1937 - 2022

Thomas D. Oostmeyer was born on April 13th, 1937 in Muskegon, MI and passed away on November 28th, 2022 in Dillon, MT after a long battle with COPD.

He joined the Navy at the age of 17 after embellishing his age. Following his stint in the Military, he worked as an over the road truck driver for many years then started A1 Carpet Cleaning which he owned and operated for the next 20 years.

Tom had a great sense of humor, always ready with a good joke. He had many hobbies including building gyrocopters, metal detecting, fishing and played many, many games with family. Tom was the 2nd of eight children.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Benjamin & Catherine Oostmeyer, In-laws Ernest & Zella Chamberlain, daughter Bonnie Oostmeyer and siblings Dick & Judy.

He is survived by his wife of 57 years, Gloria Oostmeyer, daughters Debbie (Clint) Rasmussen, their children Nicki (John) McKenzie, Cassie (Colton) Carlin, Shane (Jackie) Rasmussen, Jake (Alexis) Rasmussen, Kayla Rasmussen, Cody (Sarah) Rasmussen, Tessa (Russell) Haynie, Tori (Wyatt) Ullery. Daughter Cathy (Larry) Dyck and their children Brian (Kayla) Dyck, Trevor Dyck and Riley Dyck. Sister-in-law, Marty, siblings, Mike, Barb, Kathy, Greta, Janel and 14 Great-Grandchildren with another 5 on the way and many nieces & nephews.

Special thanks to the fantastic care provided by Dr. Madney, the Barrett Hospital team & Pioneer Care & Rehabilitation Center. Memorial service will be December 17th at 11:00 am at First Baptist Church. Burial will happen at a later date in Salem, OR.

King Honored With Montana Athletes In Service Award

Montana Western Senior Mesa King (Big Timber, Mont. / SR), a 6'1 Forward on the Women's Basketball team, has been named a 2022 Montana Athletes in Service award winner. This is the second time that King has earned this award during her collegiate career.

Mesa, a senior majoring in Physical Education and Elementary Education, has been involved as a volunteer for a fifth and sixth grade youth travel basketball team in Dillon as a coach and is the president of the UMW Association of Student-Athletes (ASA). Mesa is also currently a student teacher at Parkview Elementary School in Dillon and serves as the Frontier Conference Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) Social Media Coordinator.

King has also helped to coordinate events such as the Bulldog statue campaign, the COVID Meal Train during the 2020-21 school years, the annual ASA sponsored Canned Food Drive, and the upcoming Holidays with the Bulldogs event. She has also been a part of planning the annual end of the year athlete banquet, volunteered in elementary & middle schools during the 2019 National Championship season, and volunteers regularly at on campus athletic events.

Along with other student-athletes from Montana colleges and universities, King was honored during the 121st Brawl of the Wild game in Bozeman, Mont. on November 19 for her dedication to serving those in her community.

"I am honored to be recognized for this award for the second time in my athletic career. As a member of the small community of Dillon and the Montana Western family, we pride ourselves in holding each other to high standards to achieve a common goal. I have genuinely enjoyed giving back to the community that has truly supported me during my six years as a Bulldog." Mesa King said.

Wolf trapping not yet open in occupied grizzly bear habitat areas

Wolf trapping is not yet open in areas in or near occupied grizzly bear habitat.

Trapping in these districts, which includes sections of trapping districts 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 starts on Dec. 31 unless otherwise determined by Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks due to the evidence the majority of bears in these areas have begun hibernation.

In and near occupied grizzly bear habitat is defined as the following:

- Trapping District (TD) 1;
- TD 2 except for area beginning at the Montana-Idaho border on US Highway 93 at Lost Trail Pass, then southwesterly, northerly and westerly along said border to Interstate 90 at Lookout Pass, then easterly along the northern boundary of Mineral County to its intersection with I-90, then easterly along I-90 to the first I-90 bridge west of the Ninemile interchange, then southeasterly along said highway to the Rock Creek interchange, then south along Rock Creek Road to Eagle Creek Cable Crossing, then west on USFS Trail 215 to the Rock Creek-Bitterroot River Divide, then southerly along said divide to the Continental Divide (at West Pintler Peak), then southwesterly along said divide to the Montana Idaho border, then westerly along said border to Hwy 93, the point of beginning;
- TD 3 except for the portion west of I-15 and south of I-90 and that portion north of I-90, north and east of state route 69, and east of I-15;
- TD 4 except for the eastern portion (south and east of I-15-Hwy 87, east of Hwy 223 between Fort Benton and Hwy 2 at Chester, north of Hwy 2 between Chester and I-15 at Shelby, and east of I-15 between Shelby and the Canadian border); and
- TD 5 west of US Route 310 and south of I-90.

FWP staff are tracking bear activity in these areas. The chart below shows current bear activity.

ARE YOU A VETERAN LEGION ACT

President Trump and Congress passed this bill into law on July 30, 2019.

Since 1919 to 2019 only Veterans that had served as active duty in the armed forces during war time periods were eligible to join the American Legion. Many Veterans served in the armed forces between the war periods and we not eligible to join the legion as the 1st law in congress was set up only for Veterans that were serving during wars periods. We are the strongest Veterans Organization that fights for and to keep all Veteran benefits with congress every year. Now with the new law if any Veteran that has served one day of active duty since 1941 and has been honorably discharged or serving now is eligible to join the American Legion.

Beaverhead Post No. 20 in Dillon is seeing a lot of our membership changing do to the ages of members and those who have passed on to provide services to our local Veterans. We provide Honor Guard services to those families of departed Veterans. We continue to provide a Memorial Day Ceremony, and are the only group that places military grave headstones for our departed Veterans and supply anyone in the community with our free medical equipment loan program. It is getting very hard for our members to take care of these programs. The age of many members in the post are unable to do these programs and now we are looking for some younger veterans to help our post.

If you are a Veteran that may be interested in belonging to the American Legion you can contact us at Beaverhead Post No. 20; P. O. Box 146; Dillon, MT. 59725.
