Dillon Jaycee 2022 Outstanding Woman Outstanding Young Woman Awards

Kelly Graham - Outstanding Young Woman

Ever since this woman moved to Dillon, she has been an active and positive member in the Dillon Community. She is always willing to give a helping hand. Whether it's planning a Jaycee get together or organizing a cleaning party, no matter what you can always count on her.

She's been in charge of the main booth over Labor Day weekend, director of little skiers, treasurer, secretary, director and Labor Day ticket chair for six years. She was also Jaycee president in 2020 and led the group during a difficult year. She kept the group organized and made sure we could support the community in a variety of different ways.

In 2019 her and her husband were the first ones to volunteer to take over a new event for the Jaycees, the Dillon Football League. They both continue to chair this event and make it an amazing and successful program for the community.

Not only is she active in the Jaycees but she is also part of The Beaverhead little league and the high school beaver booster club.

Kelly is a dedicated wife, mother of 4, full time employee here at Western and is a veteran of the United States Navy.

It is with great pleasure that I introduce the 2022 Outstanding Young Woman Award winner, Kelly Graham

Linday Buhr - Outstanding Woman

This award is going to a woman who embodies civic engagement and leadership. Who is valued as a professional, whose volunteerism is honorable and has made a positive and measurable impact on this community. Not to mention she has the biggest heart in Beaverhead county. If you need a safe place her home is one of those places where you will feel welcomed, and no judgment ever comes from her or her family.

This woman is involved with her church, Casa Can, Hand and Hand Preschool, The City of Dillon ARPA Board, City of Dillon Police Department Board and the Barrett Hospital Foundation Board. Not to mention she does one of the hardest things in our community of being a foster parent for the past 20 years, to those children in need of a safe place.

She is a devoted wife, mother, daughter, family member and a top notch friend. She is a true Montana woman who enjoys hiking, fishing and hunting all over Beaverhead County. Lindsay is an inspiring and giving person who never expects anything in return.

It is my honor to introduce the 2022 outstanding woman of the year, LINDSAY BUHR.

Grounds Chairman, leading the July 4th fireworks show for over eight years, and serving as 2022 Rodeo Chairman in his current and final Jaycee membership year. As Rodeo Chairman, he spearheaded and oversaw several fairground infrastructure improvements including new fencing and electrical work in the Jaycee "Gold Buckle Club," often working 18 hour days, occasionally solo, to finish rodeo projects. His tireless work helped contribute to one of the most successful Dillon Jaycee Rodeos in years. He will continue his rodeo representation for the Dillon Jaycees by attending Montana Circuit Finals in November and National Rodeo Finals in December. In 2013 he received the "Spark" award for his eager involvement in many projects during his first year as a Jaycee, but has continued that spark in both small and large ways during his entire Jaycee tenure.

Besides his active membership with the Jaycees, for over five years he has served on the Board of Directors for the Montana Mining Association (MMA), attending MMA meetings and conferences both in Montana and in Nevada, and preserving local mining history by collecting historic mining equipment. He has recently been involved in the Dillon Amateur Hockey League helping grade the rink and attending drop-in hockey. In 2021, after tireless practice and studying, he earned his pilot's license and becoming involved in the aviation community by flying and fueling at local airports and attending aviation events. Still not sure if he is safer on the air or on the ground. In his spare time you can often find him helping a friend or neighbor with a project. He is always quick to offer his equipment, expertise and help to anyone in need.

Distinquished Service Award - Fred Chouinard

Born in Butte, Montana, he graduated from Butte Central High School in 1971. He graduated from Western Montana College in 1976 with a degree in education. During his college tenure, he married Brenda, also from Butte, and started a family, while also working afternoon shift at the Berkeley Pit in Butte.

His first teaching stint was at Willow Creek, where he taught coached, and drove school bus for 14 years. He obtained his master's degree in school administration from Montana State University in 1988. He subsequently accepted the position of elementary school principal at Absarokee, where he was an active PTA member and was named as Educator of the Year in 1995. He also served as President of the South-Central School Administrators in 1999. In 1998, he became superintendent and continued to support and participate in all aspects of the school and community.

Brad Reis, Owner

When the Superintendent position at Beaverhead County High School became available, he saw an opportunity to be closer to his roots and family in Butte, to reconnect with friends in the Dillon and Butte areas, with the added bonus of being closer to the area where he enjoyed hunting and fishing throughout his life.

As Superintendent, he became involved in the school community and its activities, attended plays, concerts, and nearly every sporting event. In addition, he volunteered to assist at track meets, judge speech meets, and other activities that were not responsibilities related to his job. He and his wife continue to support BCHS and are members of the Beaver Booster Club.

