Western Celebrates First-Generation Students

To celebrate the sixth annual National First-Generation College Student Day, the University of Montana Western is recognizing its first-generation students, faculty, and staff.

"First-generation" refers to students whose parents have not obtained a four-year college degree. The Montana Western TRIO program provides them with a support system to help them navigate the landscape of higher education.

Kaley Paulsen

Kaley Paulsen is a junior at Montana Western from Idaho Falls, Idaho. She's majoring in Business Administration with a minor in Managerial Accounting. Paulsen is proud to be a first-generation student and hopes her journey can set an example for others.

"To me, being a first-generation student means that I get to set an example for my family, both current and future, and that it is possible to get a great education no matter your beginning circumstances," said Paulsen.

Paulsen credits the TRIO advisors for helping her understand how to register for classes, apply for student loans, and for setting an example of how to be a successful college student.

Layne Cooney

Layne Cooney is a first-year student from Potomac, Montana who graduated from Hellgate High School in 2022. Cooney is majoring in Physical and Health Education K-12 and is a member of the UMW football team.

"My entire life I've always been told college was an option. I went back and forth between wanting to attend college, but I wasn't totally set on the idea until my senior year," said Cooney. "I received an offer to play football at UMW and that is when I made the decision to pursue a college education."

Cooney said that without scholarship opportunities from playing football he wouldn't have been able to afford to attend college.

Kayla Schmeisser

Kayla Schmeisser was born in Dillon and graduated from Montana Western with a B.S. in Business Administration and a B.A. in Fine Arts. She became Program Coordinator for UMW's Lucy Carson Library in 2021.

Being a first-generation student has provided numerous enriching opportunities for Schmeisser, from traveling abroad studying art to working with students at the library. Earning a degree has played an integral role in her life and she is grateful to be in a position that provides support to current students.

Breanne Smith

Breanne Smith is a first-generation student who received a Master of Science degree in Experimental Psychology from Montana State University and has worked as an Adjunct Instructor at Montana Western since 2015. In search of a deeper understanding of life and consciousness, she spent many years studying Cognitive Psychology. In the future, her goal is to research Alzheimer's disease and amnesic memory loss.

For information about the TRIO program, please contact TRIO Advisor and Mentor Coordinator, Dr. Michael Bartch: michael.bartch@umwestern.edu or 406-683-7315.

Montana Western Sports

The Montana Western Bulldog women's basketball team won their matchup against Corban University (Ore.) by a score of 69-60. "Once again, our bench was terrific tonight whether it was providing great defensive energy or some timely offense." Head Coach Lindsay Woolley stated after the win.

Brynley Fitzgerald led the Bulldogs with 22 points and eight rebounds, shooting 50 percent from the three-point line. She also added on two assists and two steals.

The Bulldog Women's Basketball team moves to 3-1 on the season after 77-52 win over Bushnell University.

Jordan Sweeney had an impressive night as she had 22 points, five rebounds, two assists, and a steal. Brynley Fitzgerald had 16 points, seven rebounds, a block, and a steal.

The Montana Western Bulldog volleyball team defeated Carroll College in their opening game of the Frontier Conference Tournament in a five-set thriller. The Bulldogs rallied together for another victory, this time against nationally ranked No. 15 Montana Tech. The Bulldogs defeated the Orediggers 3-1 to punch their ticket to the Frontier Conference Tournament Final. Today's wins mark the Bulldog's first tournament wins since 2013 and 2002.

The Bulldog Women's volleyball team lost in the Frontier Conference Tournament Championship to Rocky Mountain College by a score of 3-1. Despite the loss, the Bulldogs battled hard point after point.

Final Season Notes

Smith found herself on the single season leaderboards falling in third in UMW history for single season kills (305) and kills per set (2.88). Vogl was just shy of breaking the single season block record, totaling 96 this season. Despite falling to a tough Rocky Mountain team, the Bulldogs had their first double-digit win season since 2016, finishing up 12-17 overall. The Bulldogs had their highest winning percentage since the 2005 season when the Bulldogs went 16-13 on the season.

Dillon Middle School News

Here's the Dillon Middle School News for the week of November 14-18, 2022.

The lunch menu is as follows: Monday, today, we will enjoy sub sandwiches and chips. Tuesday, potato tacos will be served with trimmings. Wednesday we will have local beef hamburgers and coleslaw. Thursday, chicken Alfredo served with Caesar salad will be enjoyed. And Friday, we will have the seventh grader's class choice, which is Stromboli and mac and cheese.

