Doug Hubbard

Douglas Lee Hubbard, better known as Doug to his family and friends, passed away peacefully on December 3, 2022. Born on June 6, 1946 to Bill and Gloriann Hubbard, he lived in Dillon during his childhood. After his father remarried Iris Hubbard, Doug was the only boy in a blended family with nine sisters. He spent his early years riding motorcycles all over creation with his lifelong friends, George and Floyd Rebich.

After graduating high school, Doug joined the Marines. He served three tours of duty in Vietnam and signed up for fourth, but did not make that deployment. Doug was a Reconnaissance Marine Sergeant and survived the Battle of Hue. After three years of combat, he was honorably discharged. Doug used his GI Bill benefits to study mechanics at the vocational college in Helena.

Doug worked hard all his life. He was an entrepreneur who owned two Standard Oil service stations in Butte during the 1970's. After buying three Coleman tent trailers, intending to sell two and keep one for his family camping adventures and instead selling all three immediately, Doug sold his service stations and started Rocky Mountain RV in 1979. From his humble beginnings, Doug built a successful business that is still run by his son, Nathan.

Doug was an exceptional outdoorsman. Big game hunting and fly fishing were his passions. He loved hunting elk, first for trophy bulls and later in life for dry cows or yearlings to help preserve the herds. He stalked fish from Alaska to Idaho, but found as much joy fishing Berry Creek as he did steelhead fishing. At his cabins, Doug befriended wild animals and enjoyed being surrounded by nature. In recent years, Doug's favorite adventures were taking long rides in his truck with his wife, Cindy, to see beautiful places and spot game.

He had a defiant streak that often entertained those who knew him best, but he was exceptionally generous to his friends. From butchering wild game, to helping others start their businesses or offering a job during tough times, Doug was always there to lend a hand.

He is missed and loved by surviving relatives: his wife, Cindy Humphrey Hubbard; his son and family Nathan,

CWD management hunt to open in portion of lower Ruby Valley

Hunt runs from Dec. 10 through Feb. 15

A chronic wasting disease (CWD) management hunt will be held for white-tailed deer in a portion of hunting district 322 in the lower Ruby Valley.

The hunt will run from Dec. 10 through Feb. 15. Several 2022 licenses can be used for the hunt, and each—including B licenses—will be valid for either-sex whitetail harvest. Valid licenses, which will be available for purchase throughout the hunt, will include:

- General deer license
- 003-00 white-tailed deer B license
- 399-00 white-tailed deer B license

The goal of the management hunt is continued reduction of white-tailed deer density and the number of animals carrying CWD—a fatal, contagious neurological disease that infects deer, elk and moose. CWD surveillance across southwest Montana over the past two years, including broad CWD management hunts, continues to illustrate a localized area of high prevalence among white-tailed deer in the lower Ruby Valley, surrounded by an area of low prevalence.

So far this season, CWD has been found in about 45 percent of hunter-harvested white-tailed deer, including 80-percent prevalence in adult bucks, within the boundaries of the management hunt area. Without substantial population reduction, localized CWD prevalence is expected to increase in the coming years.

The management hunt area includes almost exclusively private lands south of Twin Bridges along the Beaverhead and Ruby rivers. A map of the hunt area can be found online at <https://tinyurl.com/4bvh9dx5>.

The hunt area boundaries are described as follows: beginning at Twin Bridges, then southeasterly along Montana Highway 287 to its intersection with Poppleton Street in Sheridan; then west along Poppleton Street to Silver Springs Road; then southerly along Silver Springs Road to its intersection with Ruby River Drive; then northwesterly along Ruby River Drive to its intersection with Lewis Lane; then westerly along Lewis Lane to its intersection with Davis Lane; then westerly along Davis Lane to its intersection with East Bench Road; then northeasterly along East Bench Road to its intersection with Silver Bow Lane; then westerly along Silver Bow Lane to its intersection with Montana Highway 41; then northeasterly along Montana Highway 41 to its intersection with Montana Highway 287 at Twin Bridges, the point of beginning.

As always, landowner permission is required before hunting on private lands. The relatively small hunt area will limit the number of hunters who can participate. All other 2022 hunting regulations apply, including regulations on carcass disposal. Information on proper carcass disposal can be found online at fwp.mt.gov/CWD.

CWD testing is optional for hunters, but samples from hunter-harvested deer are desired for CWD monitoring. Some participating ranches will require testing as a condition of hunting. Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks pays for the testing, making it free for hunters. FWP has provided resources to help hunters collect and submit samples for testing on their own. These resources can be found online at fwp.mt.gov/CWD. Hunters can also call a regional FWP office to schedule an appointment if they need help collecting a CWD sample.

CWD was first detected in Montana's wild cervids in 2017. It has since been detected widely along Montana's northern and southern borders. CWD was first detected among white-tailed deer in the Ruby Valley in 2019 and is now known to occur at low prevalence in the Ruby, Beaverhead, Big Hole and Jefferson watersheds. White-tailed deer in these areas are contiguous with populations of white-tailed deer where CWD has not yet been detected and seasonally overlap with populations of mule deer, elk and moose. Known distribution of CWD in Montana can be view by visiting fwp.mt.gov/CWD.

CWD is not known to infect humans. However, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention recommends that people not eat meat from infected animals and have their harvested animals tested before eating them if they were taken from an area where CWD is known to exist. For more information on CDC recommendations, please visit go.usa.gov/xAcnc.

