Dillon Public Library Host Murder Mystery

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Sleuths of all ages gathered on Saturday, the 5th of November as they tried to solve the case of who did it. It was the Dillon Public Libraries Annual Murder Mystery Dinner.

Guests arrived at 5 P.M. for a cocktail hour and a chance to interact with the cast as they could ask them questions and try to solve the mystery. Guests would interact with characters, ask them questions, and take notes if anything suspicious came to mind.

Dinner started at 6 P.M. and along with dinner you observed the events unfold as a play was performed loosely on the formation of the Dillon Public Library and how it came to be with the help of Andrew Carnegie. A few members of Dillon saw the need for the library and pushed for a building to be built. But a few people never wanted this to happen: the Pompous Ass George Willingham III and the Gold Diggins Son of a Gun Henry Plummer.

As the play went along you would see citizens terrorized by Mr. Plummer and his boss George Willingham as laws are enacted to stop their building of the library. Citizens would be thrown in jail for using words like Grants and Library. As the night progressed you would see Mr. Willingham fall dead of what he proclaimed as too much Viagra, but would it be from too much Viagra or from poisoning. Those cookies delivered by Ella Minnow Pea did him in. Who baked the cookies? What was in them was almond, a major clue to all. The night wrapped up and guests made the best educated guess of who did it.

After some dessert and a quick Q&A the audience made their best guess, with Ella Minnow Pea being the one who murdered Mr Willingham. Fun was had by all those in attendance. It was a great fundraiser for the library and something to look forward to in the future.

The actors and parts they played are:

- Goerge willingham III- Bob Cannady
- BF White- Bill Laursen
- Henry Plummer- John Mangels
- Andrew Carnegie- Mike Weldon
- Minnie Smith- Meghan Mangels
- Ella Minnow Pea- Alison Bramlet
- Mary Hooker- Beatrice Penn
- Mary Innes- Jessica Kidd

In Search of Anna Bliven's Tombstone

Anna Bliven, age 11, died in January 1883 on a train between Laramie and Sherman, Wyoming. We think she and her family were returning to Dillon from a visit to relatives in New York. Anna was likely buried in Poindexter Cemetery a few miles south of Dillon. Anna's brother James was buried there the next month, her sister Lenita in 1888, and their father in 1892. In 2017 stones for these three were among several moved from the abandoned Poindexter Cemetery to Mountain View Cemetery. We understand Anna's stone was later discovered by someone tilling farmland. We would like to see Anna's stone placed with those of her family at Mountain View Cemetery. If anyone knows the whereabouts of Anna's stone please email Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society at beaverheadhunters@gmail.com.

Veteran's Corner Update #177

By Mike Lawson

Greeting to those of you who read my SW MT Veteran update articles. I'm writing this column on this past Sunday evening. I was at a Kogodus Retreat at the Men's Deerlodge State Prison, that took place from Friday afternoon to Sunday, at 12:00 noon. This is a Lutheran spiritual retreat similar to the Catholic's Cursillos Retreat and the Methodist's Walk to Emmaus Retreat. There were about 24 inmates who signed up and attended. A number of these guys were veterans. I couldn't help thinking that if we only had the Veteran's Court, like we now have in Butte and a few other cities in Montana, they could have had the opportunity to apply and stayed out of prison. Most of our veterans who are going through the Veteran's Court program, are veteran's who committed a crime while under the influence of drugs or alcohol. This program is being conducted across the USA. It has a success rate of 70% of the veterans who graduate from it, never reoffend and make a very positive life change, without ever going to prison.

The big event this week is Veteran's Day, which is a day that America honors their Veterans. America's freedom has, from it's very beginning and through it's 300 plus years of existence, remained free, because of being defended by it's veterans. Many gave the ultimate sacrifice of their lives, and also being wounded, both physically and mentally. Would we do it again, is a question that if asked to any of these veterans, from the 1700's to and through the future, would give a resounding yes!! This Friday, November 11th, will see ceremonies and veteran events taking place, in many of our SW MT communities. Many businesses will be giving Veteran discounts and free meals. These gestures, are all appreciated by we who are Veterans. It's a welcome home gesture that makes us glad that we are back home. We grieve and pay tribute to those who were never able to come home, because they made the ultimate sacrifice.

Our SW MT Veteran's Home will see the Veteran's Honor Guard visit them on Veteran's Day and will do "A Tribute to our Flag" Ceremony, in each of the 4 cottages that are open. The Honor Guard will also do Military Honors at St Ann's Church for Veteran Bob Kovacich, a much beloved musician/singer in the Butte area. The Honor Guard will then go to both the Big Sky Senior Living and The Springs at Butte, to do the "A Tribute to our Flag" ceremony. Earlier in the week the Honor Guard will join with the Exchange Club and visit the East Middle School and teach Flag etiquette as well as the folding of the American Flag. Later that same day they will demonstrate folding of the flag to the Scouts at the 1st Presbyterian Church. On the 9th, American Legion Post #1, at their Post #1 Hall, is putting on a dinner to honor the Veteran students at MT Tech. The Honor Guard will post the colors for this event. It is a busy week for our SW MT United Veteran's Honor Guard.

Cold low temperatures are forecast for this week. I'll be in Chandler, Arizona, (much warmer) attending a Viet Nam Veterans group reunion. These reunions are rejuvenating. Seeing old friends and veterans, from a group you were with, some 50 plus years ago, is joyful and healing at the same time. We have a FaceBook page and are able to keep in contact, using that medium, throughout the year. If you who are Veterans, can get in contact with the military outfits you were with, you would probably find a lot of joy and satisfaction in doing so.

I'll close for now. Until next time, take care.