We have results from last week's boys' basketball games… Unfortunately, last Monday's game against Anaconda was cancelled due to snow. Last Tuesday the boys traveled to Butte East. Both 7A and 7B won, as well as 8A. 8B lost but only by 3 points. Great job guys on your first game.

This week in boys' basketball, the "B" teams travel to Deer Lodge today, Monday. The bus leaves at 2:00 PM. The 7th B team will play at 4:00 PM followed by 8th B at 5:00 PM. The games will be played in the Community Center. Then on Tuesday, the teams will host Montana City and East Helena. The "A" teams will play East Helena, while the "B" teams will play Montana City. "B" teams will begin the evening at 4:00 PM, followed by the "A" teams at 5:00 PM. The seventh grade will play in the DMS gym, while the 8t grade will compete in the Parkview gym.

This week is girls' cross-training, girls will participate in weight training here at the middle school. Eighth graders will lift weights on Monday and Thursday, while seventh will train on Tuesday and Friday. Remember that release time is 5:00 PM except Friday, when the release time is 4:00 PM.

Student Council hosted the first school dance since Covid shut down so many activities. The dance was held November 4th and was well attended by middle school students. The theme was neon, and students did such a great job dressing up. Student council provided glow stick necklaces and bracelets to add to the students' attire, and the gym was filled with glowing lights. A big thank you to our new music teacher, Mr. Johnson for DJ-ing the dance and to all of our chaperones. Fun was had by all, and we look forward to our next dance…which will be held sometime in the spring after flu season.

Life can sometimes be hard. What's hard on adults is just as hard, if not more, on kids. Resilience, the ability to adapt to challenges, is the most important tool a parent can give a child. Learn more about resilience by joining the Beaverhead County ACEs Task Force. We're focused on building healthy families in our community.

UMW Presents First "O. Alan Weltzien Writers Series" Event on Nov. 17

The English Department at the University of Montana Western is pleased to announce the return of its popular visiting writers series after a two-year hiatus.

UMW Professor Emeritus, Dr. O. Alan Weltzien, created and led the original series, formerly known as "Dances with Words" for many years up until his retirement. The first event of the academic year in the relaunched series, now titled the "O. Alan Weltzien Writers Series" in his honor, will be held on Thursday, November 17 at 7:00 p.m. at the Bulldog Lounge in the Student Union Building on the UMW campus and will feature Dr. Weltzien as the inaugural visiting writer.

Dr. Weltzien has published eleven books and four chapbooks over his long career. His recent book "Savage West: The Life and Fiction of Thomas Savage" (U. Nevada Press, 2020), is a biography of the neglected Montana novelist Thomas Savage.

Dr. Weltzien has remained busy with writing even in retirement, and in 2022 alone he has published two chapbooks and one book: "Through the Basement of Time," a poetry chapbook (Finishing Line Press), "When The Smiles Stopped," a long prose essay (chapbook, FootHills Publishing), and "On The Beach: Poems 2016 – 2021" (Cirque Press). He will read selections from each of these at the event.

The event is free and open to the public and Dr. Weltzien's publications will be available for purchase provided by Debbie Sporich from The Bookstore.

Zoning Board: Special Meeting. Nov.9, 2022

By: MJ

Zoning Compliance Certificate

2022-027 – BEMS, [Beaverhead Emergency Service] Addition @ 300 East Reeder.

On the application there was no set back identified. This is required by the zoning document ordinance.

A representative speaking on behalf of BEMS stated they were aware of the lot line issue. He went onto explain why it was not showing. He expressed this build is essential due to the increasing demand on the ambulance service.

Chairman Stoker stated that the board must follow the zoning document and could not vote on with the absence of information on lot line. The application would have to be taken to the Variance Board for approval. Note: Thanks to the board for following the laws. Sometimes following the laws presents a burden for the applicant, however if the laws are followed, there will be equal opportunity for everyone.

Director of Operations Mr. Hazelbaker spoke of this application being unique and for the board to not approve it may put the ambulance in jeopardy. He will get a meeting with Variance Board next week. After that meeting there will be a public hearing. It may or may not be until mid-December before the application will be finalized, explained Mr. Hazelbaker.

Mr. Graham, a board member stated that this application should be allowed and that changes in the zoning document may need to be made to accommodate issues such as this in the future.

Zoning Board voted to deny Compliance Certificates 2022-027 BMS addition. It now goes to the Variance Committee.
