John "Big Dad" Tutsch

On Friday, November 11, 2022, John "Big Dad" Tutsch, 62, passed peacefully at home in Alder, Montana. As the dutiful provider that he was, his wishes to be surrounded by his children and grandchildren were honored.

Big Dad was born in Anaconda, Montana and spent much of his early years in Dillon. Those who knew him, know he played just as hard as he worked. He showed his interest in business when he opened "R Place," a movie store that was right above the still-standing, Sump Bar, in Sheridan.

John first became a father at 20 years old when his namesake, Johnny was born. His big heart lent refuge to many wandering kids, as such he earned the name and title, Big Dad. When his daughter, Aspen, was born in 1999, he loved and led her with pride. He cherished his time with all of his kids.

Big Dad raised his kids to have a deep love for the outdoors, starting with teaching his son to fish in California, they spent 4 years in Nevada. Once back in Sheridan, he took to working construction with JDL and eventually owned Maddison Meats, famous for his jerky and sausage. He went on to provide other businesses with his butcher skills throughout the rest of his life.

Most of us can picture Big Dad in his Green Bay Packers baseball hat and sleeveless shirt, his classic mustache always making him recognizable in HIS chair at Chicks or Melrose bar.

The witty sense of humor and deep belly laugh that were classically "him" will echo through our memories of the times we got to share.

His carefree nature showed in one of his many catchphrases, "What are they gonna do, make me ugly?" "Girls give me warts," and "I'll shoot ya in the leg."

He never missed an opportunity to take Charisse up into the hills in Big Red, just to make sure the reservoir didn't dry up overnight.

Big Dad enjoyed busting snow drifts while "giving her the onion," and in his opinion, the opening day of hunting season should forever be honored as a national holiday.

He is survived by his bride of 25 years, Charisse Tutsch; oldest son Johnny (Lauren) Tutsch; daughter Aspen (Mike) Clark; sons Lance (Phoebe) & Dustin Bock; grandkids Jaida & Ryder Tutsch, Wilder, Lilah & Lyla Bock; Connor & Kimber Clark; brothers Tom (Lynette) Currie & Mike Tutsch; nieces Wendy (Carlton) Bilingslea, Collette (Barry) Kothbauer, Loralie (Denton) Campbell and Michelle Currie.

Predeceased by parents Donna Gram and Earl Tutsch.

Loved by all, near and far. Rest in love Big Dad. We'll miss you.

Please send condolences to PO Box 225, Alder, MT 59710.

Celebration of life at Chick's December 3, 2pm.

Cross-Country Scholar-Athletes

The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) released the 2022 Daktronics NAIA Men's and Women's Cross-Country Scholar-Athletes on Monday.

The 2022 list features 467 men and 609 women student-athletes that achieved at least a 3.5 cumulative grade point average (GPA) at their institution. In order to be nominated by an institution's head coach or sports information director, a student-athlete must maintain a minimum grade point average of 3.5 on a 4.0 scale, must appear on the eligibility certificate for the sport and have attended one full year at said institution.

Montana Western saw three athletes earn NAIA Daktronics Academic Scholar-Athlete honors. Mason Baseley and Liz Varner were named from the women's cross-country team and Isaiah Powell was named from the men's cross-country team.

Dillon Cubs Potato Fundraiser

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The Dillon Cubs have started a fundraiser for the upcoming baseball season. With Andy Bartlome as the new coach for this upcoming season a fundraiser meeting kicked off the event Wednesday night at the Keltz Arena.

The fundraiser will be a potato fundraiser, each Cub will be selling 30lb boxes of frozen french fries, tater tots, and hashbrowns. The boxes will cost $25 each. If you would like to contribute to the fundraiser but don't have a use for that many potato products you can also choose to donate a box to the local food bank.

If you would like to place a personal order you can contact Andy or any Cubs member. The orders will be ready for pickup on December 16th at Turney Repair and Towing in Dillon. Support of this fundraiser will help keep the cost down for Cubs players and go to travel expenses, tournament fees, new equipment, umpires, and much more. If you have any questions feel free to contact Andy Bartlome at 406-925-1910.