Community involvement has been the focus of his and his family's lives. Since his arrival in Dillon 19 years ago, he has been an active member of the community. He served several terms on the Beaverhead Chamber of Commerce and Southwestern Montana YMCA boards; was President of the DUI Task Force; currently serves as President of the Beaverhead Chapter of Pheasants Forever since 2018; and continued his decades-long Lion's Club membership that began in Absarokee and continued with the€ Dillon Lion's Club, where he has been President since 2017. Lion's Club activities include a focus on the early detection and screening of vision problems of students in schools throughout the area and Montana Youth Challenge; depending on financial need, students are offered funding to help cover the cost of vision testing and eyeglasses if needed. Additional activities include the fundraisers of a Maine lobster sale, and offering a meal in conjunction with the Dinner in the Park Series sponsored by the Southwestern Montana Arts Council; a fall and spring dedicated roadside area cleanup project and membership in the Beaverhead Chamber of Commerce. The Lion's Club has supported the Rotary Bike Path, Dillon YMCA, annual community Halloween Party, and annually "adopts" a family in Beaverhead County that needs help to have a better Christmas. He has also volunteered for many years at the Dillon Jaycee Rodeo, checking ID's and selling rodeo tickets. He is currently Chairman of the Fox Run Special Improvement District research committee regarding paving of the Fox Run Subdivision.

He and his wife are members of St. Rose of Lima Parish. They have two children, Dustin and Nicki, three granddaughters and one grandson.

Fred has been an active member in this community, giving generously of his time not only for the past 19 years, but still continuing to serve. Anywhere he can, this year's Distinguished servant award recipient is Fred Chouinard

Second annual Gala for BTC406

The Be the Change 406 Coalition honored individuals who make a difference in the lives of Beaverhead County youth during the second annual Awards Gala in the Lewis and Clark Room at University of Montana Western the first week of November. The BTC 406 Coalition focuses on decreasing substance use among youth through collaboration, education, and advocacy.

"The annual Gala is the opportunity for the Be the Change 406 Coalition, Dillon Elementary School District #10, and Project AWARE to say a well-deserved thank you to those who make an important contribution to Beaverhead County kids," said Dillon Elementary District Superintendent Randy Shipman, the evening's emcee. Interspersed among some groan inducing "dad jokes", Shipman coordinated a broad range of presenters and recipients sharing the stage.

The "true stars of the night", Shipman said, are members of the 42-member strong BTC Youth Coalition made up of Dillon Middle School and Beaverhead County High School students. Project .AWARE Coordinator and Youth Coalition advisor Andrea Schurg singled out four students for the annual Student Service Awards: Braxtyn Turney, Abbi Lemelin, Briley Alberi, and Jacob Harvey. The Youth Coalition has garnered state and national acclaim for its' diverse projects and the sheer number of students engaged in activities, according to Schurg. "These students make an important difference today which will impact our students in the future."

Local education representatives Jarred Krueger, Trudi Korpi, and Channon Williams received Youth Impact Awards. They were joined by Dillon Police Chief Jeremy Alvarez who made a special Youth Impact Award presentation to former Chief Donnie Guiberson, "someone who's made an incredibly positive impact on our youth, our entire community, and me."

Pioneer Federal Savings and Loan is an "organization we can always rely on to help us with special activities for our youth", BTC 406 Prevention Specialist Kim Martinell said, as she provided the Corporate Community Impact Award to Pioneer President/CEO Phil Willett, and Pioneer's Board Members Jean Bergeson, and Spence Hegstad.

Charise Lemelin, Clinical Coordinator for the Yellowstone Boys and Girls Ranch received the coveted individual Community Impact Award. Lemelin is someone who often "works behind the scenes as a tireless advocate for Beaverhead County youth and families," according to BTC 406 Chair Katherine Buckley-Patton. "Charise is a strong woman who stands up for herself but an even stronger woman as she stands up for everyone else."

A final group of awards targeted four Outstanding Individuals whose contribution and connection to area youth was broad ranging. The awards touched on trustworthy COVID pandemic medical professionals: Morgan Evans, M.D. and Sue Hansen, RN; along with long-term school Psychologist Sue Osborne, and ever ready to lend a helping hand Matt Christiansen. Kee Christiansen received the award on his father's behalf.

The crowd viewed a slide show that highlighted different events during the prior year as BTC 406 worked on their mantra of "Empower Youth. Engage Parents. Eliminate Substance Misuse." It included the ever popular "Drive-On-In" movie nights, partnering with the YMCA, the Red Carpet video project, engagement with state and national prevention programs, monthly meetings, social media promotion, bench ads throughout Dillon, decorated class doors for Red Ribbon Week, and a host of other activities. "This is all possible because of the support of community members like you", Martinell told the crowd.

The evening ended with Buckley-Patton and Shipman jointly urging those attending to "get engaged, get connected, get involved. Be the Change is about your child in your community growing up substance free. We ask you to join our cause, not a committee!"

For more information go to the website: bethechange406.org, call Kim Martinell at 406.596.1284 or drop by our new office at 124 S Montana St, Dillon.
