January 15 is deadline for pheasant release applications

Applications are being accepted for the 2023 pheasant release program through Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks Upland Game Bird Enhancement Program (UGBEP). Guided by statute, pen-raised birds are released in areas suitable for ring-necked pheasants with the intent to enhance wild pheasant populations. Landowners interested in releasing pen-reared pheasants have until Jan. 15 to submit an application.

Projects must comprise at least 100 contiguous acres of land and contain a combination of suitable habitat components – including cover and food – that pheasants need to survive. Suitable habitat includes a combination of small grains, idle grasses and forbs such as lands enrolled in the Conservation Reserve Program (CRP), and effective winter cover, including shrubby or riparian habitats adjacent to food sources.

Eligible UGBEP pheasant releases take place on agricultural lands east of the Continental Divide but are ineligible to be released in Fergus, Richland or Roosevelt counties because of Administrative Rule. Lands enrolled in the UGBEP pheasant release program must allow free public access to hunt upland game birds during the season the releases take place.

Application for releases must be received at FWP's headquarters in Helena no later than Sunday, Jan. 15. Applicants will be notified in late March of their enrollment status and the number of pheasants pre-authorized for release. Applicants are responsible for obtaining pheasants for release either by raising birds on their own or by purchasing from National Poultry Improvement Program certified stock. Approved applicants will be reimbursed at a rate established in March. Pheasants eligible for release through UGBEP will take place between Aug. 1 and Sept. 15.

Hunting preserves, lands that host a commercial hunting enterprise and lands where hunting rights are leased or paid for are not eligible.

For more information and to download an application form, visit UGBEP's web page at <https://fwp.mt.gov/ugbep> and click on PHEASANT AND TURKEY RELEASES. You may also contact Debbie Hohler, UGBEP coordinator, at 406-444-5674 or dhohler@mt.gov.

FWP seeks public comment on open water fishing contest proposals

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is seeking public comment on open water fishing contests proposed for the 2023 season. Participants must comply with state fishing regulations, including daily and possession limits.

Applications for fishing contests were approved, approved with conditions or denied by the FWP Fisheries Division in Helena. Conditions placed on contests may help to minimize fish mortality, regulate harvest, reduce user conflicts and require additional access site maintenance when needed.

Information on the proposed fishing contests can be found on the FWP Fishing Contest webpage, <https://fwp.mt.gov/fish/regulations/contests>, or by calling 406-444-2449. All comments must be received on or before Dec. 30.

Comments may be mailed to FWP Fisheries Division, Attn: Fishing Contests, P.O. Box 200701, Helena, MT 59620-0701, or emailed to FWPFishComments@mt.gov.

"Toast to our Absent Members"

The first Sunday in December marks the day we pay our respects to Elks before us. When we initiate new members, we offer a "Toast to our Absent Members," promising new members "we will never forget them." Fulfillment of this promise is key to an Elks existence.

This date is saved for our predecessors, without whom we would have neither Lodge, nor Brotherhood, nor all we share as Elks.

The Dillon Elks Lodge will be conducting an annual Memorial Service on Sunday, December 4 at 2PM in the Lodge Room. The public is invited to this event and a reception with refreshments will follow the service.

The Legacy of No. 18

Western Bulldog and Dillon Beaver football player M.J. Simkins, whose life was tragically cut short prior to the start of his senior year, wore the number 18 with pride. He wanted the number so badly that he had to do some major bargaining to get it. The number had tremendous significance because it showed his love for Dillon and Beaverhead County, which is Montana county number 18.

Rob Goode, MJ's defensive coordinator at UMW had this to say about MJ. "MJ bled Dillon. He was a Beaver and he was a Dawg and he bled Dillon, Montana. He would have ended up being a great teacher and coach here or whatever community he lived in. He would have been one of the best. Dillon produces family kids, team kids who work hard and know the value of putting in the hours every day. They know how to work. He developed himself into a player who would have started for us and he deserved it"

M.J. was known for his motto of "leave it better than you found it". Engine 18 carries M.J.'s legacy and motto forward today. Engine 18 is a tailgating fire engine, built in 2017 by a group of UMW alumni, and sports fans in Dillon. Engine 18 was originally built to provide an ultimate tailgating experience, but quickly became a vehicle used for raising money for athletic scholarships and supporting Western athletes in honor of M.J. Simkins.

MJ wore the #18 for three seasons 2014 to 2016. His brother Nathan carried forward the tradition and values of the #18 throughout his epic Bulldog career (2017-2021) in which he holds five Montana Western program records: single-season passes caught (83), career passes caught (222), single-season touchdown receptions (16), career touchdown receptions (39), and total touchdowns (39).

The Legacy Moving Forward

This year the number 18 has become a legacy number for the Bulldog Football team. The number was and will be given to a senior student-athlete who represents the spirit and values of M.J. and what Bulldog Football is all about. For the 2022 season it was awarded to senior running back Reese Neville.

"It is such an amazing honor to be able to wear the number 18 this season. To have this team, community, and of course the Simkins family behind me, has filled me with great pride. I've never been a big talker. I have always tried to lead by example and wearing number 18 made that much more important." Senior running back Reese Neville said.

"There is a lot of significance behind the number 18. It represents a legacy for our team and represents what our team is all about. I believe it is important that we carry MJ's legacy on because he loved Bulldog football, he loved his family, and he brought this community closer together than it's ever been." Neville continued. "It shows that we play not only for our team, but also for our entire community. We need to keep that legacy of making every Bulldog feel like family. And as for the team and program, MJ believed in 'leave it better then you found it' and that's exactly what we intend to do every year. And the number 18 is what brings it all together."
