, cultural events and a key political, economic, military, and transportation hub throughout its twenty-three centuries of history. Classical Greek antiquity (8th century BC and the 6th century AD) King Phillip of Macedonia, and his son Alexander the Great ruled the area from the city. The Roman Empire (27 B.C. to 476) Thessaloniki was a co-capital with Rome in the later years of the empire and the Edict of Thessalonica made Christianity the state religion of the Roman Empire. Early Jewish and Christian History, the city housed a major Jewish community until the middle of WWII, and it was one of the first places where Christianity was preached when Apostle Paul visited the city in 50/51 AD. Byzantine Empire (395 until 1453), was the eastern half of the Roman Empire, it survived over a thousand years after the western half dissolved. Thessaloniki has been called the "co-reigning" city of this empire, alongside Constantinople. Muslim Ottoman Empire, (1299-1922) Thessaloniki had more than thirty-five minarets and the White Tower of Thessaloniki, a symbol of the city, is an Ottoman building. Modern Greece, (1821-today) Learn about the history of wars, monarchy, dictatorship, military regime, and the self-governing country we see today. In addition to Thessaloniki, the tour will play out in stunning locations throughout the Macedonian plain, highlighting its rich history and beauty. Participants will be immersed in archeological sites, art, culture, religion, and nature. Tour beautiful villages, churches and ruins reflecting the best of its multicultural heritage. Stand in awe of natural wonders including majestic peaks, gorges, national parks, rivers valleys, wetlands, lakes, islands, and a biodiverse ecosystem of hundreds of flora and fauna. There will be many opportunities to sample some of the best and most delicious local food products during the travels such as meat, fish, cheese, wine, pastries, and much more.