"Toast to our Absent Members"

The first Sunday in December marks the day we pay our respects to Elks before us. When we initiate new members, we offer a "Toast to our Absent Members," promising new members "we will never forget them." Fulfillment of this promise is key to an Elks existence.

This date is saved for our predecessors, without whom we would have neither Lodge, nor Brotherhood, nor all we share as Elks.

The Dillon Elks Lodge will be conducting an annual Memorial Service on Sunday, December 4 at 2PM in the Lodge Room. The public is invited to this event and a reception with refreshments will follow the service.

Court order changes wolf hunting season, effective immediately

On Tuesday, a District Court in Lewis and Clark County issued a temporary restraining order impacting some of Montana's wolf hunting and trapping regulations. The changes go into effect immediately.

The changes outlined in the temporary restraining order are as follows:
Reinstitutes wolf management units (WMU) 110, 313, and 316 as they existed in the 2020 wolf regulations. WMU 110 borders Glacier National Park and WMUs 313 and 316 are north of Yellowstone National Park

Reinstitutes the quotas for WMU 110, 313, 316 as they existed in the 2020 wolf regulations, which are two wolves in WMU 110 and one wolf each in WMU 313 and 316. Currently, one wolf has been harvested in WMU 313 and no wolves have been harvested in WMU 316 and 110. Wolf hunting and trapping in WMU 313 is now closed. Restricts all hunters and trappers to harvesting five wolves total per person, per season.

Prohibits the use of snares as a legal method of take for trapping wolves. Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks will make legal arguments in this case at a hearing scheduled for Nov. 28. The court has set the temporary restraining order to expire on Nov. 29.

"We have a healthy and stable population of wolves in Montana," said FWP Director Hank Worsch. "We've proven we can manage wolves across the state and will continue to do so. We will comply with the judge's order and look forward to the opportunity to defend good science and management strategies."

Game wardens seek information on elk killed illegally near Big Sky

Game wardens with Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks are seeking information on an elk that was killed illegally near Big Sky.

Wardens initially received a tip via FWP's violation reporting hot line, 1-800-TIP-MONT, reporting that an elk was killed around 9 a.m. on Nov. 10 on private land without the landowner's permission. The site was on Chief Joseph Trail in Big Sky.

Wardens located what was left of the elk near the road. The tenderloins and half of the backstraps had been left with the carcass and wasted. The elk was a spike bull. Harvesting spikes in this hunting district, HD 304, is only allowed for youth hunters and disabled adult hunters with a permit to hunt from a vehicle.

The person who shot the elk was reported as a white man in his 50s of average height, with a round face and a short graying beard. He was seen with six Hispanic men packing out the elk in white garbage bags. They carried the elk to two new Polaris Ranger UTVs—one black, the other camo—both with four-door hard cabs.

Anyone with possible information about this case is encouraged to visit myfwp.mt.gov/fwpPub/tipmont to provide details or call the FWP violation reporting hot line at 1-800-TIP-MONT. They may be eligible for a cash reward of up to $1,000.

The Whole Kit and Kaboodle

The Wood Bank's 7th year since organizing as a local charity to continue the ministry of providing gifts of firewood to warm the homes of people in need. More than 40 households each year in Beaverhead County benefit from the firewood that is cut, split, and delivered by volunteers, with the financial support of many more individuals, businesses, and organizations in our community.

Sale of raffle tickets to win "The Whole Kit and Kaboodle" fly tying kit has begun. Included is a custom workbench, a Regal vise with light and magnifier, two Herter's vises, a collectible Uncle Bob's fly box, an instruction book, and all tools and supplies needed, from feathers to forceps and thread to glue, in handy storage boxes. It has everything you need to start tying fishing flies for fun and profit. The kit was donated to the Wood Bank by David Hooks, a former Wood Bank delivery driver. One lucky winner will be chosen on December 15.

Raffle tickets will be available at Womack's Printing Place and from Wood Bank volunteers. For more information about the Wood Bank and the raffle, call 406-596-3690.