AG Knudsen warns of scam callers posing as law enforcement

Attorney General Austin Knudsen is warning Montanans of scammers attempting to obtain personal information from unsuspecting individuals over the phone by claiming to be law enforcement officials. The fraudsters are disguising their phone number, so on caller ID it appears the number is coming from a legitimate law enforcement office, which is also referred to as "spoofing."

Once on the phone with an individual, the scammer will threaten the victim with outstanding warrants or investigations to try to obtain personal information, like bank account numbers. Other times, to supposedly clear the charges against them, the victim is ordered to obtain reloadable debit cards or other forms of payment, then provide the card numbers to the scammer.

An Anaconda woman recently shared her story of losing her life savings to scammers claiming to be law enforcement.

"Always be on high alert for scammers looking to take advantage of you. Especially during the holidays, more criminals seem to be looking to make a quick buck," Attorney General Knudsen said. "If anyone asks you for personal information over the phone do not provide it unless you can verify who you are speaking to and always trust your gut."

The DOJ's Office of Consumer Protection encourages Montanans who are targeted by these scammers to either hang up the phone, or, if they think a law enforcement agency may be trying to get a hold of them but they are not sure of the legitimacy of the call, take the following steps:

- Ask the caller for his/her name and immediate supervisor;
- Ask under what authority this call is being made;
- Ask the court of jurisdiction;
- Hang up, find the law enforcement agency's phone number from their official website (such as the city or county website) or in the phone book, and call the agency at that number to verify the information provided; and
- NEVER provide personal information over the phone to someone unless you initiated the contact (you called them) and you are certain you know who you are speaking to.

To report an attempted scam, use OCP's convenient online reporting form here. You can also call to speak with one of our investigators at (800) 481-6896 or (406) 444-4500, visit OCP's homepage at <https://dojmt.gov/consumer/>, or call your local law enforcement agency.

Last year, the Office of Consumer Protection fielded 945 scam complaints and successfully saved Montanans from losing more than $1.3 million, including $869,600 that was recovered for Montanans who were victimized by scammers and $465,579 in prevented loss for consumers who called inquiring about whether they were being scammed.

Veteran's Corner Update #181

By Mike Lawson

On the Veteran front, today was a special day for the Ladies from the VFW #1448 Auxiliary and Shirlee Boitnott, one of their members and more. Our ladies in our Veteran Auxiliary organizations are incredible, in all they do to support our veterans and our communities. Without them, we couldn't do all the things we are able to do. Governor Gianforte presented the "Spirit of Montana" award to Shirley Boitnott, for the many things she has done for the many veteran projects, that help the Butte community and our Veteran Organizations. The foremost one, that is special to my heart, is the Marine's Toy For Tot's Butte Campaign, that covers Butte, Whitehall, Harrison, Twin Bridges, the Ruby Valley, Dillon and Melrose. I've been the TFT Coordinator for 10 plus years and Shirlee has been a hardworking integral part of it, during that time. She spends countless hours in running the Hooch (receiving/distribution) part of our operation. This is where the Toys come in and then go out to the families in need, which enables them to give their children presents, at Christmas. I call her the Assistant TFT Coordinator, because she knows the system inside and out. She loves the fact that the kids are being helped, in the TFT's special mission of providing presents to them. Many more things could be said about Shirlee, but congratulate her and know that she is a wonderful asset, in making Butte and SW MT a better place to live in. The VFW #1448 Auxiliary were also awarded "The Spirit of Montana Award" for all they have done in the community, and especially at the SW MT Veteran's Home, helping the resident Veterans, who live there. One thing they just did, was provide a Christmas Store for these Resident Veterans to buy presents, for their loved ones. The SW MT Veteran's Foundation provided the money, so that the Veterans could get the presents, without having to worry about paying for them. This is just an example of where their hearts are. They're to be applauded and this was a long overdue day, for the ladies to be recognized. What a special day, for them, it was.

3-Bears store, vicinity. The VA CBOC medical center, will see construction begin this month, on the unfinished north end of this building. The main purpose for this area will be for Physical Therapy. In talking with Wayne Paffhausen, (owner/contractor), the main thrust for December, is to have Lockmer Plumbing get the plumbing completed and then have LaProwse Concrete pour the slab. He hopes to have that finished this month and start the inside framing in January. He feels that, without any complications, it will be ready to move into sometime this spring. I might also add, that more medical personal have been hired to work at the CBOC. The popularity of many SW MT Veterans making this facility, their primary health care treatment center, has created the need for more staff. This hiring more personal, is great news for SW MT Veterans. Down the road at our SW MT Veteran's Home, the Markovich carpenter crew, building the "Covered Walkway, between Cottages #4 & #5, are on hold until the steel roof trusses (being built in Texas) arrive. With the weather as it is, its probably just as well. This isn't the best time to be opening up these two Cottage's roofs. Once these needed trusses arrive, construction will continue. Construction Superintendent Mike Ascherman, said things will move quickly and up to this point, they're on schedule. From my observation, this covered walkway is going to be a great enhancement, for both of these Cottages.

We are seeing a lot of Holiday activities already taking place in SW MT.. Down Dillon way, the Moose Bar is going to have a "Toys 4 Tots" Pool Shooting Tournament. on Dec 10th, starting at 11:00 AM. It's a great fund raiser for the Toys For Tots Campaign and will benefit getting toys for the kids.

Christmas music is hitting the airways and I have many fond memories, of listening to the many Christmas songs being played, on the radio, all day-every, day during December. December, for me, is such a joyful month, right up to Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. I always remind people to remember the reason for the season, if you have a belief in our Lord. Some don't, but still find joy during these holidays, and that's a good thing.
